CONGRESS AUTHORIZES RECRUIT ING MOBILE ARMY TO ITS FULL STRENGTH.

SUPREME EFFORT

Official Dispatches Indicate That Carranza is Determined to Capture Villa and Bandits.

Washington.-While there were indications in official alspatches from Mexico that the de facto government was making a supreme effort to capture Villa and his bandits with its own forces, there was no sign that General Funston's orders to proceed on the same errand had been modified in any way.

Word that American troops had crossed the border was still lacking the war department itself not having been advised as to when the movement would begin. Congress took active notice of the border situation for the first time. The house passed a joint resolution authorizing the recruiting of the mobile regular army to full strength. This means the addition of approxi mately 20,000 fighting men to the in fantry, cavalry and field artillery. The step was suggested by the army general staff. Ever since the patrol of the border began the army has been greatly handic oped by the panies there being less than 40 men international border.
