TIPS FOR THOUGHTFUL

Life is a daily opportunity to express our highest and best.

The darker it is around us, the more our light is needed.

Intelligence is not shown by witty words but by wise actions.

Do not believe all you hear, except when the voice of conscience is speaking.

Getting on is largely a matter of getting up each time you are knocked down.

Pride generally empties the life of everything of which one may rightly be proud.

Determination reduces hard work to nothing; procrastination makes hard work out of nothing.—Boston Transcript.

MODERN PROVERBS

Rage is brief insanity.

Eternity has no gray hairs.

Gentleness is not weakness.

Promise little and do much.

Talent repeats—genius creates.

Learn the luxury of doing good.

Great ships require great waters.

Conduct hath the loudest tongue.

Inquire not what is in another's pot.

Ignorance and fear go hand in hand.

Don't pluck the apple until it is ripe.

Friendship is a plant that needs watering.

Give man the earth—he reaches for the stars.

None so arrogant as the beggar suddenly rich.

Two brave men pulling together are a four-horse team.

A great artist can paint a great picture on a small canvas.

How many fetters we willingly wear because they were forged by our forefathers.

Stockholders Meeting.

The Annual meeting of stockholders of the Bank of Farmville, N. C., for the election of directors and such other business as may properly come before the meeting will be held in the banking rooms on Thursday, January 11th, 1923, 2:00 p. m.

Mrs. Bynum Hostess.

Mrs. Alex Bynum delightfully entertained her Bridge Club Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. After several hands of bridge, at which got top score, the hostess served delicious refreshments consisting of deviled crabs, creamed potatoes, hot rolls and coffee.

Besides members of the Club the invited guests present were: Mesdames G. A. Jones, Ed Warren, R. O. Lang, Bunn Newton, J. L. Shackelford, and Misses Laurie Lang, Beulah and Nell Keel.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends for the many kind deeds and words received during the recent illness and death of my dear husband and our brother, also for the many beautiful flowers.
