

Welcome To FARMVILLE The Little City With Big Possibilities.

THE FARMVILLE ENTERPRISE

In Unity There Is STRENGTH, and FARMVILLE HAS BOTH

Published by The Rouse Printery

"WATCH FARMVILLE PUSH FORWARD"

Subscription $1.50 a Year in Advance

VOL. 13

FARMVILLE, PITT COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, JANUARY 19, 1923

NO. 38

CAR OF HIGH GRADE COWS TO BE BOUGHT FOR COUNTY OF PITT

Dr. R. L. Carr and Dr. A. W. Kinney to Purchase Jersey Cows for Farmers

(Auspices Pitt County Chamber of Commerce.)

Dr. R. L. Carr of this city left this morning for Raleigh, where he will join Mr. A. C. Kinney, assistant Dairy Husbandman of the State College, for the purpose of buying a car of high grade Jersey cows for the county farmers.

Dr. Carr said on leaving: "You may expect a car this time, we are going to get them."

The cows are being brought to the county under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and made possible by the generous spirit of the Pitt county farmers.

They are interested in having one of these fine cows and intend to subscribe with your bank at once as they are to the plan whereby they will be sold.

Day By Day In Every Way

Dr. Carr, a little French dress and of Navy, is in the U. S. to learn auto-mechanics. "Day by day, in every way I am getting better and better," says a woman if not of great age and belief, in his name.

... piano, reciting etc. This kept the event full of laughter.

The supper consisted of three courses and served in the following order: first course oranges, second, turkey supper consisting of turkey, cranberry sauce, sweet potatoes, creamed fish potatoes, English peas, macaroni, biscuits and coffee, the dessert consisting of pineapple and cakes.

After the first course the Senator called upon Mr. Ed Nash Warren to give the address of welcome. This was done in a splendid manner. The response was made by Miss Dora Baker, who was equal to the occasion.

BOY SCOUTS GIVE BANQUET

The banquet was held in the gymnasium of the school building...

During the evening many guests were enjoyed. Among them was an oration read by Messrs. Sammie, Clifton, Tyson, Don Lovelace and Irvin Morgan. The object was for all to say something different at the same time. In the afternoon the banquet was the success of the evening.

The banquet was a success of the evening. The real reason of the evening was the same reason. Part of the evening was spent in the dining room which was decorated in a very artistic manner.

Afterwards Mrs. C. S. Hester, in a very few words, presented the...

Local Rotarians enjoyed a chicken supper at their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

The District meeting which convened at Farmville, March 17 was discussed various other matters of importance.

Mr. R. O. Taylor was named as the W. B. M. at the home of the...

Too Much Competition

Too much competition is being shown in Farmville.

This of course was the Boy Scout picture "The Fatal Marriage" which Mr. DeFaria had offered for the boys.

The guests departed about 10:30 declaring they had a wonderful time.

The members of the Executive Committee...

The house was beautifully decorated with baskets of red and white carnations.

Guests were received at the door by Mrs. Harris and ushered to the punch bowl, where they were served by Mrs. W. L. Smith and Mrs. J. L. Sheehelford.

After all had arrived a most pleasant hour was spent in song and conversation.

The Story of Cornelia Parsons was engaged in Mrs. G. A. Jones winning the prize. She very gracefully presented it to the guest of honor who opened the package found an exquisite made-up handkerchief.

A delightful lunch course was served in the dining room which was decorated in a very artistic manner.

Afterwards Mrs. C. S. Hester, in a very few words, presented the...

Local Rotarians enjoyed a chicken supper at their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

The District meeting which convened at Farmville, March 17 was discussed various other matters of importance.

Mr. R. O. Taylor was named as the W. B. M. at the home of the...

The members of the Executive Committee...

The house was beautifully decorated with baskets of red and white carnations.

Guests were received at the door by Mrs. Harris and ushered to the punch bowl, where they were served by Mrs. W. L. Smith and Mrs. J. L. Sheehelford.

After all had arrived a most pleasant hour was spent in song and conversation.

The Story of Cornelia Parsons was engaged in Mrs. G. A. Jones winning the prize. She very gracefully presented it to the guest of honor who opened the package found an exquisite made-up handkerchief.

A delightful lunch course was served in the dining room which was decorated in a very artistic manner.

William Smith with Miss Delia Parker, chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Shepard and Mrs. Alice Taylor.

The members of the Executive Committee...

