Farmville Rotarians Win "Loving Cup" At Wilson As Champion Songsters.

2nd Cup Won Since Organization Only Few Months Ago.

Jo in Parks with his Well Trained Male Chorus of Near Fifty Voices, Made Lots of Noise and Lacked the Harmony Necessary to Win Out Over the Farmvillians.

The Farmville Rotary Club won its second Loving Cup today at the intercity meeting held in Wilson. The first cup won by the local club was the Attendance cup at the Annual District Convention at Winston-Salem in March.

The cup today was for the "Champion Singers", and although John Parks was there from Raleigh with his well trained Male Chorus of near fifty voices, and lots of noise, they failed to harmonize necessary to win out over the Farmvillians.

Women Kidnapped by Desperado

Kidnapped by a maniac and held prisoner without food or water for fifty hours was the thrilling experience of Mrs. James Jenkins (left) and Miss Gertrude McMann (right) of Omaha, Nebraska. H. E. Boyd, shown in the picture, came to their rescue but was also captured and chained to them. They were held in a shack of the kidnapper, a desperado named Gus Grimes. Boyd finally escaped and brought help to the women.

WE'LL STUDY EUROPE'S TRADE CONDITIONS

Col. Michael Friedsam, head of H. Altman & Co., New York, was selected by President Harding to investigate the trade condition of Europe. Colonel Friedsam, when head of the Fair Price Commission, was once asked how the people might know when they were getting fair prices, and instantly replied, "Read advertising."

ROCKY MOUNT IS SOLIDLY BEHIND CHAMBER PLANS

Secretary Bartlett Receives Encouraging Letter From Railroad City

According to a message received from Mr. N. G. Bartlett, vice-president and manager of the Eastern Chamber of Commerce...

A meeting of the Rocky Mount bankers was held on yesterday and they gave a unanimous endorsement to the proposition. They were agreed that the work of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce is most essential at the moment and is of such a nature as to warrant the hearty backing of every banking institution in Eastern Carolina.

The local chamber at Rocky Mount, of which Mr. Norman Y. Chambliss is secretary, is also pushing the movement. Mr. Chambliss in speaking of the work to be accomplished said: "You can count on me 100 per cent strong. This is a great undertaking and you can count on Rocky Mount."

BONUS CONTINUES TO TORMENT G. O. P.

Washington, June 14.—The bonus bill continues to torment Republican leaders of the senate. It has been found that Chairman McCumber of the senate finance committee is determined in his purpose to call the bill up at the earliest opportunity despite opposition of the president to having the bill side-tracked for the house. With the return of Senator Lodge Republicans plan to begin the fight again.

AMERICA CHARGED WITH LIQUOR SALE

Washington, June 14.—The United States government is charged with violating the Volstead act by selling into trading liquors on vessels operated by the shipping board. The sale of liquor was reported through the George Washington. Wayne Wheeler, counsel of the anti-liquor league, characterized it as an attack by brewers on the government's effort to enforce prohibition.
