Note the change in the advertisement of the Lane Land Co. This corporation is not only doing a large volume of business in this section of the state but has broadened out to where it is now offering suburban property in cities of other states. See or write them if interested in buying, selling or exchanging of real estate.

Jackson-Woolard

Bath, N. C., Oct. 21.—A quiet but beautiful wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Woolard, last Tuesday, October 17th at 2 o'clock, when their daughter, Effie Eula, was given in marriage to Mr. John C. Jackson, of Farmville, formerly of Yeatesville, Rev. W. O. Winfield of Bath, was the officiating minister. The ceremony was witnessed by only a small assemblage due to the illness of the bride's sister.

They will visit many places of interest before returning to Farmville, where they will reside, where Mr. Jackson is engaged in business. Mrs. Jackson is a very attractive young woman of charming personality and has many friends throughout Eastern Carolina. Mr. Jackson is held in high esteem by a host of friends which will assist him greatly in making his business career a continued success. Those attending were the immediate relatives and friends of the family.

"For goodness sake, John, can't you check that furnace? Do you want to roast us alive?"

"One would think it Mid-winter instead of early Fall."

"How foolish we were not to put up a

Cole's Original Air-Tight Wood Stove

for just such days as this.

"Why, my head is fairly splitting!"

"That wood stove will give us just as much or as little heat as we want this changeable weather."

"It holds fire all night and heats up quickly in the morning by putting in a fresh stick."

"And think of the furnace coal we would have saved—four or five tons at least—during the Fall and Spring."

"Talk about comfort—that is the way to get it."

It is also the best way for YOU to have it. Will you try it and realize this "Quick Comfort" Home?

Cole's Original Air-Tight Stove, is sold only by us.
