

Getting to be a Big Boy

Scene from "The Ladder Jinx."

Above we see Edward Horton and Otis Harlan who assume two of the leading roles in "The Ladder Jinx," the six reel comedy released by Vitagraph and showing at the Rialto Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

Poem by Uncle John

The biggest tax we have to pay, ain't levied on our oats an' hay, nor saddled on our farms. . . . The dread exactions of the law may strip us till we're feelin' raw, — but these are trivial harms. Our taxes may be bigger'n rent—and take the widder's last red cent, an' grow with frenzied pace. . . . The sheriff may attach our peltis, an' drive us off to somewhere's else, —but that's a minor case.

It's nothin' less than truth, to say, the heaviest toll we have to pay—is on perverted brains. . . . We pay a blame sight heavier tax on Caliban and Sycorax, than on our fertile plains. We hardly ever hear 'em quote the penalties of green-horn vote.—so deaf we seem to be. . . . It costs a sight of coin fer schools, but, forty times as much fer fools, an' rascal strategy!
