Christian Endeavor Meeting.

To whom it may concern:

I will have you know for convenience that the officers of Farmville Christian Endeavor are: President, Alfred Flanagan; Vice President, Roland Parker; Treasurer, Arch Jay Flanagan; Corresponding Secretary, Milton May; rural district, Recording Secretary, Jessie Smith; Superintendent of Intermediates, Jim Joyner; and Superintendent of Juniors, Pessie Cason.

We held our election the evening of last Sunday. My personal opinion is that these officers will do their best for society. And I may say a society that every boy and girl of our little town ought to belong to.

Our delegates from the State Conference brought news of profound interest, and take it from me, enthusiasm played a great part in their spirit at the meeting in which our election was carried over the top.

The election lasted about thirty minutes, just one-half an hour.

Our style of doing things is decent, orderly and as the commanding officer of a troop of Boy Scouts or soldiers would put it snappy.

If it meets the consent of the officers of this society they will be entertained at the home of the president Friday, June 20th, 1919, at which time the work for the rest of the year will be discussed.

Parents of Farmville, you ask somebody about the benefits of the Christian Endeavor and see if you get any encouragement in sending your children to a meeting of this society.

I speak, I believe the feelings of the active members of this when I say we feel awfully downcast when we see that the boys and girls of the town do not appreciate what we are trying to do for them. And the most serious thing of it all is that no pay whatsoever do we receive. But thanks for our virtue of patience and realizing that our patience is somewhat limited we extend an urgent invitation to every boy, girl, man and woman of Farmville to visit us at any time.

Meeting time Sunday afternoon from 7:45 to 8:40 p. m. A sincere wisher and worker for benefits in all phases of life.

Sincerely,

ALFRED FLANAGAN,
President.

The man who lives quite up to the best standards of his age, of his people, of his neighbors, is not a bad man. The one who lives on a scale considerably above that of his age is a good man. No matter how much he may fall below the higher standards of an age, more refined, enlightened and civil.

FOOD IS CURE FOR BOLSHEVISM

First Aid Treatment Splendid Medicine for Spirit of Unrest. How War Savings Stamps Help.

President Wilson has asked for food to stop the wave of Bolshevism rolling westward out of Russia. No intelligent person doubts the value of food as a first aid, but at bottom the security of our institutions rests upon the working interest the people take in these institutions.

Citizens having no interest in a government, no economic interest in the success of that government, are apt to be the first victims of vicious propaganda or unbalanced political theorists. On the other hand men and women who have invested in their government either by way of conducting private enterprise under its protection or through direct purchase of government securities have something at stake and desire to maintain stable institutions. Such persons are not necessarily reactionists. They may be quite progressive and anxious for reform where reform is needed.

Consequently the effective barrier to Bolshevism in America today is thrift and investment. The philosophy must reach into the workshops of the nation. It is reaching into those workshops and into the schoolhouses of the nation in the form of the Thrift Stamp and the War Savings Stamp.

When everybody in America is buying Thrift and War Savings Stamps as a habit one won't hear much about Bolshevism in America. It is the financial and patriotic duty of every American who loves real liberty to get the Thrift Stamp habit NOW.

HOLD WAR SECURITIES.

Eastern Business Men Issue Warning Against Parting With Government Bonds and W. S. S.

That it is a bad business proposition for any merchant to encourage holders of War Savings Stamps to exchange them for merchandise is the opinion of a group of eastern business men, who recently discussed this question at their annual convention.

"Such action merely helps fake promoters and dishonest brokers in their effort to shake public confidence in government bonds as an investment," said one of the speakers. "It is lamentable that they have worked to an alarming degree among the poor, and among ignorant people of this country."

The gathering was so impressed with the necessity for keeping War Savings Stamps in the hands of the original purchasers that each pledged to go back home and constitute himself the head of a vigilance committee to oppose the offering of merchandise for government securities.

TO ENCOURAGE THRIFT

Schools Called Upon by Treasury Department to Make Saving Happy Habit.

Through the government savings directors of the twelve federal reserve districts, the Savings Division of the United States Treasury Department has called upon the normal schools, colleges and universities of the country to aid in the government campaign to make thrift a happy habit. The American Council on Education, representing institutions of higher learning throughout the country, has joined with the Savings Division to secure the co-operation of the schools.

The plan evolved by the Savings Division and the Council on Education contemplates the creation of thrift organizations in each of the normal schools, colleges and universities, to teach the basic principles of intelligent saving—wise buying, sane spending, safe investment and avoidance of waste, and to aid in featuring the advantage of Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps as the ideal investment for small savings. Through the American Council on Education, the presidents of the institutions of higher learning have been urged to name institutional thrift representatives, who will co-operate with the local savings organizations. This has been done in most cases. The educational institutions are expected to have a large influence in the movement to make the United States a nation of intelligent savers.

WORLD'S HISTORY IN RESUME PROVES W. S. S. WILL PAY.

One thing we know as we pursue the history of antiquity, from times when Noah was the hero, of Babylon's iniquity, down through the days when Caesar's ghost was haunting Brutus in his bed, is this: The spenders shouted most, but nearly all of them were dead. Whereas the lad who never flung sestercios to the poor crowd was never immaturally hung or measured for an early shroud. This bit of ancient sophistry has now its modern counterpart, and more and more it's borne on me how splendid is the saving art—the art of mind—ing one's affairs and watching little things increase. It rides the future of its cash, shows profit on our elbow to-day. Today when W. S. S. you find upon a hanging sign, you know the man's real thriftiness. A little does quite hard to find. I do not think the war for much, but this I've learned, and learned it proper, when I see one thus to make a Thrift Stamp makes an A-1 stopper.

Watch your tickets and the dollars will take care of themselves.

Small leaks sink big ships—stop them with W. S. S.
