WOMANS MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Womens Missionary Society of the Baptist church met Monday evening with Mrs. C. L. Beaman at her home on Wilson street.

The meeting was opened with a missionary hymn followed by the devotional service led by Mrs. Beaman. She was assisted in this by Mrs. J. M. Wheelless who read the scripture lesson. Two splendid talks were made. The first on "The Beginning of Medical Missions," by Mrs. G. R. Wheeler, and the second was given by Mrs. D. E. Hill on "The Need of Medical Missions." A circle of prayers for missions was afterwards led by the president, and the meeting was closed by the singing of a Christmas hymn.

During a pleasant social period a delicious salad course was served by the hostess.

DR. J. MORRILL PURCHASES A MAMMOTH INCUBATOR

It will be a source of gratification to interested poultrymen throughout the county and adjacent territory, as well as to the interested housewives, boys and girls, to know that Dr. J. Morrill of Fulkland, has already placed his order for a 3,000 capacity Buckeye Incubator. Dr. Morrill, in speaking of this transaction, said: "I hope to have it in and installed during the last half of January and ready for business."

Dr. Morrill will not only operate to care for his own growing business, but will do custom hatching for the people of Pitt and contiguous territory.

It is a great source of encouragement to have experienced poultrymen like Dr. Morrill to enlarge his already growing trade by placing in this additional equipment to care for the constant demands that are now being made.

In placing eggs with Dr. Morrill to be hatched, the owners will have the satisfaction of an experienced hand at the helm.

OBITUARY

The Death Angel visited the home of Mr. G. K. Heath and took Delta, the loving wife and mother, December 8, 1923. She was born November 10, 1897; married August 9, 1914. She leaves husband, three little children, one brother, several half sisters and brothers and a host of friends to mourn her loss; she was good even in her sickness; her only murmurings in her suffering which was great, was Oh, Lord.

We know He understood her humble plea. Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved." Acts 2:21. She united with the Free Will Baptist church in 1916. May the Lord comfort the bereaved family and protect and guide those little ones so when their lives have passed into memory may they be reunited where there is no parting. Written by a friend, MRS. B. D. SKINNER.

RICHARD LLOYD JONES SAYS

Truth Never Hides in Shadows

Folks are facts. All fair-minded men see all men as such. No man is without faults or virtues. To use and cultivate the best in men is the just man's unending endeavor.

The microscope has its uses, but its lens is a poor window through which to survey life. It magnifies the minimum. It is the telescope that makes you feel the bigness of the universal things. You would think yourself ridiculously powerful and important if the microscope were your only outlook. You would feel lamentably little were the telescope your eye. It is by using both that you find your fair place.

It is the long view and the broad view that cures the pettiness of provincialism. Culture may be incumbered with limitations. It is the product of schooling. Intelligence is acquired through experience.

The back yard is a good breeding ground of gossip, because its horizon is narrowed by confining fences.

The prejudiced mind seeks favor rather than fairness. It will wish its friend well, its enemy harm. The fair mind will help to right whatever is wrong. Just men do not confine their approbation to personal friends; they become strong because they recognize the strength of those with whom they have nothing in common, of those who are acknowledged enemies.

It is only the mob who assume that the rest of the world is inferior and foolish. The fair-minded man holds but does not obtrude his politics or his politics.

It is not a true Christian who would either believe or wish that a man should condemn any deed of good who held to a different faith or philosophy of government, government and justice. The Christ taught that the best of men never prostitute his honor for business profit; he never compromises a part of his religion, and by honoring himself he honors his religion, he brings to a great blessing of all men.

Give One For Christmas

The Tudor sedan is a gift every member of the family will share. It adds to daily happiness. It will extend the joyous spirit of Christmas to every day of the year.

This new Ford type is of an exceptionally pleasing design. Wide doors opening forward, folding right front seat, and a roomy interior make it a convenient car to use; its high radiator, broad cowl, sun visor, and large windows make it stylish in appearance. Yet it is sold at the lowest price ever asked for a Sedan—only $590.00. Detroit.

This Car can be obtained through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.
