Junior Red Cross Entertains.
A most enjoyable entertainment was given last Friday evening by the Junior Red Cross of Farmville.
Forty or fifty of the old boys and girls of the organization together with six chaperones participated in the evening's entertainment which was held in the school gymnasium.
With plenty of games, stunts, contests, eats and music there was no place for the blues. Miss Louisa Hubbard, Red Cross welfare worker, to whom the credit for the program is largely due, was assisted by Mrs. Lovelace, Mrs. Fox and Messrs. Wheeler, Horton and Padgett.
These latter compose the school committee of the Junior Red Cross. Not only the members of the Junior Red Cross but the committee as well will welcome the announcement of an other entertainment.

Mrs. J. Loyd Horton Gives Reception.

The attractive home of Judge and Mrs. J. Loyd Horton on Wilson Street was the scene of a most beautiful reception on Saturday Evening when they entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin V. Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fields and Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Lang received at the front door and directed the guests to the coat room. Mr. and Mrs. Jack P. Lang invited the guest into the living room, which was artistically decorated with ferns, cut flowers and shaded lights. The chandelier was shaded with large yellow roses and draped with asparagus fern.

The punch table was placed at the southern end of the spacious living room and was decorated with shaded candles and chrysanthemums. A large cut glass bowl was hung with bunches of grapes. Punch was served by Misses Nell Keel, Ruby Riggsbee and Bee Donkle, assisted by Messrs. M. V. Jones of Wilson, Jim Barrett and Hubert Joyner.

The guests were then directed into the library by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Askew. Ferns, cut flowers and candles were used as decorations. The chandelier was shaded with large pink roses and asparagus ferns. This room was the scene of the receiving line, who were: Judge and Mrs. J. Loyd Horton, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Horton, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Keel, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Willis, Dr. Keel and Miss Hattie Taylor, Tarboro, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Capps.

From the receiving line the guests were directed to the dining room by Mr. and Mrs. Waverly Holsten and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Joyner. The decorations in this room were beautiful and dainty. The chandelier was shaded with large yellow roses, amaranth and tulips which was brought down each corner of the table and fastened in large bows. Wedding bells hung from the center of the lights over a large silver basket of roses. Bon-bon dishes with yellow and white mints and salted almonds were placed on the table. Mesdames Hattie White of Greenville and Myrtle Bynum served cream from the table, assisted by Misses Elizabeth Fields, Mildred, Nancy and Myrtle Bynum.
Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Turnage and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rountree bid the guests good night at the Southern dining room door. The orchestra was placed in the breakfast room, which was decorated with ferns and cut flowers.

"Say, Dad, Get Me a Liberty Bell Bank!"

A Liberty Bell Bank will save to accumulating the funds to make future hopes for your boy possible.

DAD, you simply have to "come across." Son has every argument on his side—he SHOULD have a Liberty Bell Bank. He will be a BETTER boy for it and remember, a better BOY means a better MAN.

The Liberty Bell Bank is the most unique home savings bank we have ever seen. Coins of every denomination, even bills, can be inserted in the slots provided in its base. It has a sentimental value that appeals to every true American. It stands for everything this great country stands for—FREEDOM, HAPPINESS, INDEPENDENCE.

With every new Savings Account of $1.00 or more, we will give a Liberty Bell Bank without extra charge. As it is an ornament for any home, it can be placed on the mantel and odd nickels and dimes dropped into it from day to day. When full, it can be brought to this Bank, the contents removed and placed to the credit of your boy's or girl's account. Once here, it begins earning the extra interest we pay on savings.

Mrs. Jack P. Lang Entertains in Honor of Mrs. M. V. Horton and Miss Hattie Taylor.

Mrs. Jack P. Lang charmingly entertained on honor of Mrs. M. V. Horton, recent bride and Miss Hattie Taylor of Tarboro on last Monday afternoon. The house was decorated with ferns and cut flowers. The guest were met at the door by Mrs. Lang. Punch was served by Mrs. Harvey Turnage. After a number of games of bridge two courses, salad and ice, were served.

Merry Matrons with Mrs. J. W. Lovelace.

Mrs. J. W. Lovelace entertained the members of the "Merry Matrons" and a few invited guests on last Friday afternoon at her home on Church street. After a pleasant hour of conversation and sewing the hostess brought in a large cardboard with outlines of the faces of the guests present. Each one was to fill in and complete their own face. Mrs. Frank Capps proved to be the most skilled photographer and was presented a kodak book. The afternoon was made complete with refreshments. The invited guests were: Mesdames J. M. Hobgood, T. E. Joyner, C. L. Barrett and Ed Marrow.
