AMUZU PARK.

A Pleasure Resort For Pitt and Adjoining Counties. Especially Attractive for Picnic Parties.

The attention of our readers is called to the quarter page advertisement in this issue of the Amuzu Park—Pitt county popular pleasure resort. This park is located two miles southeast of Greenville and especially attractive for picnic parties. Good music, boating, bathing and dancing is enjoyed daily except Sunday when of course the dancing feature is eliminated.

The promoters of this park are sparing no pains in making it a very pleasant resort for pleasure seekers. They have spent much money on the place which is the site of Forbes mill pond which is well known by the citizens of this section. They want it well understood that the park is not for Greenville people exclusively but for the people of any section who will visit the park and deport themselves in a genteel manner.

The admission to the park grounds is only ten cents.

The patronage of the entire county is solicited to make the park what its promoters desire a place of real magnificence and beauty should be where all kinds of healthful sports may be enjoyed by the young or old and where the aged and weary may be refreshed.

Read the ad, get the schedules and pick your time to visit the Amuzu Park.

Sunday schools and Woman's Clubs are cordially invited to use the Park at any time for picnic or outing purposes.

Mrs. J. W. Allen Dies of Paralysis.

Death entered the home of Mr. J. W. Allen, of near Farmville, Thursday evening about eight o'clock and claimed his beloved wife and companion. Mrs. Allen was in her 66th year, and had been in feeble health for two years or more, and while her death came as a shock to the devoted husband and children, it was not altogether unexpected, due to her physical condition. Paralysis given as the cause.

The funeral took place at the home Friday afternoon, conducted by her pastor of the Free Will Baptist church and the body laid to rest in the family burial lot near the home.

She is survived by her husband, two daughters and three sons, all grown, and one sister Mrs. N. F. Tugwell.

To the bereaved The Enterprise joins in extending sympathy.

Have Eye for the Future.

Do for yourself what you admire seeing the other man do. He takes time to get ahead. His mind is his precious treasure. No pains are too much to bestow upon it. You watch him grow and admire his place. You even speak the word that prompts him. Why not apply his principles to your own life? Make the hour count. Take heed now that you may ride an easy road later.—Exchange.

Furs and Feathers.

From the dawn of human history furs and leathers have been used to satisfy our taste and need for clothing and adornment. Our most primitive ancestors were connoisseurs in the plumage of birds and the pelts of animals and admired them for their possibilities in furnishing himself and his family with raiment and adornment, and so do we.
