

GARDNER THE FRIEND OF ALL PEOPLE

O. MAX GARDNER
For Governor

Saturday, June 5, is the day set by the Democrats of North Carolina for the selection of a candidate for governor. Lieutenant Governor O. Max Gardner is a candidate for the nomination. In asking the support of the citizens of the state, Mr. Gardner stands upon the platform of fitness and his friends commend him as being, by training and experience, equipped for the position.

Max Gardner is a self-made man, started life without means, worked hard to secure an education and graduated at the A. & M. Later he studied law and graduated at the State University.

Having worked on the farm and in the cotton mill, Max Gardner is in hearty sympathy with the workers and desires to aid in the advancement of the people of the farms and factories of this state. A practical farmer, he has applied the principles studied at the A. & M. to his farm in Cleveland county and has been successful. With years of experience in business affairs, he will be able to lead the state in an economical administration of the state business.

UNFETTERED.

Max Gardner has refused repeatedly to make any pledges or promises to either organizations or individuals. Some leaders of Organized Labor are fighting Gardner bitterly because he would not make any pledges to that organization. Max Gardner proposes to serve all the people, if nominated and elected, and will not be tied to any previous promises.

ENDORSEMENTS.

Max Gardner has a great number of friends in all sections of the state. Hundreds have written letters endorsing his candidacy. There is no room here to print them all. But the endorsement of two men—both former governors are of interest.

FORMER GOVERNOR KITCHIN SAYS

"I favor Max Gardner for governor of North Carolina. He has public spirit, ability, personality and character. He has strength, vigor and courage. His activity in council and on the hustings for Democratic principles has been long and effective. His opinions, conduct and history have given him a statewide popularity. His service as legislator and Lieutenant-Governor has been patriotic and faithful. His record, his qualities and his attainments assure to the people of this state an honest, useful and successful administration as governor."

FORMER GOVERNOR GLENN SAYS

"If Gardner is nominated and elected, I vote for him. He will, in the discharge of the duties of the office, know no man, no color, no creed, no party, but will treat all alike, doing equal justice to all rich and poor, high and low, friend and foe. A splendid speaker, a diligent student, a practical farmer, a leader of experience, a successful business man, an able lawyer, a strong and patriotic citizen, and above all, an upright Christian gentleman, he ought to win, and for these reasons and many others I will vote for Gardner, work for Gardner and do all I can, in an honorable way to help make him the next governor of North Carolina."

SOME OTHER LETTERS.

Mr. R. M. Gidney, farm demonstrator and agent for Cleveland county, is certainly well informed concerning the standing of Cleveland county farmers. Mr. Gidney says:

"During the past six years I have become acquainted with the farming activities of Hon. O. Max Gardner. For four years I have been co-operating with him in farm work. Mr. Gardner is one of the largest and most efficient farmers in Cleveland county. He has not only made a success of farming but his interest in better farming methods and his activity along this line, have inspired many other farmers and caused them to succeed. The height of Mr. Gardner's ambition is to promote the agricultural interest of his county."

Mr. Ambrose M. McWhirter, a man of high character, who is a weaver and loom fixer, employed by the Ila Manufacturing Company, of Shelby, and one of the most prominent textile workers in Cleveland county, writing of O. Max Gardner, says:

"If there is an industrial laborer in Cleveland county, who is a Democrat and is not for Mr. Gardner, I have never heard of him. We all know Mr. Gardner and he knows us. We all trust Mr. Gardner and believe in him. He is a fair and square man and we who know him would trust his judgment to the limit on any question between right and wrong. He knows what is right and does it. He has helped personally more tenants and poor men to buy homes than any man in the county. I can safely say that practically all of the cotton mill workers in this section are going to vote and work for Mr. Gardner for governor. He believes in and practices the Golden Rule."

Hon. George A. Holderness, Tarboro, chairman of the appropriations committee of the state senate, farmer, leading live stock raiser, banker and broad-visioned citizen, says:

"After deliberate consideration of the claims of the candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor, and adverted to the claims of other candidates, I am firmly convinced that Hon. O. Max Gardner will give North Carolina better service as governor than any other candidate—therefore I am supporting Max Gardner for governor. Max Gardner has made a record, in youth, in college, in private life and in public life that commands not only my support, but that of every voter."

Gardner combines the rare qualities of a scientific and practical farmer, sound business judgment and seasoned legislative experience. His record in both private and public life appeals to me and should appeal to every voter. I am firmly convinced that if elected he will prove an able governor."

Mr. Albert Escott, Editor Mill News, Charlotte, one of those most interested in the welfare of the workers in the cotton mills of the Carolinas, in a letter to the workers says:

"I wish to testify to my knowledge of the fitness of Hon. O. Max Gardner for governor of this state. He has recovered his vigor. He has a big, powerful body, a resourceful mind, and a well-known integrity of character, all of which would make him a great governor of all the people."

"My paper is non-political, but my personal vote will be for Gardner. I hope yours will be too."

IN CONCLUSION.

Max Gardner is clean, honest, straight. Max Gardner believes in the application of the Golden Rule to the affairs of community, section, state. Max Gardner seeks this office on the ground of merit. He is not aligned with any political or party faction, but seeks the support of the virtue-mankind of the state, whose hope is the successful development of North Carolina, in this new day of opportunity. Max Gardner's friends appeal to men at every class and every section to look ahead, rather than backward at this crucial hour.
