

The Farmville Enterprise

Published by The Rouse Company

VOL. XI

NO DANGER OF SHORTAGE OF COAL SHORtAGE

THERE IS A REASON BUT NO EXCUSE FOR HIGH PRICES IN THE OPEN MARKET.

IS GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITY

For Past Eight Months Some Government Agent or Another Has Been Agitating About Coal.

Washington.—Awareness of an adequate supply of coal to meet domestic requirements during the coming months was given by George H. Cushing, managing director of the American Wholesale Coal Association, who declared in a statement that fears of an impending coal shortage were unfounded. The public, he said, is panic stricken without reason.

"There is no danger of any such shortage in coal," Mr. Cushing stated. "Therefore there is a reason but no excuse for the current high prices in the open market. The reason is that we have had too much governmental agitation of the danger of a famine."

Mr. Cushing declared that for the past eight months there has not been a day or even an hour when some governmental agency was not agitating about coal and predicting a coal famine." Prices, he said, have reached the highest point since 1918 in history, because those who need coal are "frantically bidding against one another to every minute."

Germany Will Likely be Allowed Six Months for Her Disarmament.

Belgium.—A compromise with Germany on the time to be allowed her for disarmament, during the period of six months, looked to be the probable outcome of the conferences among the allied delegates here.

London.—The invitation to call a meeting of the League.

London.—President Wilson has accepted the invitation of the league of nations to call a meeting of the assembly of the league early in November. It was announced in the house of commons by Cecil B. Harroworth, under secretary of foreign affairs.

Expected This Year Mexico Will Export 120,000,000 Barrels of Oil.

Mexico City.—Mexico will export during 1920 between 130,000,000 and 135,000,000 barrels of oil, more than the rest of the world, including the United States, according to estimates made by George Marston, Mexican oil statistician. Exports for May alone are given at 10,520,565 barrels.

Louisiana Legislature Passes Up the Report of Cox on Coverage.

Baton Rouge, La.—In spite of the appeal from Governor Cox, the house of representatives of the Louisiana general assembly, in its last session, refused to suspend the bill to allow the introduction of a resolution providing for ratification of the federal suffrage amendment.

616,000 in Pins Are Levied by Some New York Sugar Refineries.

Binghamton, N. Y.—Robert James, Albert Inman and Harry Hill, all of Oswego, who filed a suit to an indictment charging conspiracy and profiteering in the sale of pins of sugar were fined $1,000 each and costs Associate Justice Frank B. Cooper. The fine was paid.

Delegates From South Carolina to San Francisco Is Severely Injured.

San Francisco, Calif.—Delegates of Watauga, S. C., who had come to the South Carolina delegation to the democratic national convention, suffering from compound fractures in their brains and probably as a result of a fall, as a result of a severe, hospital authorities reported.

Wilson Asked by Congress to Several Articles of Inquiry.

Washington.—An investigation will be opened immediately to place an embargo on the importation of coal, iron and steel to assist the steel markets. The measure, introduced by the American Iron and Steel Association, was passed by the House of Representatives, and the Senate, and was signed by the president.

Wings Fly at San Francisco.
Cox and Administration.

Columbus, Ohio.—Former Congressman T. P. Anthony of Washington arrived from San Francisco and gave his pre-convention nominees first hand details of the convention activities which resulted in his selection to lead his party. Mr. Anthony told the speaker that the credit for his victory goes to E. H. Moore of Youngstown, his pre-convention manager. Mr. Anthony told newspaper representatives that the contest at San Francisco was won between McCauley and Cox and not between Cox and administration.

Announcement as to discussion of a new plan was made.

In the afternoon, the governor and Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony, moved to the nominee's hotel, the Hotel Jacksonville.

The governor will go to Columbus at once to resume work at the executive office. A reception is planned for him at the capitol. In the afternoon Franklin D. Roosevelt, his running mate, will stop over for a few hours on his return from San Francisco for conference.

Great Day of South Carolina

—Socialists on August 18

Columbia, S. C.—Secretary of Agriculture, C. M. Meredith and Governor W. P. G. Rogers of the Federal Reserve Board, are expected to be the principal speakers at the "American Cotton Association" rally to be held in Columbia on Wednesday, August 18. Every effort will be made, officials of the association said, to make this one of the greatest meetings the city ever held.

Another Girl Dies to Death.

Overholtz, Pa.—Falls, Niagara.

Niagara Falls, N. Y.—Charles G. Stevens, of Wethersfield, Conn., was killed when he fell over the home-made bridge he had built in which he made his nest, though built of stout boards, stones, leaves, and bound with sticks, and was much like an egg shell in its fragility. Placed in the basket, he was buried near the bank, and his wife did all she could to comfort her son.

There Will Be No Strike

to the Moon During This Month.

Worcester, Mass.—The Goddard rocket trip to the moon will not take place this month, Professor Robert A. Goddard of Clark University, says, that the rocket is not fully developed for the flight.

Legislation Making Mexico Dry Now in Course of Preparation.

Mexico City.—Legislation making Mexico "dry" is being prepared for presentation to the next congress of the other of Provisional President of Mexico, says the newspaper.

44,000 Kegs of Danish Butter Arrive at the Port of New York.

New York.—Forty-four thousand kegs of Danish butter, each containing 100 pounds, arrived here on board British steamer "Hibbie" from Copenhagen. The butter was consigned to American importers.

American Express Company Wants European Consolidated Counter.

Washington.—Approval of the International Commerce Commission was asked by the American Railway Express Company of its continued operation as a consolidation of the Adams Express Company, American Express Company, Wells Fargo and Company, and the Southern Express Company.

George C. Taylor, of New York, president of the consolidated organization, said no change was needed for equipment.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.

Probability in That France Will Soon Give an Aid to Deschanel.

Paris.—The state of President Deschanel's health has revived talk in the parliamentary lobbies of the possibility of taking measures to meet the possibility of prolonged inability of the president, through illness, to discharge the duties of his office. Immediately after the accident which befell the president recently, it was proposed to create the office of vice-president, which does not exist under the present constitution.