You Need a Tonic

There are times in every woman's life when she needs a tonic to help her over the hard places. When that time comes to you, you know what tonic to take—Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act gently, yet surely, on the weakened womanly organs, and helps build them back to strength and health. It has benefited thousands and thousands of weak, ailing women in its past half century of wonderful success, and it will do the same for you.

You can't make a mistake in taking

GARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

Miss Amelia Wilson, R. F. D. No. 4, Alma, Ark., says: "I think Cardui is the greatest medicine on earth, for women. Before I began to take Cardui, I was so weak and nervous, and had such awful dizzy spells and a poor appetite. Now I feel as well and as strong as I ever did, and can eat most anything." Begin taking Cardui today. Sold by all dealers.

Has Helped Thousands.

SPEIGHT BRIDGE DEPARTMENT

By THOS. E. BEAMAN, Correspondent
Locals and Otherwise

Elder L. L. Smith filled his regular appointment at Howell Swamp Sunday.

Dr. Paul Howard Ellis is seriously ill with scarlet fever in a hospital at Winston Salem.

Sunday School was held at Tabernacle Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. It was favored by good attendance.

The stork lighted at 4 homes in Wilson recently and left five children; four girls and one boy, all of which reside within half a block of each other. Wise old bird.

The recent revival of the town of Wilson resulted in many additions to the churches. Thirty were added to the Christian church, thirty two were added to the Presbyterian church, twenty eight were added to the Baptist church and twenty were added to the Methodist church.

John E. Lanier, a wealthy member of a distinguished Virginia family, living at Chatham shot his wife on the eighth of April and then turned a pistol on himself meeting instantaneous death. He was married in December to Miss Elizabeth Figg. Mrs. Lanier will recover. Twenty years ago Lanier's father ended his life in the same way.

At a school entertainment in Toisnot township Simon Johnson shot and killed Will Bailey. It appeared that Johnson hung around the place during the evening and said that he was going to shoot some one; later in the night pistol shots were heard. Since Bailey did not return his mother started an investigation and later his body was found by the roadside. The inquest found Johnson responsible for the death of Bailey.

The body of a negro woman was found dead by the road side near White Oak Swamp, when found it was lying near a pool of water and is supposed that she fell with a fit and died in this position. The woman has been affected with heart trouble and had a way of wandering away from home. She announced the day she died that she was going off to make some custard pies.

Mrs. Welley W. Cox age 76 died last Thursday the 6th of pneumonia, her home was on Contentnea farm near Speights Bridge. She was the mother of twelve children, three have preceeded her across the river, the nine which is now living are Mrs. P. S. Johns, Mrs. W. T. Shields and Mr. S. P. Cox of Durham; Mrs. L. F. Austin of Clayton; L. M. and A. C. Cox and Misses Pattie and Vivian Cox who resided with her at her death. She has seventeen grand children and fourteen great grand children. The enternent took place Friday following following. Rev. G. O. Durant conducted the burial services. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

A POSITIVE STATEMENT BY A BIG BUSINESS MAN

"Neglect of Apparently Unimportant Conditions Wrecks Many a Healthy Growing Business"

W. S. ELKIN, JR.

a prominent druggist of Atlanta, Ga., is authority for the above positive statement. In explaining this statement he asked two questions and offered one suggestion.

If a growing healthy business firm and begins to run down hill, what is the condition of the owner's health? Almost always, seriously bad.

What was the one cause of the poor health? Consumption.

This condition could have been avoided by using the only cigarette of its kind in the world, Prince Albert.

What we tell you about Prince Albert is a fact that will prove out in your satisfaction just as quickly as you lay in a stock and buy!

Prince Albert will show you the real road to smoke-joy!

PRINCE ALBERT was made to create tobacco content where it never existed before! It permits men to smoke all they want without getting a sore tongue, without any comeback but real tobacco enjoyment! The patented process by which Prince Albert is made (and controlled exclusively by us) fires that—and cuts out bits and parch!

PRINCE ALBERT
national joy smoke

comes right to your taste, fair and square! And it will do for you what it has done for thousands of men—make pipe or cigarette smoking the cheerfulness of your pleasure!
