BYNUM-HAZELTON

The swift darts of Cupid have again been busy at their merry sport of playing with glad hearts, and as usual the little elf by his shy adroitness caused a sensational breeze to follow in his wake.

So on Tuesday afternoon, April 15th, at the home of Mrs. N. E. Smith in Hugo, N. C., Mr. John Turner Bynum, of Farmville, and Miss Sallie Fox Hazelton stood at the shrine of Hymen, and united their lives in the love-forged links of sweetest bondage.

Long before the ceremony the house was crowded with friends and relatives. Promptly at 3 o'clock to the enchanting strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March beautifully rendered by Mrs. J. L. Shackelford, the attractive bride, attired in a traveling suit of midnight blue, with accessories to match, carrying a shower bouquet of bride's roses, and leaning on the arm of the groom, entered the parlor. They were met by Rev. M. Craig, of Kinston, who solemnly and impressively made them man and wife.

After the ceremony, the happy couple, amidst congratulations and best wishes, left for Farmville, where they took the Norfolk Southern train for Richmond, Baltimore, and other northern points. They were the recipients of numerous beautiful and useful presents.

The bride, a graduate nurse of the Kinston Hospital, is one of the sweetest and purest types of womanhood that ever threw the halo of endearment around the hearts of those who can appreciate the true and the good in God's best gift to man.

The groom, an admirable and worthy gentleman, is highly esteemed by all who know him.

May the little bark that has just been launched on the broad, beautiful sea of life, freighted with two glad and trustful hearts, encounter no gales, and at the end of a long and happy voyage, may they safely anchor in the haven of rest.

—An attendant.
