RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, the great Architect has called from labor to refreshments our beloved brother, C. L. Barrett, who on June 14, 1922, dropped forever the working tools of life. While we bow in humble submission to His will, who doeth all things well, we mourn his departure. Therefore be it resolved.

First, that we, the members of Farmville lodge have sustained a great loss in the death of our brother, whose love and zeal for the order was an inspiration to its members.

Second, that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved wife and children, and trust that God will comfort them in their hour of trouble. May they have the blessed assurance that He wants them "in that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

Third, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our lodge, a copy sent to the family and a copy to the Farmville Enterprise and Masonic Journal for publication.

DENIES THERE WAS SATISFACTION.

To the Editor:

We have before us the News & Observer published at Raleigh, N. C. under the date of August 8 relative to the co-operative warehouse opening on yesterday in the South Carolina belt.

These reports are so far from the true facts, and are so misleading we feel it our duty to correctly inform the readers of your paper and the farmers generally the true facts as they actually exist.

We think those who have signed the five year contract would like to know just what is going on here, as well as those who have not signed. On page two, column four, News and Observer's date August 8, appears the following:

"Complete satisfaction was expressed by the majority of growers who were greatly impressed by the orderly system of marketing and the first cash advances paid today. The first advances on all grades were a welcome surprise to most of the growers and ranged in price from $15.75 to $120.00. Many growers stated that they had received more on their first advances from the co-operatives than last year's average for their entire crop."

The Fairmont market is classed in the South Carolina belt, and conditions here are the same as on all the markets in the belt. Two houses conduct auction sales and one is operated by the "co-ops." The "co ops" opened on the 7th and received less than 20,000 pounds of tobacco, and advanced the growers less than five (5) cents per pound average. Their schedule of advances is posted at their scales and is public property for everybody to see and runs from 35c per hundred pounds on their lowest grades to $22.75 for the best wrappers. The auction sales for the same [illegible]

Today (Tuesday) the "co ops" did not receive only a few loads as it was not their receiving day. They only have three days a week to receive tobacco. Our market sold at auction today 151,940 pounds averaging $23.65. Our customers are delighted with their prices. Great dissatisfaction prevails in this section from a great number of those who have signed the five year contract, and is working a great hardship on the farmers who owe money and can't meet their obligations.

This is first hand information, and we cordially invite anyone who wishes to get these facts to come here and see for themselves if you doubt our statement.

The "co-ops" claimed 75 per cent signed up in this section. It looks like now as less than 25 per cent.
