PREPARATIONS TO OCCUPY THE RUHR

AMERICA WILL BE ASKED TO JOIN THE ALLIES IN FORCING GERMAN COMPLIANCE

A DAY OF TENSE EMOTIONS

No Official Communication Except An Informal Meeting Between Premier Lloyd George and Dr. Simons

Spa, Belgium.—The American government will be asked by the supreme council to join in the occupation of the Ruhr unless the Germans accede to the demand for 2,000,000 tons of coal monthly. All details have been arranged for the movement of troops. The German delegation will be requested to meet the allies and will be asked if they will give 2,000,000 tons. If they reply in the negative they will be informed that the Ruhr will be occupied. This was a day of tense emotions among the delegates to the conference, though outwardly all was calm. The day passed without official communication between the Germans and allies except for an informal meeting between Premier Lloyd George and Dr. Simons.

LEADERS ARE IN COMPLETE ACCORD

WILSON, COX AND ROOSEVELT HOLD LONG CONFERENCE AT THE WHITE HOUSE

FORMAL STATEMENTS ISSUED

Made No Reference to the Recently Published Reports That Cox and Wilson "Are Far Apart"

Washington.—Complete agreement on the league of nations question and unity in their party's camp, was declared by President Wilson and Governor Cox of Ohio, democratic presidential candidates, after a conference at the White House. Meeting for the first time since the San Francisco convention, the President and the governor, together with Franklin D. Roosevelt, the vice-presidential nominee, spent an hour discussing the league and other campaign issues. All three afterward issued formal statements voicing an identity of purpose. None made any reference to reports published in the press that the three candidates "were far apart" on the league issue. The President declared that he and Governor Cox were at one with regard to the one great issue of the league of nations, and that the only issue is ready to be the champion of the honor of the nation and the peace of the world. The party's choice, the president added, will have the vigorous support of the democratic party and its millions of voters.

Alleged Leader in Recent American Revolution in Mexico is in Bad Situation

WAS DISCOVERED IN HIDING

Florida's Unfortunate Man Has Entered Strong Protest Against Solitary Confinement for Him

Mexico City.—General Pablo Gonzalez, former candidate for the Presidency and alleged leader of the abortive revolution in the state of Yucatan, whose capture was reported, will be placed on trial immediately, according to official announcement. The government has appointed Generals Francisco Carrillo, Enrique Estrada de Zaca and Joaquin Amaro of Torreon, members of the court. Gonzalez's whereabouts were discovered, but he resisted arrest. He was sought to apprehend him and did not carry warrants for his arrest. The house where he was lodging was watched all night, officials in the machine securing a warrant to take him into custody. Suspicion on the part of the government authorities was aroused by General Gonzalez's refusal to publicly renounce the uprising led by several military leaders in Yucatan, the general claiming the rebellious chiefs were his spiritual sons. A dispatch from the Herald says that supporters of General Gonzalez protest against government holding him in solitary confinement and claim that it is a violation of the provisions of the constitutional law.

NEWSPAPER MEN IN A FEW APPLICANTS FOR TEACHER JOBS

ONLY ONE OF THOSE APPLYING IS INEXPERIENCED IN THE WORK DESIRED

IS POORLY PAID PROFESSION

Many Claim they are Receiving more Compensation in Other Lines of Endeavor Than in Teaching

Charlotte.—Seventeen white teachers reported here to take the state examination at the Alexander Graham high school and which will be completed in the office of County Superintendent of Schools T. M. Matthews. Of the 17 applicants here 13 are taking professional work examinations for the renewal of credits, while the other two are taking the entire examination for original credits. Only one of the 17 is an inexperienced teacher; in other words, she is the only one that has not taught in the public schools, the other is having taught for several years. This fact is referred to by school officials as convincing proof that very few men and women are entering the teaching profession, claiming that they receive higher compensation in other lines of work. An examination of colored teachers who desire to teach in the schools of Mecklenburg county was held in Myers street school building. Very few applicants, it is said, have applied there. Washington (Special).—The 1920 population of Mecklenburg county, North Carolina, was estimated at 20,000 by the census bureau, an increase since 1910 of 13,644 or 69.4 per cent. The population of the city of Charlotte was announced as 43,335, the census bureau's revision of figures adding 20 persons to the preliminary figures. Statesville.—Statesville is to have an afternoon daily. For some time Pagan A. Bryant, publisher of The Landmark, has been considering the matter of establishing a daily newspaper here and he now has practically completed his plans for starting up the enterprise on the first of August. Winston-Salem.—D. L. Reavis, a member of Fire Company No. 1, died at the City Memorial hospital from injuries received in an accident to the truck. He and two other members of the company were thrown violently to other pavement as the truck skidded in passing an automobile that was meeting the firemen. Weldon.—At the meeting of the commissioners of Halifax county for July, they voted to purchase the direct bridge across the Roanoke river at Roanoke Rapids, the price paid being $25,000. This has been a toll bridge, belonging to a private corporation, and is an important link in the State highway. It will be turned over to the county on September 1st and will then be free for all. Asheville.—Seven white preachers, all charged with crimes of a serious nature, including one preacher who was being held here for safe keeping until the date for his extradition for having committed a double murder in Macon county, escaped from the Buncombe county jail by sawing through the iron bars of their cell and then of the jail window. Boone.—A son of Peter Cox, living near Grandfather mountain, was accidentally killed while in the woods chopping wood. The boy was using a double-bladed axe and stuck it in a log and started to climb over the log but his foot slipped to fall on the axe which sank into his body, causing an injury would soon which he died before he could be administered. Fairmont, Va.—D. L. Reavis, a member of Fire Company No. 1, died at the City Memorial hospital from injuries received in an accident to the truck. He and two other members of the company were thrown violently to other pavement as the truck skidded in passing an automobile that was meeting the firemen.
