Facts About Hog Cholera.

1. Hog Cholera first made its appearance in U. S. in 1838.
2. It first appeared in Ohio and since that time it has spread in every state in the Union.
3. The average annual loss in U. S. for the last forty years due to hog cholera has been thirty million dollars. This amounts to one billion two hundred million in the whole period of forty years.
4. Cholera is transmitted from one hog to another by a germ found in the blood and secretions of the hog. These germs are so small until they cannot be seen with the most powerful microscope.
5. Unsanitary surroundings or lack of feed will tend to lower the vitality of the hog and make him more susceptible to cholera, but such conditions cannot cause cholera.
6. During 1914 one tenth of all the hogs in the U. S. died of hog cholera.
7. Up to the present time there is no drug or combination of drugs known that can be regarded as a preventative or cure for hog cholera.

8. Many so called cures have been tested by Federal and State Institutions and one and all have been found worthless.

9. Farmers are therefore warned against investing their money or placing their faith in hog cholera medicines.

10. Only one thing known may be regarded as a reliable preventative (not a cure). That is Anti-Hog Cholera Serum. Hogs may be vaccinated against cholera by vaccinating with this before they are sick.

The most of the above was taken from Farmers Bulletin No. 884, which may be had free of charge by applying to county agent, W. S. Pace.

During the month of October 594 hogs were vaccinated in Pitt County, for 27 different Pitt farmers. Hogs sick with cholera should be put up so they will be away from the rest of the well hogs, and every hog that dies from hog cholera should be buried thoroughly. The germs are easily carried from one hog to another and too much care cannot be exercised to prevent this dreaded disease.

Anybody desirous of having their hogs vaccinated in Pitt County should get in touch with County Agent W. S. Pace, Greenville, N. C. The time to vaccinate is when the hogs are well and you think they are not with cholera. That's very early.
