

Welcome To FARMVILLE The Little City With Big Possibilities.

THE FARMVILLE ENTERPRISE

In Unity There is STRENGTH, and FARMVILLE HAS BOTH

Published by The Rouse Printery

"WATCH FARMVILLE GO ON FORWARD"

Subscription $1.50 a Year in Advance

VOL. 13

FARMVILLE, PITT COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, JANUARY 5, 1923

NO. 34

Parent-Teachers Asso. Had Interesting Meet.

Play to Be Given January 16th Under Its Auspices. Farmville High School Attains Coveted Standard.

The Parent-Teacher Association held its December meeting in the school auditorium. A large number of parents and interested friends were present and several new members were added to the roll.

A delightful Christmas program was presented by the young folks of the second grade, whose teacher is Miss Case. This grade also won the attendance prize for the month.

The question of federating was brought up before the association and Mrs. J. I. Morgan in a few well chosen words gave the advantages of being affiliated with the State Federation. It was moved, carried and so ordered that the association join the Federation.

After a discussion of shrubbery and the play "Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tick," which will be given under the auspices of this body January 16th, Prof. Wheeler gave an account of the work and present standard of the school. The members and visitors were surprised but pleased to learn that Farmville High School was accepted for full credited relationship to the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools at a meeting held in New Orleans Dec. 78. There are only about 40 other schools in this state that has this standard.

Four years and this school was a C Standard School today it is an A Standard Accredited School. Prof. Wheeler then urged the parents to keep their children from coming in contact with contagious diseases during the holidays.

The President in brief words expressed the appreciation of the entire community for the work that Prof. Wheeler is doing in raising the standard of the school and for his untiring efforts in behalf of the welfare of the children.

Mrs. Horton Hostess.

Mrs. J. Loyd Horton delightfully entertained the Merry Matrons and a few invited guests Tuesday evening, December 26, at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. G. M. Holden who leaves a host of friends in Farmville next week to make her future home in Charlotte.

The house was beautiful in its Christmas decorations and many soft lights. After a pleasant hour spent in sewing and chatting the guests were invited into the dining room which was a scene of loveliness. On the table stood a miniature Christmas tree with candles slight and piled around it were many useful and lovely gifts for the honor guest, containing wishes for happiness and prosperity in her new home, sent by the Merry matrons. Mrs. Holden, in her charming way, opened the packages and thanked her friends for the pleasant surprise. Later in the evening a delicious salad course was served by the hostess.

The invited guests were: Mrs. W. Joyner, Mrs. Bunn Newton, Mrs. W. C. Ashby, Mrs. J. Frank, Mrs. J. L. Shackleford, Misses Daniel and Nell...

All members of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor are urged to be present Sunday Jan. 7th, December at 6:30 p. m. and that this is the first Sunday in the month.

NEWTON-KITTRELL

The marriage of Mary Ellen Kittrell and Mr. Walter Newton, both of this city, took place Saturday afternoon, December 23rd at 4:30 o'clock in Richmond, Va. at the home of Dr. Geo. E. Booker, a Methodist minister of that city.

After a short stay in Richmond the young couple returned to Farmville, where they are making their temporary residence at the home of the groom's brother, Mr. J. R. Newton on Belcher street.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton are a very popular and attractive young couple and their many friends here wish for them prosperity and happiness as they journey hand in hand down the Pathway of Life.

Mrs. Harris Entertains.

The home of Mrs. J. H. Harris on Wilson street was lovely with its Christmas decorations on Thursday afternoon, when she entertained the Philathea Class, of which she is a member, and the teacher of the Methodist Sunday School here.

The class was reorganized, its name changed to Wesley Bible Class and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Myrtle Bynum President, Mrs. B. O. Turnage, Vice-Pres., Mrs. Alice King Sec. and Treas. and Mrs. J. H. Harris Teacher. The class is to have a meeting each month.

After the business session the guests were given an original contest on the names of the members, Mrs. Royce Tucker receiving a beautiful box of correspondence as a prize.

The hostess then served a delightful salad course consisting of chicken salad, whitefish, sand wiches, olives, pickles, hot coffee, mint and almonds.

White Gift Services at Presbyterian Church.

On Saturday night before Christmas a White Gift service was held at the Presbyterian Church. Special hymns were sung followed by a reading of the "Origin of the White Gifts" by the pastor, Rev. Cass Lawrence. While the Sunday School scholars marched by presenting their gifts to the King, Mrs. J. M. Hobgood and Mrs. R. A. Bynum sang a beautiful duet, Luther's "Cradle Song". The offering was most gratifying and will go for the support of the Barium Spring Orphanage near Statesville.

After this service the children enjoyed a Christmas tree as children always will. For there is nothing that can compare with the Christmas tree in giving joy and delight to the child.

In honor of Mrs. Satterfield.

Among the social affairs of the Christmas season was a party given Friday evening by Mrs. J. L. Shackleford in compliment to Mrs. C. E. Satterfield of Richmond, Va. Decorations of holly and mistletoe gave a Christmas note of festivity to the occasion. The guests were greeted at the door by the hostess and shown into the living room where tables were placed for cards.

