FRIDAY, MARCH 28th, 1924
MR. ALFRED JOYNER
PASSES AWAY

Last Sunday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock at his home on the Stantonburg road, about three miles east of Farmville, surrounded by friends and faithful wife, the Lamp of Life slowly and dimly flickered, with an occasional brighter spark, breaking through the mystery veil of gloom until the sad and peaceful end, when the heart and pulse stood still, and Alfred M. Joyner was no more.

He was born 1856, Sept. 28, making his earthly existence 67 years, 5 months and 18 days. He was happily married to Miss Margaret E. Parker, daughter of Mr. Washington Parker, on December 26, 1886, both of Farmville township. He was a son of the late Howell Joyner, and is survived by his wife, three sisters, Mrs. Pattie E. Joyner, of Greenville, Mrs. John L. Wilkerson and Miss Mary Joyner, of Farmville, and many nephews and nieces, residing in Wilson, Green, Pitt and Craven counties, to mourn and miss him and his congenial qualifications and friendly handshakes. He was never associated directly with any church but was always inclined to reverence the Primitive Baptists, and took special interest in preparing for and entertaining of the members and attendants and many will be recalled the good dinners, etc., enjoyed with him and his most hospitable wife during the last few years, having resided ever since his marriage in less than one mile of the old Baptist (Tyson's) church, and with the exception of a short stay in the state of Georgia before his marriage.

Mr. Joyner was held in the highest esteem by all his neighbors as well as others whom he dealt with and knew him to be true to his word, honor and integrity, earning his living by the sweat of his brow, believing in sowing the seeds of what we wished to reap.

On Saturday night about 10:30 the news came to Farmville that Mr. Joyner was found some two or three hundred yards from home by his wife and sister, Miss Mary Joyner, having fallen by the path in which he was walking with his lantern in his hand, and was almost helpless and speechless, and in fact, never spoke many words after telling them not to hurt themselves in trying to lift him that the "Lord would take care of us all," and asked them to step over to Mr. Norville's for some one to come and assist in moving him to his house, which they did, and as soon as possible came for his physician who went at once and remained with him until about 3 o'clock Sunday morning and returned about 7 o'clock and again about 1 p. m., rendering every available service, being assisted by his willing wife and friends. But the Reaper was there, calling the eternal roll to which our human voices cannot respond only through the echoes of the immortal soul.

He was laid to rest in his sodded tomb amidst a throng of serious friends and loved ones on a lovely little knoll in the burial ground of his wife's family near Farmville. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Slaughter of Farmville.

BASE BALL IS HERE AGAIN.

Local Merchant is Confident that 1924 will be Greatest year for Sport.—Some Facts That Interest.

Spring is the time when thoughts of the man are supposed to turn to Love. Maybe that is right, possibly the fine spring evenings and the moonlight nights do have their effect, but we have a hunch that some of the thoughts of every red-blooded young man are for baseball.

"Baseball is the sport of the masses, the national pastime," said J. F. Carr, of the T. L. and W. J. Turnage Co., the local Winchester Store, today. "There are 120,000 young men playing baseball on regularly organized league teams," continued Mr. Carr, and each year the number increases by thousands. During the last generation baseball has developed and has outgrown all other sports from the standpoint of interest.

"In the neighborhood of 60,000 persons paid admission each day last fall to witness the world's series contests and as many more would have attended if they could have been assured of admission.

"The major league clubs have been in the south or extreme west for several weeks and in another few weeks the National and American League seasons will be under way. Within a month most of the important leagues will be playing and the crack of the bat as it meets the ball will be heard on every vacant lot. Nineteen hundred and twenty-three was the greatest year baseball ever had, but I am confident that 1924 will far surpass anything heretofore accomplished.

"From the standpoint of business baseball is a big thing. In the National league in 1923 the number of baseballs used totalled 42,756. There were nearly the same number used in the American league, possibly more than that used in the Pacific Coast league because of its longer season. There are about 1000 leagues of various kinds and sizes in the United States and the more leagues we have the more baseball will grow and prosper. Leagues are the salvation of sports, especially baseball. The great interest developed in baseball has come through leagues. League competitions always create interest and secure publicity such as independent teams cannot hope to get.

"This year baseball will be brought to the attention of the sport loving people more forcefully than ever before by reason of two 'base ball weeks,' sponsored by Winchester Stores all over the United States and the Athletic Goods Manufacturers' association. The Winchester week is from March 27 to April 2 while National Baseball 'Week' is from April 4 to 14. Several thousand dollars are being offered as prizes for the best window displays featuring baseball goods. It would not be surprising if 10,000 merchants made displays of baseball goods during the two weeks mentioned above. While baseball goods are being displayed there will be much talk of organization. My suggestion would be that clubs and individuals who are interested in baseball and wish to select their equipment and form leagues that they do so at once."—Adv.

Solving the Problem of Decorating Walls and Ceilings

Where a finish for walls and ceilings is desired that will withstand rough usage, and yet will not surrender that soft, delicate tone that is so distinctively beautiful in modern homes—use Pee Gee Velkoatt.

It is a finish in itself when used on wood. It dries with a satin or eggshell effect. It has the appearance of hand-rubbed enamel, by reason of its hard, non-porous surface.

While you are giving thought to refinishing walls and ceilings, or perchance woodwork, Velkoatt offers a solution to your problems. It is sanitary, washable, and has a semi-gloss finish.
