VOL. XI

NO. 32.

1-President-elect Harding greets Senator Ledge in Washington, 2-Poor Poles being fostied into freight cars to get them out of the typeus-stricken regions. 3.-General Nivelle of France being decorated by Secary Saker with the American Distinguished Service medal.

earnbly by Scaring European Statesmanship-Attacks on Article X-Prospects for Irish Settlement Good, Says Lloyd George.

EDWARD W. PICKARD.

amendments to the covenant should be lan warships went over to the D'An- will be reached. The commission do road of the place where she had spent bells for me, Miss Carroll." was upheld by the Scandinavians and and gagging the officers. certain others, but their action in quitting because they found themselves in the minority on the question was not approved by anyone, and was attacked by some of the Buenos Alres papers. Pueyrredon stated that his mission in Canadian Delegate Stira League As- Paris was to consult with Senator Mc-Cormick of Illinois in the hope that the United States and Argentina would become the leaders of a morement to give to the world a substitute for the present league Wednesday's renden of the assem-

Withdrawal from the League of Na- | war" with Italy has not yet broken tions issembly by the Argentine dele out into actual fighting, and at nego- mays, was $91,116 and the government eyes came a speculative light. The gation caused a lot of ally in Seneva tintions, between the and the 're- was using them in approximately 1. window was full of small framed pleand elsewhere, but it didn't disrupt gency of Quarnero' are under way the 100 different kinds and grades of mres, most of them with the Corist-Puerredon and his colleagues found life or no bloodshed. It is believed the There are almost a million govern might-clay children looking up broad her to continue on in the old home. There are almost a million govern might-clay children looking up broad her to continue on in the old home. they had put themselves in a rather poet will yield if his services in save ment employees at the ne state were landscapes or stead. It was left mine by will. So sales the government realized enough ridiculous position and the chief re ing Flume from the Jugo-Slave are of world war, the commission asserts snown fields with distant windows she's there yet, and the church bell money to pay the agents for their tired to Paris, disappointed but still scially recognized. Plat city is still and adds that pre-wer again of some align.—Counte studied them all; she still chimes out for Christmas I and adds that pre-wer again was seeing in vision the winding hit. Tou have sounded the memory discussed and acted on at this session | nunzio side, their crews first binding > better than they appeared on the sur- many of the employee receive. face. This the premier said after he

TOTAL NUMBER CHEE SERVICE EMPLOYEES DURING LAST JULY WAS BEING

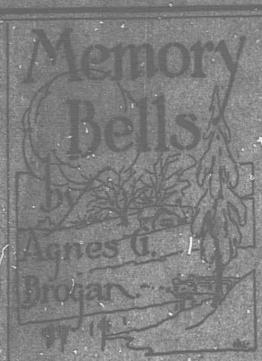

Tabulation of the Army of Workers Fixes Average Age as Twenty-Eight, and Salary $1,500.

the government civil service pay roll last July 31, the civil names commit sion declared in its annual report The commission adds that of those estimated by the census as employed in gainful occupations in the country, one in every 18 was a government clares that an "altogether rosy pre- her last summer vacation; the shures it seemed that the purch closed the prospects for a settlement, average salary at $1,376 a year, exclu- lady who had been Counte's volunteer by hand, had conferred with Mgr. Patrick Woodmen to Dishuras Fund.

time," Connie said to her old yellow

ent. "Who ever heard of Christman without the Merry? So cheer up, Prowler, and let's join in the game." At the little "Shoppe" just around The total number of civil service the corner she stood longest of all. employees last July, the commission, and all at once into Connie's bright Affairs in Ireland continued to oc. A partial sabulation of the great and heautiful stream-a bridge with his face was threated by lines of care, according to Lloyd George, were much sive of the $240 yearly comun which hostess told her, with the pink coming "Why," she said, "so you are Martha" and going in her withered cheeks, Snow's nephew. Then there can be about the lovers. For it was there no question of bargain between us, that her own husband had asked, and the pictures are freely yours." had conferred with Mgr. Patrick thine, architektory of Perts, who had there acting as his intermediany and consulting with Sinh Pelin leaders. It was said the bishop had conveyed to Liord Course a message from Michael Galins, commander of the Sinh sein

Galins, commander of the Sin

Anti-Constantine Demonstration lonely for a young sweet face." She could fancy just how the trees would look waving naked branches. And she'd paint the church in the holindement the British government is Presport, N. V.—When their motors low with lights in the witchess gleam-

> Oh. Counte was very happy as she have, one began to draw instead, working in a fever of enthusiasmthe sitting room, of the old house where the had been a guest, with Dublin - A procismation declaring Martha Snow herself seated in the mind of the following we will be a seed a manuscraph of the properties of the following we will be a seed a manuscraph of the properties of the following we will be a seed a manuscraph of the properties of the following we will be a seed a manuscraph of the following we will be a seed at the properties of the following we will be a seed at the following we will be a seed at the following we will be a seed at the properties of the following we will be a

with it breatniess, to the "Shoppe".

around the corner.

