Pee Gee FLOOR WAX

Waxed Floors Are Easily Kept Clean

The terror that housewives feel in tackling a floor surface that almost defies scrub brush and mop need exist no more. It is no trouble, takes very little time and quickens the pride felt in a neat, pretty home to coat the floors with Pee Gee Floor Wax.

The surface is dust-defying and labor-saving. The satiny beauty of the floor is a source of pleasant comment by everyone. To clean it is but a moment's work, if a task so pleasant can be termed work. The wax is hard and durable. Renewing it will assure a long life for your waxed floors.

Poem by Uncle John

Old Eary Shiftless takes a spell, In the early part of spring—It's hard to hetch him, feelin' well,— He never works, by jing! He'll tell ye where the trouble is, and never miss a spot,—he's pestered with the rheumatis— and his stomach hurts a lot. Last week he got newralgy in the angle of his jaw— which bothered him to swaller, jes' the worst you ever saw! And, also, he's afflicted with an everlastin' cough, till it wont be unexpected if he'd up an' shuffle off! This spring he's lost a splendid chance of raisin' garden truck,—he took the "flu" and had it right—gol-darn the blasted luck! He sets around the live long day, rectin' of his woes . . . If Ezry couldnt' ect an' sleep, he'd perish—mercy knows. . . . But "Eat an' Sleep's" his middle name, and has been, all his life,—if this ain't evidence enough—go talk to Ezry's wife!

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF LAND

By virtue of power vested in me by that deed of trust, which was executed to me by Knott Warehouse Company, Inc., on the 19th day of January, 1921, and which is duly recorded in the Register's office for Pitt county, in Book Y-13, at page 220, default having been made in the payment of certain notes therein secured, I shall offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash, at public auction, at the court house door in the town of Greenville, at 12 o'clock, noon,

On Saturday, March 22, 1924, the following described parcels of real estate, lying, being and situate in the town of Farmville, County of Pitt, and State of North Carolina, to-wit:

FIRST PARCEL: Beginning at the northeast corner of the intersection of Wilson and Fields streets, and runs thence in a northerly direction with said Fields street 420 feet to Belcher street; thence with Belcher street in an easterly direction 160 feet to a stake, J. P. Taylor's corner; thence with J. P. Taylor's line a southerly direction 210 feet to a stake A. C. Monk's corner (formerly W. J. Parker's corner); thence with A. C. Monk's line a southerly direction 210 feet to Wilson street; thence with Wilson street to the beginning, and containing two acres, more or less.

SECOND PARCEL: Beginning on Belcher street, corner of lot No. 6, the Darden warehouse property, and runs thence in a southerly direction 200 feet to corner of lot No. 3, A. C. Monk's line, thence with A. C. Monk's line 80 feet to J. D. Jones' line; thence 200 feet to Belcher street; thence with Belcher street 80 feet to the beginning, together with all the improvements standing and being on said lot.

Also the undersigned will offer at the time and place above mentioned for sale all of the corporate rights and franchises of said Knott Warehouse Company.
This February 20th, 1924.
W. R. WILLIS, Trustee.
ALBION DUNN, Attorney.

COW MOST ECONOMICAL PRODUCER OF HUMAN FOOD

The dairy cow is the most economical producer of human food. She utilizes most efficiently that which she eats and responds with the most certainty to the care and management given her.

Valuable agricultural lands are made profitable only with good cows properly cared for. The community that appreciates the value of the cow—that knows of her relationship to prosperity, and takes active steps to popularize cow milking and cream selling, is taking out an insurance policy that will guarantee its fullest development in all things that go to make a prosperous community.

What does this mean? It means an increased population of good substantial citizens, with large buying power, who daily and yearly increase the value of all business by the very business they themselves are in.

With cows come better homes, the growing of legumes, silos, elimination of mortgages, better roads and schools, and everything that goes to make up a well developed and prosperous community.

WHO AM I?

I am more powerful than the combined armies of the world.
I have destroyed more men than all the wars of the nations.
I am more deadly than bullets.
I have wrecked more homes than the mightiest of siege guns.
I steal, in the United States alone, over $300,000,000 each year.
I spare no one, and I find my victims among the rich and poor alike, the old and young, the strong and weak. Widows and orphans know me.
I loom up to such proportions that I cast my shadow over every field of labor, from the turning of the grindstone to the moving of every railroad train.
I massacre thousands upon thousands of wage earners in a year.
I lurk in unseen places and do my work silently.
You are warned against me, but you heed not. I am relentless.
I am everywhere—in the home, on the street, in the factory, at railway crossings and on the sea.
I bring sickness, degradation and death and very few seek to avoid me.
I destroy, crush or maim.
I give nothing, but take all.
I am your worst enemy.
I AM CARELESSNESS.

URGES SUPPORT OF AYDLETT.

Elizabeth City, N. C.

To the Democratic Voters of the First Congressional District:—

The citizen's friend, Mr. E. F. Aydlett, after constant solicitation for several years, has consented to be a candidate for Congress from the First Congressional District in the coming primary. He has never before been an aspirant for political honors, but has freely and unreservedly given his time and services in the behalf of others that desired to represent the Democratic Party in the Halls of Government. It is therefore, but fitting, that we should nominate him to Congress in the next primary.

He is a man of strong convictions of duty, knows the needs of the people of this section as probably no other from his long observation and interest, an arduous worker that lets no cause fail for lack of properly directed energy, an insistent claimant for the doctrines of the Democratic party and the rights of his people, and an intensely moral and christian gentleman who has kept alive his love for the people at the altars of the Church. It is just this kind of Representative that we need in this District to help stabilize the affairs of the nation.

I sincerely hope that we can depend upon you to use your splendid influence among your many friends in the support of his candidacy.

With kindest personal regards, I remain,
Yours very truly,
P. H. WILLIAMS
