B. A. JOYNER, Mgr.

ASKEW-JOYNER.

The beautiful marriage of Miss Elspeth Askew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Askew, to Mr. James W. Joyner, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Joyner, was solemnized Wednesday evening at 9:30 o'clock, in the presence of a host of friends of the popular couple, in the Emanuel Episcopal Church, the ceremony being performed by the Rt. Rev. Thomas C. Darst, Bishop of the Eastern Diocese of North Carolina.

The handsome new church was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers, the color scheme used being green and white.

Immediately preceding the ceremony Miss Ella Pender, of Tarboro, a classmate of the bride, charmingly sang "O Perfect Love." She wore a rose pan velvet with black picture hat, and was never more attractive looking.

Promptly at the appointed hour the bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Gladys Warren of Falkland, who gracefully and skillfully officiated at the piano. First came the ushers Mr. Henry Bourne of Tarboro, and Mr. Cyril Askew, a brother of the bride. Then followed Misses Elizabeth Edwards of Monrovia City and Marguerite Christian, bridesmaids, in orchid tulle with iridescent trimmings and orchid picture hat, carrying roses and sweetpeas. Next came Mr. Jack P. Lang and Mr. Arthur F. Joyner. Then followed Misses Louise Tojer of Rocky Mount and Eleanor Warren wearing turquoise blue tulle with picture hats carrying roses and sweetpeas.

Miss Annie Laurie Lang, the maid of honor, came next beautifully gowned in salmon pink tulle and tulle with picture hat to match. She carried pink roses.

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Everole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, ... and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui? ... I did, and soon saw it was helping me. ... After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health.

Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.