Mr. Hubert Armstrong came dil "Your sketches thave for me double interest, Miss Chinoil, he said "You have drawn remarkably son of the happlest scenes of my boyne Scenes which I am ashamed to say had half-forgotten. The world of ness I am straid, and sometimes a struggle for success causes un to leave much that is tender behind. I am grateful to you for awaken in the that tenderness which and almost

The man's voice broke huskily. He drew forth an old sitting-room pic-

"Peace on Barth" was the name she

the living room of my home in Hill-NNIE looked down to the crest the place where I was been. busy street, through a blur | This white-haired weman's profile is of showfiskes. At least, the peaceful profile of my long-List Connie told herself deter- mother. That liftle bulging stocking minedly that snowlishes might have been my own stocking, Pederal probleming agents, or even were accountable for the just as it und to hang there years the old revenue raiders, have been blur; then, she wiped her ago- Tell me-" his tone was eager, shettered by the work of the Federal "how did you come by your dream?" | agents working out of Asheville under him, "in that same old house in Hill- in-chief, who reports that approxi-

> The man nodded hastily. "I see," he said, "It is quite simple !

to his cheek. mas spirit. There were the usual Martha asked me years ago to allow things. All of these articles have been ture can not be painted" of the gov. with its swaying bell in the steeple, almost forgotten her in his musings. arament's personnel simulton. I the queer little bridge over the deep. Now that she looked at him closely in any arms.

The instance of the control of the co

strong said slowly, of Asheville as thustree potentiate, of a truce in Ireland nor any hope in ters and other public places in Con-

Connie 22 united Them All

26. March it was easily offerbade, tours not of Christmas, you and i.

THE COST TO GOVERNMENT OF ROUTING OUT CONTRABAND IS COVERED BY SALES.

That," said Hubert Armstrong, "is | No information he To Juilding of a Double Track Rallway to Morristown is Yet Available.

Asheville.—All past records of local "I visited last summer," Comile told the direction of J. Henry Reed, agentcrest with Mrs. Martha Snow, who is, mateir 700 stills, together with thensands of gallons of beer, have been captured and destroyed.

In addition to this the agents have after all. Martha Snow is my morn. siezed several hundreds of gallons of er's widowed sister." A dull red crept | which was poured out; wasone, burgles, automobiles, borses, "I had almost forgotten that Aust mules, harness, hay, grain and other

Asheville experienced the heaviest snow of the winter, but if has been impossible to measure it, owing to Officials of the Southern railway cupy much of the attention of the army of government employes fixes sents along its sides where countless his fine eyes sorrowful beneath their here have not been informed of the English-speaking world. As the week the average age at 25.4 years and the lovers had sat, and courted. The old sternness. Counte put forth a friend-Morristown, Tenn.

> Greensboro.—Judge James E. Boyd, cleared the Federal court docket of four-fifths of its criminal cases when "I know what it means. Then a not succeeding Julian Pierce, of Greens Sir Riorace Fluinkett, chair man and the Dublin peaces convention, sailed the Dublin peaces convention, sailed burn, and moving up the official list for New York to appear before the for New York to appear before the American committee of inquiry, and allied police have forbidden the play tion. She would paint the queer little "Not when it comes to loneliness," Ossis Temple, shringes, dismissed look much more cheerful," she went winter ceremonials devoting practically o the remainder of the day to music and mirth.

> Raleigh.-The supreme court up holds the judgement of the Medilenburg county jury which awarded $10, 900 to Mrs. Lacy Crowell from horhusband, W. J. Crowell, oir actual and punitive damages at the May 1920, term of superior court, because the husband infected his wife with a "vile and losthesome disease."