The house was beautifully decorated with baskets of red and white carnations.

Guests were received at the door by Mrs. Harris and ushered to the punch bowl, where they were served by Mrs. W. L. Smith and Mrs. J. L. Sheehelford.

After all had arrived a most pleasant hour was spent in song and conversation.

The Story of Cornelia Parsons was engaged in Mrs. G. A. Jones winning the prize. She very gracefully presented it to the guest of honor who opened the package found an exquisite made-up handkerchief.

A delightful lunch course was served in the dining room which was decorated in a very artistic manner.

Afterwards Mrs. C. S. Hester, in a very few words, presented the...

Local Rotarians enjoyed a chicken supper at their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

The District meeting which convened at Farmville, March 17 was discussed various other matters of importance.

Mr. R. O. Taylor was named as the W. B. M. at the home of the...

The members of the Executive Committee...

The house was beautifully decorated with baskets of red and white carnations.

Guests were received at the door by Mrs. Harris and ushered to the punch bowl, where they were served by Mrs. W. L. Smith and Mrs. J. L. Sheehelford.

After all had arrived a most pleasant hour was spent in song and conversation.

The Story of Cornelia Parsons was engaged in Mrs. G. A. Jones winning the prize. She very gracefully presented it to the guest of honor who opened the package found an exquisite made-up handkerchief.

A delightful lunch course was served in the dining room which was decorated in a very artistic manner.

Afterwards Mrs. C. S. Hester, in a very few words, presented the...

Local Rotarians enjoyed a chicken supper at their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

A REAL TREAT IN STORE FOR FARMVILLIANS

Prof. George R. Wheeler Has Secured the Carolina Playmakers and the Date February 10th.

Farmville is going to have the real pleasure and rare opportunity of seeing the Carolina Playmakers very soon for Professor Wheeler has secured them for Saturday night February 10th.

The distinctive work of the University of North Carolina dramatic center under the direction of Prof. F. H. Koch has been the production of original dramas of North Carolina life. There is a tremendous field for folk drama in North Carolina and the Playmakers are making a great effort to cover this field. They have made several successful tours of the State and Farmville is indeed fortunate in having them come here. The Parent-Teacher Association will receive half of the proceeds.

Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickle Given Tuesday Evening Accounted A Success

Tuesday evening the school auditorium was the scene of a musical comedy, staged by a number of members and friends of the Parent-Teacher Association.

The play especially the prologue was most artistic and the costumes and music were bright and attractive.

Mr. Moses Mays as Father Time and Miss Bess Tibbett as Dame Fashion played their parts admirably.

Mr. Peels as Mr. Tickle, and Mrs. J. Loyd Harris as Mrs. Tickle, with the four little Tickle girls made an extraordinary family and acted their parts in a very realistic manner.

Miss H. Hester made an ideal Daisy Ann Gray and Mr. Tom Smoot, as Bill Lawson, showed that he could excel either in the role of a "man's man" or a "woman's woman". Senator High brow, Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien and all the minor characters gave pleasing interpretations of their parts which were very laughable and amusing.

We would mention Mrs. R. A. Bynum, Miss Julia Wilson, Miss Housier, Mr. Mays and Mr. Smoot as splendid tollars, among whom were found also Misses Annie Perkins, E. Hobson and Mr. Peels whose extraordinary talent as prima donnas had never even been glimpsed until Tuesday night.

But but not least we pay our tribute to the chorus which with its array of pretty, bright costumes and sweet voices added to the play and novelty added to make Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickle one of the best amateur productions ever staged in Farmville.

Local Rotarians enjoyed a chicken supper at their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

The District meeting which convened at Farmville, March 17 was discussed various other matters of importance.

Mr. R. O. Taylor was named as the W. B. M. at the home of the...

The members of the Executive Committee...

The house was beautifully decorated with baskets of red and white carnations.

Guests were received at the door by Mrs. Harris and ushered to the punch bowl, where they were served by Mrs. W. L. Smith and Mrs. J. L. Sheehelford.

After all had arrived a most pleasant hour was spent in song and conversation.

The Story of Cornelia Parsons was engaged in Mrs. G. A. Jones winning the prize. She very gracefully presented it to the guest of honor who opened the package found an exquisite made-up handkerchief.

A delightful lunch course was served in the dining room which was decorated in a very artistic manner.

Afterwards Mrs. C. S. Hester, in a very few words, presented the...