GOVERNOR BICKETT SENDS LETTER TO AVERAGE CITIZEN

come Mr. Undesirable Citizen. When you, Mr. Average Citizen, tell the truth about your property, it will do no good for your neighbor, Mr. Undesirable Citizen, to tell a lie about his property, because when the books show truly what the property of Mr. Average Citizen is worth, this evidence will clearly and conclusively show what the property of Mr. Undesirable Citizen is worth. The local and district assessors, when they come to fix the value of property, will be governed by the sworn statement of Mr. Average Citizen. And when you, Mr. Average Citizen, tell the unvarnished truth about your property, that truth will wipe out every inequality in taxation in North Carolina. True values are always equal values; but the greatest expert cannot equalize a series of falsehoods.

When all the property in the State shall be placed on the books at its fair value, many benefits will accrue to you, Mr. Average Citizen.

1. You will have the great satisfaction of knowing that the record written by all the people of the State is a true record and not a lie on the commonwealth. This knowledge will wonderfully strengthen the moral fiber of our people.

2. You will know that every discrimination in taxation is wiped out and that every citizen is carrying his fair part of the burden.

3. As the values go up the rate of taxation will go down, and hereafter North Carolina will be known far and wide as a wealthy State with a low rate of taxation instead of a poor state with a high rate of taxation.

4. The General Assembly has made a pledge not to collect, under the proposed true valuation of property revenues greater than ten percent in excess of the revenues collected under the present false values. This means that the total revenues collected by the State shall not be greater than ten percent in excess of the total revenues collected under the present law. This most emphatically does not mean that no particular citizen will have to pay taxes in excess of ten percent of the amount he has heretofore paid. A particular citizen may pay less taxes than he has ever paid before. He may pay double what he has heretofore paid. That depends on whether or not he has heretofore paid his full share of the taxes according to his true worth. If he has paid more than his fair share the increase as to him will be less than ten per cent; if he has paid less than his fair share, the increase as to him will be more than ten per cent.

Sincerely yours,
T. W. BICKETT,
Raleigh, N. C. July 11, 1919.

DRY LAW ADVOCATES KNOCK OUT STRONG BEER ELEMENTS

"wets" asserting that it would merely permit the very thing the President as commander in chief of the army had said was best for the next six months. After two and three quarters per cent beer had been bowed over by a record vote of 151 to 90—and this was about the relative division on all amendments—the prohibitionists went after another amendment by Representative Igoe, Democrat, of Mobile, which would have stricken out all definition of intoxicants, killing the proposal 128 to 83.

There was the utmost confusion at times, despite vigorous whacks with a gavel, and some of the prohibition leaders applauded every move in their favor. The galleries, filled largely with women, and officers of anti-liquor organizations broke into applause when the House roared its disapproval of two and three quarter per cent beer.

And then, when it seemed the majority was weary of voting down every proposal by the other side, point of order were raised, and some motions, designed to make the law less drastic, were picked up by the majority and bodily threw it out.

PARIS CELEBRATES THE COMING OF PEACE

them are camping in the Camps Elysees and around the Palace de l'Etoile, where they are keeping company with the special night guards over the Cenotaph to the dead in the war. In all the squares of the line of march the gaiety which was dampened Saturday night by the rain was in full vent tonight, the most cosmopolitan crowds that ever celebrated France's National holiday dancing and singing to the music of more than a hundred bands and orchestras.

The Rest Is Silence.

"Why is it Sam, that one never hears of a darky committing suicide?" inquired the Northerner.
"Well, you see, it's disaway, boss. When a white pusson has any trouble he set down an' gits to studyin' 'bout it an' worryin'. Then first thing you know he's done killed hisself! But when a negro sets down to think 'bout his troubles, why, he jes' nacherly goes to sleep."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

CASON-BOOMER.

On June 25th the beautiful Antioch Christian church was a scene of loveliness Wednesday 9:30 p. m., when Miss Beattie Mae Cason was wedded to Mr. James Wellington Boomer.

The color scheme, which were the Rainbow colors, was carried out very effectively. The church being decorated in cut flowers and peas.

As the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding chorus was beautifully played by Mrs. Morton and soloed by the Camp Fire Girls, the two cousins, little Misses Lonnie Rasberry and Thelma Jones, entered strewing flowers as they went. Next came Miss Isabelle Boomer from Lake Landing, N. C., sister of the groom, wearing a blue evening dress with a blue tulle hair dress carrying a fan with sweet pea showers and Miss Emily Mitchell of Washington, N. C., dressed in blue and gold with gold hair dress and fan with sweet pea shower. Then Messrs. August Cox, of Washington, and Sam Flanagan of Farmville, came. Following were Miss Sallie Jackson of Greenville, N. C., wearing pink and green with pink hair dress and fan showers, and Miss Olivia Rasberry of Farmville in deep pink with pink tulle bow on hair and fan with showers of sweet peas. Then entered Messrs. Alfred Flanagan of Farmville, and Ariel Cason. Next came the little ring-bearer, Andy Noe, carrying the ring on a staff of valuable holly hocks. The dame of honor followed, who was Mrs. J. N. Payne of Washington, N. C., dressed in white and gold wearing half length veil. Miss Katie Cason, maid of honor, followed dressed in Orchid with orchid tulle hair bow and fan with showers. The bride then entered on the arm of her father, dressed in white crepe de chene with veil arranged with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. She was met at the altar by the groom with his best man, Mr. J. N. Payne of Washington.

After being congratulated by Rev. A. C. Noe, who officiated, they retired from the church while Mendelson's march was sweetly played. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cason, who have resided in Farmville for the past three years. She is known to the public, being guardian of the Camp Fire Girls and superintendent of the Junior Christian Endeavor. The groom is from Lake Landing, N. C. He is now residing in Farmville as night supt. of the Oil Mill. They left Thursday 26th a. m. for the groom's home and returned Wednesday July 2nd. They now live on Contentnea street at the home of Mrs. Myers. After the wedding ceremony the bridal party with a number of friends went to the home of the bride's parents for a delightful reception.

They first enjoyed music rendered by Miss Mitchell and Mrs. Morton. Next they were served punch in the hall by Misses Katie Cason and Isabelle Boomer and in the dining room ice cream and were served by the bride's mother and friends.
