

LOVES AND PERSONALS OF INTEREST TO Farmville and Surrounding Sections

Dr. Lee Carr was in Farmville last week.

Miss Sue Thorne was in town for Sunday.

Mr. A. C. Monk spent Monday in Greenville.

Mr. E. C. Beaman spent Wednesday in Wilson.

Miss Ruth Ruffin is visiting her sister at Gumberry.

Mr. J. M. Parker paid Greenville a business visit Monday.

Mrs. Rufus Knott left Monday for a visit to relative in Raleigh.

Mr. Hubert Joyner is visiting his mother, Mrs. C. E. Moore in Wilson.

Mr. Will Askew is making some improvements on the front of his store.

Miss Daisy Bryant of Saratoga, spent Friday with her sister Mrs. Frank Davis.

Let me have your dry cows, calves, etc.—Jno. T. Thorne, Farmville, N. C.

Mrs. R. T. Martin left last week to spend some time with relatives at Belhaven.

Miss Genevieve McMillan spent the week end at Seaside Neck with friends.

Mr. Walter Sheppard delivered the closing address for the school at Arthur last Friday.

Mrs. Frank Davis' parents Mr. and Mrs. Bryant, of Saratoga, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. J. M. Christman spent several days last week with Mrs. C. E. Moore, in Wilson.

Dr. Annie Joyner comes over from Greenville twice each week on professional business.

Wanted—50 lean cattle, young animals preferred. Jno. T. Thorne, Farmville, N. C.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Teel Sunday morning March 12, at the hour of 2, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morgan, of Wilson, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Morgan Sunday.

Miss Hodges, the efficient milk-liner for E. L. Barrett's store, has returned for the spring season.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Fields motored to Wilson Wednesday, taking several friends with them.

Miss B. Moore, Jr., spent the week end with relatives in Burg. Mrs. Moore returned with him.

Mr. J. W. Joyner, of Maceson, left for the city Wednesday evening to the pleasure of his friends.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the play given by the graduating class of the High School Wednesday night.

Misses Norvella Horton and Sallie Keel are at home for a few days from the Woman's College in Richmond.

Mrs. Sam Irvin and sister-in-law Mrs. J. R. Irvin spent Saturday in town, the latter leaving on the afternoon train to join her husband in Cetyab, Va.

"Freckles", a play taken from Gene Stratton Porter's book by that name will be presented by a very good company in the opera house Friday night March 17th.

Note the change in the advertisement of J. B. Harris in this issue. He has a special message that will be of interest to the men, both young and old, in the town.

There are three kinds of people in any organization and community—the workers, the talkers and the idlers. Under which class are you in regard to your work and your improvement?

We went up to the school building one afternoon last week to get some notes of the principal, but the time was too short to do so. We can get the same information from the school building by a special talk by the principal on any subject.

About sixteen of the members of Farmville Lodge of Odd Fellows went to Robersonville last Thursday to attend the District meeting. They report a splendid time and an interesting meeting.

See the advertisement of the Hub Hardware Co. elsewhere in this issue.

We don't have the pleasure of reporting those week end visits to Sawy Hill any more that our friend Mr. Jimmie Darden once made. Well, we thought he'd decide that Farmville possessed "green pastures".

Don't fail to see "Freckles" at the opera house tonight Friday, March 17th. This is really a high class play by a good company, and is well worth the price of admission. See advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. Frank Davis left Tuesday for Baltimore, taking his daughter, Elizabeth there for treatment in John Hopkins Hospital. Miss Isler went with them as her nurse. Friends are hoping for a speedy recovery for the little girl.

We understand that Mr. J. W. Parker has had plans drawn for two handsome houses to be built on Church street one for Mrs. Parker and himself, the other for his daughter Mrs. J. T. Harris. We are glad to report this for a town in either marred or made beautiful by his residences.

FOR SALE—Norton Yams and Nancy Hall Potato slips. These slips are of the best variety. Write or see C. E. Spivey, Farmville, N. C. Route 1.

Mrs. Kirk Entertains Missionary Society.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. E. Kirk.

The program was one of much interest, subject, "Southern Social Problems and the Home Mission Board." The following program consisting of Bible study topic, was rendered:

"Prayers of the Bible," Miss Annie Perkins.

Discussion of "Social Problems," Mrs. Jones E. Kirk.

"She Worketh Willingly With Her Hands," Mrs. J. W. Holmes.

"Bella Signarina Stations," Miss Latta.

While several were absent on account of illness, the meeting was well attended. Mrs. John H. Howerton was with us and became a member of our society. We welcome her and feel that she will be a great help to us in the work.

MRS. J. E. KIRK, Pres.
MISS ANNIE PERKINS, Sec.

ATTRACTION AT BYNUM'S SCHOOL HOUSE.

We are requested to announce that there will be two plays given at Bynum's school house, Greene county, tonight, Friday, March 17th. The names of the plays are "Light Brigade" and "Love and Laughter". The admission will be 15 and 25 cents.

You can go expecting something good, for this school surely knows how to entertain you.

A Good Attraction Bill for Next Tuesday Night.

Mr. James E. King, a touring expert in his profession, has been in the city for the past two weeks training Farmville's best local talent, who together with Mr. King, will present to the showing people of Farmville and community Tuesday night of next week, March 21st, one of the finest and best musical attractions that it has ever been your privilege to see anywhere.

The show has been gotten up in the interest and for the benefit of Farmville's Volunteer Fire Co., and should receive the hearty support of every citizen in the town, who from this, however, this attraction is well worth the price of admission. See the enclosed program, night March 21st, you'll be glad to read it.

"FRECKLES"

One of the most important settings of the current season as the Farmville Opera House is the first presentation here of Neil Twomey's delightful dramatization of Gene Stratton Porter's charming story "Freckles", which is announced for one night, Friday, March 17th.

The fact that there have been more readers of this story than any other book published in a decade—a fair estimate is in the millions—makes the dramatization of the utmost importance to the dramatic world.

"Freckles" as a song play is stronger than "Freckles" as a story.

The characters live, love and have adventure,—one can see and hear, there is nothing left to the imagination. The Broadway Amusement Company, under whose management the present tour is conducted, has made the production of "Freckles" exceedingly elaborate, and has assembled a company of unusual excellence for the presentation of this charming song play.

The music for the play and the songs rendered by "Freckles" and other characters are by the Viennese composer, Anatol Friedland, and are a novelty from a musical point of view.

There are seven big song numbers in Freckles. Prices for this engagement are first four rows, $1.00; next seven rows 75c; general admission 50c; children under 12 years 25c. Seats on sale at Parker & Newton Drug Store.
