Womans' Missionary Society Met With Mrs. G. M. Holden.

On the evening of April 19th Mrs. G. M. Holden was hostess to the Woman's Missionary Society, the occasion being the bringing in of the talent money.

At the February meeting, each member was given the small sum of five cents, and the result was beyond the hopes of even the most optimistic, for the count brought in was $125.00.

Mrs. Holden proved to be a most charming hostess in the unique manner in which she entertained.

Being the Easter season her home was attractively decorated with the beauties of Spring—Easter lillies, dear little chicks and cute little bunnies greeted you everywhere.

After being served a delicious punch we were ushered into the Library where an Easter egg hunt was enjoyed, all entering into it with real childish glee. Mrs. Christman proved to be the most successful one in finding the greatest number of eggs.

To refresh us from the hunt we were taken into the dining room where a delicious ice course was served.

The President of the Society, Mrs. J. W. Parker, with a few well chosen words thanked Mrs. Holden for the pleasant evening and the ladies for the enthusiastic use of their talents.

All left wishing that another such easter would soon come again and Mrs. Holden would be our hostess.

The guests of honor were Mrs. J. T. Harris, Mrs. W. Leslie Smith, city, and Mrs. H. M. Rouse of Goldsboro.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes: "From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to . . .

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic. "I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain. . . It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble." If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to counter your bearing-down pains, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.
