Triangle Club Christian Church
Charmingly Entertained

The Triangle Club of the Christian Church was charmingly entertained by Misses Christine and Lucy King, two of its best members, last Monday evening at its regular meeting hour. After the arrival of most of the most of the members the president called the Club to order for brief but important business session. Two splendid talks on the awful conditions of the slum in the big cities and on the "Call of the Orphan" were given by Mrs. Lloyd Smith and President Samuel D. Bundy. The Club was much impressed and decided to give the entire support of one little homeless orphan, a decision certainly commendable to the other religious organizations in town composed of more wealth in membership than the Triangle. All reports showed the Triangle to be functioning well along all lines. After the business session the hostess served a delightful ice course.

At the end of the evening every member of the Triangle voted to meet with the Misses King again at the first invitation.

Stage Furnishings at the School Building Now Complete

The stage at the school building is now complete and equipped so as to give any kind of show. It is equipped as well as any theatre in North Carolina. The lighting consists of 2 border lights, each having 15 white lights, 8 red lights and 7 blue lights, the floor lights have 22 white lights, 11 red lights, and 10 blue lights, all of which are built according to the underwriters laws and were all built and installed by the Farmville Electric Shop.

Mr. One recently... with his electrical posing act which he and Mrs. One worked and was built by him. They said they would rather stay in Farmville at least for some time to come, as they are getting along fine. They expect to put on their act at the school some time this fall.

VACATION FINANCES

MONEY is an important requisite for a pleasant vacation. Lack of funds has put a damper on many a holiday.

People who save regularly and systematically know that when Vacation Time comes, they will have the necessary cash to meet all the expense of their summer recreation.

We invite you to follow this logical plan of anticipating coming expenditures and preparing for them by regular deposits in this Institution.

THE SEASONS' HARVEST

In the "Spring of Youth" the farsighted sow thoughtfully.

Through "Life's Summer" they toil and sowe, with a vision of their future.

When "Autumn" comes the harvest is just what they have made it.

Then, in "Winter's Twilight" well earned rest is the reward of their foresight and thrift.

Read your future in your bank book.
