RESIGNED BECAUSE OF BEING CHARGED BY WILSON WITH USURPING POWERS.

to One Whose Mind Is More Nearly Akuned to That of President Washington,-Robert Lansing ended his career as secretary of state after President Wilson had accused him of usurping the powers of President by calling meetings of the cabinet during Mr. Wilson's illness. Mr. Lansing answered two days later-saying he had called the cabinet conferences because he and others of the President's official family "felt that, in view of the fact that we were denied communication with you, it was wise for us to confer informally together on matters as to which action could not be postponed until your medical adviser permitted you to pass upon them.". The secretary concluded by saying that if the President believed he had failed in his "loyalty" to him and if Mr. Wilson no longer had confidence in him he was ready to "relieve you by its own people. of any embarrassment by placing my resignation in your hands.

"much disappointed" by Mr. Lansing's at $6,000,000,000 or only about 40 per the statements of Mr. Byrnes, letter regarding "the so-called cabinet cent of the credit balance of this meetings," and added that he "must country in the last six years. frankly take advantage of your kind suggestion" to resign.

"I must say," continued the President, "that it would relieve me of embarrassment, Mr. Secretary, the embarrassment of feeling your reluctance and divergence of judgment, if you willingly go along with mine."