The invited guests were: Mrs. J. W. Joyner, Mrs. Bunn Newton, Mrs. W. C. Ashby, Mrs. J. Frank, Mrs. J. L. Shackleford, Misses Daniel and Nell...

Cartoon Review of 1922

A Real Treat in Entertainment to Appear Here 16

"Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tick" to be Given By Local Talent in School Auditorium Jan. 16

The people of Farmville and the surrounding community will soon have the privilege of seeing the most amusing, entertaining and humorous play that has been written in recent years for amateurs, namely "Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tick".

One wants to be on time, obtain a front seat and be ready when the curtain rises on the opening scene, when Father Time and Dame Fashion discuss the approaching fashions for men and women. The time will be 1975. The women, since getting the ballot have taken the reins of government and gradually exchanged places with the men. The women dress in mannish clothes and attend to all the business, leaving the men at home to do the housework, sewing, darning, mending, etc. The married men dress in frills and furbelows and seem in the beginning of the play to have lost all their masculine habits and surrendered all their male attire except their pants, to which they hold with bull dog tenacity.

There was a most impressive service held in the Episcopal Church here at 11:30 New Year's Eve. Between the special songs, prayers and short talks were given by the minister. And as the bells were ringing at midnight the whole congregation were on their knees beseeching God to give them grace to live as He would have them during the New Year.

Oh, let our adoration for all that He hath done, Peel out beyond the stars of God, while vice and life are one; And let our consecration be real, deep and true, Oh, even now our hearts shall bow, and joyful vows renew. From glory unto glory! O word of stirring cheer, As dawns the solemn brightness of another glad New Year."

Union Services.

Last Sunday was fifth Sunday and by common consent this means a union night service with a good sermon, fine music and a splendid congregation. Rev. Chas. T. Thrift, the new Methodist minister, the preacher of the occasion together with a mixed choir of well trained voices made this a service most impressive and enjoyable to the large crowd which filled the Christian Church.

These services mean much to our community bringing the Christian people together and binding their hearts with mutual love and fellowship.

"Blest be the tie that binds— Our hearts in Christian love."

Christian Endeavor Meeting.

All members of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor are urged to be present Sunday Jan. 7th, December at 6:30 p. m. and that this is the first Sunday in the month.

New Year's Greeting.

The Farmville Enterprise wishes for all its readers a most happy New Year. We ask during the year your continued confidence and co-operation, and with these we hope to give a paper which will prove interesting and helpful. The unparalleled financial depression of this community this past fall has dampened the enthusiasm and spirits of the people to a great extent. This financial stringency is only temporary. 1923 has turned over a clean sheet, let us settle down forgetting what is behind us and bend our efforts with a renewed determination to make this, with God's help, the best year of all years. May Heaven's blessings rest upon us.

Grand Champion Hereford Weighs 3100 lbs.

Hartland Woodford, owned by Gen. J. N. Camden, of Versailles, Ky., is the Grand Champion bull of America, winning his honors at the American Royal Livestock show in Kansas City this month. He is the heaviest bull ever shown, weighing 3100 pounds.

Mrs. C. S. Rountree and Mrs. Alex Bynum won the table prizes. A sweet course was served by the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. McD. Horton. The guests were: Mrs. Satterfield, of Richmond, Mrs. Frank Capps of Raleigh, Mrs. Jack P. Lang of Tarboro, and Mrs. Harvey Turnage, Mrs. Bunn Newton, Mrs. Alex Bynum and Mrs. C. S. Rountree.

Adoration Pageant.

On Christmas Eve the Christian Church was the scene of a most beautiful and impressive Adoration Pageant and White Gift service. The church was lovely in its elaborate yet artistic decorations of white stars etc. The prophecy, the Vision of the Shepherds, Their Journey, the Quest of the Magi led by Bethlehem's Star and the Fulfillment of the Prophecy were given with remarkable interpretation by the characters. The White offering, which will go for the support of infirm ministers, was very large.

The splendid choir of trained voices added much to the beauty of the services.

In Honor of Miss Bousher.

Continuing the social activities of the holidays, Mrs. C. C. Satterfield entertained at a bridge party Monday afternoon at the home of her parents on Pine st. Miss Sarah Bousher, of Richmond, Va., was her charming honor guest. Four attractively arranged tables were placed for bridge and after several progressions, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. J. Loyd Horton as winner of the prize for top score was presented with two fainty handkerchiefs and the guest of honor received a lovely box of powder.

The guests were: Misses Sarah Bousher, Mary Barrett, Cornelia Parsons, Ruby Riggsby, Tabella DeVisconti and Annie Laura Lang and Mesdames Bunn Newton, Harvey Turnage, Arthur Joyce, Marvin Horton, J. W. Joyner, Alex Bynum, J. Loyd Horton, Richard Bynum and J. L. Shackleford.