HAVE THE BEST OF SOME CROPS.

And Exhibit it at the Pitt County Fair This Fall.

Auspices Pitt Co, Chamber Commerce

Every farmer should strive to to have something of the best of its kind in the county or community.

It may be the finest percheron, or Jersey, or Shorthorn, or Merino; the best mule, the best silo; the best terraced hillsides; the finest patch of Alfalfa; the prettiest home, the most beautiful flowering shrubbery or shade trees; the most fruitful orchard; the best soy beans; the prettiest pasture or meadow; or he may content himself by producing the earliest bale of cotton each year; the finest butter; the most uniform sweet potatoes; the highest scoring seed corn; the most luscious honey; the finest birds.

It doesn't matter which of your products is the best, provided only that you have the ambition to have the best of something. For the desire to to have the very best of any one thing will inevitably breed in you the qualities that will give you greater success in all lines of effort.

The next thing we wish to urge is this: having made up your mind to have the best of something, arrange to exhibit it at your State, District, County or local Fair next Fall. The decision to exhibit this product will help you.

It will help you because it will make you more careful and persistent and thoroughgoing in your struggle for the highest perfection. You will learn more about the best methods you already know. You will also find more zest and eagerness in doing your work.

Moreover making an exhibit will help other people. Finding that you have attained a high standard of progress or achievement will inspire others to do likewise.

Ask for catalogues of your state and county fairs. Inquire about the premium list and everyone begin now to work for a particular prize.

The whole year will be happier if each member of the family decides now to do his level best with some crop or animal or some form of household production and exhibit the results at the Fair this fall. If a prize is won this year, good and well, if not, the knowledge gained and the progress made alone be worth all the effort, and this will help you to capture prizes and blue ribbons in later years.—Progressive Farmer.

Mrs. W. A. Barrett Entertains

Tuesday evening, August 23rd, at her beautiful home on Oak Street, Mrs. W. A. Barrett, graciously entertained.

The guests were made at the home of Mrs. Barrett and invited to the party, which was a most enjoyable affair.

of thought by making the largest number of words using the letters contained in the word WASHINGTON. She was awarded as first prize a jar of mints. Mr. G. E. Bellew was awarded the booby, a pipe, for finding fewest words. After the prizes were awarded the winners presented them to Miss Viola Gaskins, the visiting guest.

At 10 o'clock the guests were invited into the dining room where delicious ice cream and cake were served. From here they returned to the parlor where many beautiful musical selections were rendered.

At 10:30 the guests were invited on the porch, where melons and gum were served.

The ones present were: Misses Thelma Flanagan, Jessie Smith, Martha Carr, and Viola Gaskins, of Ayden. Messrs. J. H. Bynum, Alfred Flanagan, G. E. Bellew, John Gary, and Lester Turnage. At a late hour the guests departed declaring Mr. and Mrs. Barrett most delightful host and hostess.

IS YOUR HEALTH GRADUALLY SLIPPING?

Interesting Experience of a Texas Lady Who Declares That if More Women Knew About Cardui They Would Be Spared Much Sickness and Worry.

Nevada, Texas.—Mrs. W. M. Pedell, of this place, relates the following interesting account of how she recovered her strength, having realized that she was actually losing her health:

"Health is the greatest thing in the world, and when you feel that gradually slipping away, you should be very nervous, run-down condition of health. I was so tired and felt so listless I could hardly go to it all."

"I was just no account for work. I would get a bucket of water and would feel so weak I would have to set it down before I felt like I could lift it to the shelf. In this condition, of course, to do even my housework was a task almost impossible to accomplish."

"I was... nervous and easily upset."

I couldn't rest well at night and was just listless.

"I heard of Cardui and after reading I decided I had some female trouble that was pulling me down. I sent for Cardui and began it."

"In a very short while after I began the Cardui Treatment I saw a difference and it wasn't long before I had good appetite, splendid sleep and much stronger so that I easily did my housework."

"Later I took a bottle of Cardui as a tonic. I can recommend Cardui and gladly do so, for if more women knew, it would save a great deal of worry and sickness."

The enthusiastic praise of thousands of other women who have found Cardui helpful should convince you that it is worth trying. All druggists sell it.

Miss Lewis Entertains in Honor of Her House Guests

On Wednesday evening, August the fourteenth, Miss Effie Lewis entertained at a Lawn Party in honor of her house guests, Misses Marie Worsley, Mary Griffin and Beulah Brake, of Rocky Mount.

The beauty of the picturesque cedar-cover lawn was enlivened by the use of many brightly colored Japanese lanterns and other decorations, carrying out the color scheme of pink and green.

As the guests, from Farmville and the surrounding community, arrived they enjoyed a cup of delicious fruit punch which was served by Miss Lewis and Mr. Ralph Brake, of Rocky Mount.

Besides a very interesting contest, in which Miss Worsley won the prize, vocal and instrumental music added much to the enjoyment of the evening, scattered over the lawn.

At a late hour an ice course was served which was heartily enjoyed, after which the guests reluctantly bade their hostess good-night.

"I smiled—and he shot me"

AFTER MONTHS and months MY WIFE persuaded me TO HAVE it done, SO I went around TO THE photographer, AND GOT mugged. WHEN THE pictures came, I SHOWED them to a gang OF AMATEUR art critics, AND PROFESSIONAL crabs, DISGUISED AS friends, WHO FAVORED me, WITH SUCH remarks as, "DOESN'T HE look natural?" "HAS IT got a tail?" "A GREAT resemblance," AND THAT last one, MADE ME sore, SO WHEN friend wife, ADDED HER howl, I TRIED again.

THIS TIME they were great, FOR HERE'S what happened. THE PHOTOGRAPHER said, "LOOK THIS way, please," AND HELD up something, AS HE pushed the button, AND NO one could help, BUT LOOK pleasant, FOR WHAT he held up, WAS A nice full pack, OF THE cigarettes, THAT SATISFY.

TIGHT up a Chesterfield and taste the goodness of those fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos in that wonderful Chesterfield blend. Taste that flavor! Sniff that aroma! You'll register "They Satisfy." You can't help it.

Did you know about the Chesterfield package of 10?