> Galisbury.-The state Eventock as sociations opened their night expunimeeting here with sessions in the courthouse, and with the largest exhibit of purebred politry ever shows in the state, many the entire floor space of the big Technical serson. Thirteen hundred birds are on exhibi-

members of the intermediate bureau, he national entires or a similar organization having for its purpose the purification of cities to the "Shoppe" window, and la dis on, "when you interrupted us with in the Butter States are visiting in wanderou artists ability the have want to use turker again over the family to ster on the job hald be a dirigra highways are made available "Is he," when Counts falleringly, "we co !" brenched Counte, "and bear to the class, latered, in permanent the church bell ring out across the big swarm has always been keen

Murder Suspent Arrested. Counte burried burne to the 2 on B and hack at Amer Martha's, I will out her revestorille. One agreet in conhece money to be expended under the su- doned, was adopted. pervision of an American commusion. Compliance of congress with this request is made somewhat doubtful by recent developments in Armenia up a soviet government. The Presi-dent also advised that complete inde-next year action on amendments; he of that "war" she defended all the taining a stable government. Probof the league from obligations laid on named to go to lealand for a first-hand the name of "justice and humanity" strang, part was that before it was any most of our law-makers would be them by that article. When France, investigation cannot go, They ob excline the anti-Japanese has in Callmem by that article. When France, investigation cannot go, They ob excline the anti-Japanese has in Call-pany before the sould take the changed, and would continue the fight | Despite the knowledge that the res-

who occupied his sent in the senate read sounce inc me counting peer in large decided on a reply embodying Woodmen insurance feature.

for a day or two, need upon his colfor a day or two, need upon his colprotested that nations like Canada these ferms: "No amnosty, no republengues the need of quick and nonprotested that nations like Canada like and a counting peer in partisan work, and intimated that an example of outrage and murder, so republic, and a constitution from the present example of outrage and murder.

after his insugpration.

President Walson was desirous of require. Nor could such nations afappearing in person before equipmes ford to send their best technicisms to deliver his bessage, but gas dis- such year to the conference, he said. suaded at the last minute by his phy- and consequently the problem involved sicions and the document was read by world be handled exclusively by Eurothe clerks. In his opening generaliza- pean nations, which would not at all tions Mr. Wilson said authoracy was ; suit Canada. "Why he cried, "do you again to the fore in Europe, and that think we should have confidence in Eu-It was up to the United States to ropean statesmen and leaders when it save democracy by giving an example was European policy, statesmanship of its successful operation, enacting and ambition that drenched the world and enforcing just laws and "standing | in blood?" Senator Millen of Australia for right and justice as toward indi- warmly supported Rowell, and Lord vidual nations," Aside from domestic Robert Cecil's compremise, that the matters he made just two specific rec- existing international health organicommendations. The first was that a sation continue, under league superlarge loan be made to Armenia, the vision, and the other two be aban-

almost complete control and have set he was forced to yield to the assemt tified by the assertion that Ireland pendence be granted at once to the made a bitter protest against domine- killings of British policemen and soland to yet ret of the Pallingines, how, Holland, Sweden and Ozecho-Slovakia tained their pussports, but the British formis was adopted.

The property of the local transfer of the lo And the control of th the overtures reported in the press. stantinople. There cannot be peace while there is frightfulness on both sides. In my was very interesting though probably hospital? given an exaggerated value. She was I preceded by her sister-in-law, Miss personal credit. The Solders from which will be well; etc.

of a bidge and the restriction of the first process of the first process

Sir Horace Plunkett, chairman of Constantinopie. As a result of antibefore starting said: "I see no hope ing of the Venisellat anthem in thes. bridge over an ley stream, and its of yours her)."

Motorcycle Killa Two. cycle ran over an embankment near ing over the snow and the bell in the The American committee heard one here William Cameron, 25 of Mann, lower a waying for Christmas. or its star witnesses, Mrs. Terence Fig., was instantly killed and his fi-MacSwiney, widow of the lord mayor ange's brother, Lester Smith, so had burried home to her attic but there. of Cork, whose apparance before it by injured that he died in a Minecia in the temperamental way artists ireland in a State of War. Mary MacSwiney, who told a long that "the public must at once realize firelight, just hair of her peaceful pro-Earlier is the week another Cana- and freely admitted that in 1916 iredisn. Minister of Justice Deherty, pro-land turned to Germany for arms and posed an amendment to the covenant would have accepted from that nation that would crase article X, and though all the help it could get. This she just Japa Hold Mass Mouting. Philippines, This, too, will be opposed tion of the league's affairs by the diers, while in the same breath the Tokio. A large make meeting of Tes, we will display it? a smiling by many congressmen who do not served. On Wed seeds Lord Robert denounced the killing of Irahmen by students, members of the Students of the S