CASON-LAXTON.

Last Friday morning, July 28, at the home of the bride on East Wilson Street took place a beautifully quiet marriage of much interest to the many friends of the contracting parties.

Miss Katie Cason, a young lady of especial capabilities and worth, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cason, one of the best known and highly respected families of Farmville.

Mr. W. M. Laxton, of Lenoir, N. C., is a young man of splendid character, has made his home in Farmville for some time. Mr. Laxton is a telegraph operator and served in the capacity while in the U. S. Army.

After the ceremony, performed by Rev. O. E. Fox, pastor of the Christian church, they motored then to Lenoir, where they will make their home.

A Card of Thanks.

I wish to most graciously thank the people for their many kindnesses to me during the fire and especially by one brave Boy Scout who worked so faithfully the entire day. I again feel so grateful and wish to thank one and all.

Very graciously,
MRS. IDA B. MYERS.

Um-m!
Those Biscuits
Smell Good!

It's a pleasure to make biscuits when you have Occo-nee-chee Self-Rising Flour because this wonderful flour is so easy to use. The necessary ingredients are: 1 1/2 cups flour, 1/2 cup fat, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 cup sugar and 1/2 cup yeast.

Yes, the only important thing to do in Occo-nee-chee Flour is to mix it up. You don't have to take every bit of guess out of baking. All you do is mix with water or milk and bake for the oven. It really takes only a few minutes. Occo-nee-chee is a real standard. It's exactly what you've wanted.

Baking with Occo-nee-chee Flour costs less than with other flours because it's the most economical way to get the extra ingredients.
