FALKLAND NEWS NOTES

Falkland, N. C., March 5, 1924
Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Pierce, of Farmville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Pierce on Sunday.

Miss Johnson, of E. C. Teachers' college, Greenville, spent last week-end in Falkland as the guest of Miss Hansford Pateson. On Saturday evening Miss Pateson gave a delightful bridge party in honor of Miss Johnson at the home of Mrs. G. H. Pittman.

Miss Marjorie Mendenhall, of Greensboro, was the week-end guest of Miss Lucy Crisp. Miss Mendenhall is a member of the High school faculty in Roanoke Rapids.

The many friends of Mrs. Martha Pierce will learn with much regret that she has been ill for several days. Miss Alice Newton, who was called home on account of the illness of her mother, returned to Kinston on Wednesday.

Mr. Cleon Pollard and Miss Pattie Mae Moore were married in Greenville on Tuesday, March 4th.

Mrs. G. H. Pittman had as her guests on Sunday her father, sister, and other relatives from Ayden.

The sympathies of the community are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peaden, who lost their youngest child, a twelve year old girl, on Saturday, March 1st. Her death was the result of a short illness of pneumonia.

Misses Ina Belle and Ruby Worthington spent the last week-end with friends near Winterville.

Misses Alethia Cannaday and Ida Holland spent the week-end away from Falkland.

The school campus is the scene of many varied activities at recess times these days, for preparations for the County Field Meet are on in full swing. Judging from the interest already manifested, it is easy to believe that both the faculty and the students are destined to make a good showing in the County athletic contests.

On Tuesday evening, March 4th, the piano pupils of Miss Lucy Crisp gave her a most delightful surprise. Having been called to the door on some pretext, she found herself suddenly surrounded by her pupils, who were saying, "H-A-P-P-Y - B-I-R-T-H-D-A-Y!" Then Brown Mayo, in behalf of the class, presented a big box which, when opened, disclosed another box. The second box, upon being opened, disclosed another box. Amid much merriment, box after box was unwrapped, each one bearing a happy birthday wish, until finally came the gift, a lovely little bottle of perfume. Then the party was turned into an impromptu recital, each member of the class contributing a selection, after which Miss Crisp played a group of pieces for her pupils.

Mr. W. W. Crisp, of Richmond, Va., visited his brother, Mr. S. M. Crisp, last week.

ELIZABETH CITY ATTORNEYS SUPPORT
E. F. AYDLETT

For Nomination In The Democratic Primary To Represent
The First North Carolina District In Congress.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIRST DISTRICT:

It is to the advantage of every one of us to nominate a man of the calibre of E. F. Aydlett in the coming Democratic primary to represent this District in Congress. Mr. Aydlett is a man who has the best welfare of this section at heart. He has devoted many years of his life to the interest of the Democratic party in Eastern North Carolina and has ever exerted himself in behalf of his city and his State, throwing every ounce of his energetic personality into the fight to uphold the highest principals of government by the people.

Mr. Aydlett was brought up on the farm where he remained until he had learned at first hand the problems which the farmer of Eastern North Carolina has to face, and he is still interested in farming. For this reason he is in a better position, perhaps, than any other man of this district in public life to judge the needs of the farmer and to advocate legislation that will be to the advantage of the farming sections.

His legal career and his years of service to the Democratic party have completed the training that fits him to represent this District in Congress. No more able man or no one more enthusiastic in working for the public good could be found.

A man of high moral character and strong convictions, he is known as a Christian gentleman among his townsmen and acquaintances everywhere. It is a man of this type needed to represent the First District in Congress. It gives us pleasure to be able to recommend him to you, the Democratic voters of the First North Carolina District.

BARRETTVILLE ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Harper and family, of Maury, spent Sunday with Mrs. W. A. Barrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Allen spent Sunday with Mrs. T. J. Nannie.

Miss Nina Harper, of Farmville, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. W. A. Barrett.

Mrs. W. A. Barrett and brother, Ray Harper, of Snow Hill, and sister, Martha, went to Kinston Tuesday.

Mr. R. T. Harper is visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Barrett, this week-end.

The tobacco plants are looking good to the farmers in our village.

The farmers are beginning to plow some after such a heavy rain and snow storm.

The County agent Mr. R. B. Reeves was over our way vaccinating hogs for cholera Wednesday.

Mrs. Hugh Barrett and Mrs. G. M. Carr called on Mrs. W. A. Barrett Monday.

PROGRESSIVE BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. J. Y. Monk was hostess to the Progressive Bridge Club Saturday afternoon at her home on Contentnea street.

The living room was tastefully decorated with spring flowers and three tables were arranged for bridge.

After several progressions the score was coured and Mrs. Taylor Harrow was announced the winner of high score.

Delicious fruit salad, pimento sandwiches and hot coffee were served by the hostess.

Special guests were Mesdames R. A. Bynum, Taylor Marrow and Miss Nina Andrews.

THEATRE PARTY

Although the unpromised, yet ever hopeful, sisters of the town have been silent and have made no move as yet, and the shy old bachelors who, except for the fact that they haven't dared look a single girl in the eye during 1924, for fear of receiving an alluring wink, have given no visible sign of knowing that this is Leap Year. The fact that the season for big game is on, has been brought to the attention of the community by the younger set, who have made their elder sisters "sit up and take notice." No doubt it made the future look brighter to the unpromised sisters and struck cold terror to the hearts of the superior sex when the San Souel club, composed of eight girls, opened the Leap Year season here on Friday evening by entertaining a like number of their boy friends at a theatre party.

Club members and guests met at the spacious home of Miss Edna Foust Harris at 7:30 where music and delicious fruit punch were enjoyed before setting out for the Rialto.

After the amusing show the merry party was served delightful refreshments at the drug store.

Hostesses and guests included: Misses Edna Foust Harris, Evelyn Horton, Sally May Smith, Sarah Mewborn, Janie Davis, Mildred Barrett, Elizabeth Davis, Susan Barrett, Nancy Bynum; Messrs. Will Moore, Lawrence Warner, Jack Lewis, Thomas Lewis, Earle Lang, Seth Barrow and John D. Dixon.
