TO WHICH WE SAY "AMEN"

Blessed are the merchants who advertise because they believe in it and in their business, for their prosperity shall increase many fold.

Blessed are the country correspondents who send in their well written items every week; for fame of their friendly neighborhoods shall go abroad in the land.

Blessed is the woman who sends in a written account of a party or wedding; for she shall see the details of the function and the names of her guests correctly reported.

Blessed are all those who do not expect the editor to know everything but who call up and tell him whenever an interesting event occurs to them; for they shall have a newsy paper in their town.

Blessed are they who get their copy in early for they shall occupy a warm place in the editor's heart.

Blessed are all those who co-operate with the editor in his efforts in behalf of the community; for their town shall be known far and wide as a good place in which to live.—Baron, Wis., News.

"I Should Slap A Rabbit."

Harry Thaw is just crazy to control his five millions. There are two BITS of evidence that may hurt him. NeeBITS and RabBITS—both parties "squealed" on him. Looks like he will lose by a "have's" breath. He will probably see red, as he won't "stan-for-white." Anyway, its late season for a "Thaw-out."

All In Favor Say—

Two pretty girls kissed when they met in the postoffice the other day. Two men were standing near.

First man: "I'm opposed." Second man: "Opposed to what?" First man: "Women doing men's work."

HELPFUL HINTS

Vines—A glass receptacle is the best thing that can be used to grow vines and slips in, as this allows the sun to get at their roots.

White Leather—To clean white leather bags, belts, etc., use oxide of zinc.

Corn—An easy way to remove silk from corn is by using a vegetable brush.

Birds—If your canary refuses to take his bath just sprinkle a few seeds on top of the water, and he will be drawn to his tub.

Trouble Savers—A pile of newspapers kept in one corner of the kitchen will save much trouble if used to set soiled pots on.

Milk—It is said that if milk is heated until it is lukewarm and then suddenly cooled there will be much more cream.

Peach Stains—A peach stain is very difficult to remove. It may be done, however, if these directions are followed. First wet the stain thoroughly, then spread cream of tartar on it. After this wash in the ordinary way. It will probably be necessary to repeat the process if the stain is very old.

Drying Eggs—Put a spoonful of flour in the pan in which eggs are to be dried. This will not only keep them from sticking, but from breaking as well.

Stuffed Eggs—When eggs are to be stuffed they should be put in cold water as when they are taken from the pan. This will keep the whites from coming apart.

Poem by Uncle John

How gladly I welcome the verdant spring onion, that sheds o'er my garden its capable breath. It's good for my cold—or to poultice my union, and helps to postpone when I'm firin' with death! Its virtues so rare, that I gladly repeat 'em, although they are easy and well understood,—I challenge the strongholds of science to beat 'em in uplift, exclusion, perfume, and food! What matter if friends an' companions forsake me, or face to'other way when I foot my basoo? Of course, I'll repent—if my sins overtake me, and set by myself in a far corner pew. . . . Let neighbors insult me by holdin' their noses, and hinkin' that "polecats is on the increase"—the onion don't smell any the less of roses, but she lends her admirers contentment and peace! And while I am fearful in idyll and lyric, and duffly avoid any statements that clash—I'm quick to repel any mental hysteria that enters my kitchen an' foals with my hash!

Poem by Uncle John

Poetic genius draws, perhaps, the biggest load of handicaps. She lets her inspiration soar to haunted realm or tuneful shore. . . . She reveals where the skies is blue, and paddles some in Love's canoe. . . . She seeks Ambrosia's hotted bowers, and tastes the wine, and gathers flowers. . . . She sits where boss-mint scents the dell—fur off from sordid business-bells—But, her shining light grows mighty dim, when a wood-tick bites her on the limb! Poetic genius soars aloft, in search of something sweet an' soft. . . . The seldom condescends to go among the lumpy, meek or low. . . . She covets wild ambition's crown, while sudden ballast holds her down. . . . She finds some tawdry, plebian thing that shatters her angelic wing. . . . It's mighty hard to court the muse, when Molly wants some better shoes. . . . Or, monkey with a sweet romance, when Bobby needs a pair of pants!

Pain in Back & Sides

FOR A LONG TIME, says Mrs. Dora Payne, of Huntington, Tenn., "I felt listless, tired and worn-out. I did not feel like doing my work, visiting or anything. I suffered much pain in my back and sides. My limbs hurt, my knees were tremble without apparent cause and I would have to sit down. I was very nervous. I would have a tired, dull headache. I had rest so much about Cardui I asked my husband to get it for me. The very first bottle seemed to help me. After the second, I was better than I had been in months. I certainly can praise Cardui. I have taken three bottles. Now I hardly wait when the sun shines in the garden. I am feeling fine." Similar results to those described above have been reported by thousands of other women. Cardui is a pure vegetable preparation and you can give it a thorough trial for the relief of any common female ailments. For sale everywhere.

We Spend, Also Save—Full Beard at 4—Why Except Laborers?—Old Men Crave Learning—Money in the Bible

Americans are saving money as never before, and prohibitionists will find comfort and ammunition in that.

Savings bank deposits increased last year one billion one hundred and forty million, a good deal of money, and that's only a small part.

Other hundreds of millions were invested in real estate, bonds, stocks, etc. In the world's history there is nothing like the way in which the American people both SPEND money and SAVE money.

Savings average thirty million dollars a day, about thirty cents a day for every man, woman and child—not bad.

Yet you have pessimists predicting hard times and sensible business men actually frightened by their own talk about "a bad Presidential year."

We are indeed "fearfully and wonderfully made," and well may we praise the Lord. What horrible things MIGHT happen if our glands ran wild, as in the case of a little Russian boy four years old. He wears a full beard and has such abnormal power that he wrestles successfully with grown men and must be watched lest he strangle his playmates, having the brain of a child and no realization of power.

Doctors say the unfortunate boy has excessive development of various glands, especially the thyroid.

Marvelously we are balanced, and we should be grateful. At the Equator, temperature 140, or the North Pole, 50 below zero, the temperature of your blood remains the same, not a change of one degree, while outside temperature changes two hundred degrees.

And the earth, that floating hot-house in which you live, sails through frightfully cold ether permanently at "absolute zero," cold inconceivable to us, and we are protected from it.

Washington predicts that postal employees will get an increase of $300 a year, "all except laborers."

WHY except the laborers? Their children eat as much, wear out as many shoes as others. The Government can afford to pay its workers well, and should remember that the child of a laborer may be the most important citizen of the future, and anyhow, should be well fed. Keats, the poet, worth ten million average human beings, was the son of a livery stable groom, will find comfort and ammunition in that.

The Governor of Connecticut, past fifty, will enter Yale University, to specialize in history and psychology when his term ends, and that is normal. At fifty, men really want knowledge and value it. In early youth they crave exercise and excitement.

In childhood we lock them up in schools, forcing knowledge into them by a pumping process, when they ought to be out of doors. And when they are old we turn them out into the golf fields and let them make games of themselves, when they really ought to be studying.

The Labor Government of England has abolished all duties on automobiles, motor cycles, moving picture films and watches—and that, in spite of Great Britain's terrific war debt.

This highly intellectual American Republic is planning a tax on radio sets, which is about as intelligent as it would be to tax school books or new ideas. To allow twenty billion dollars' worth of securities to go untaxed and put a tax on human ingenuity is foolish, to put it mildly.

Mason J. Aldrich bought a Bible at auction for twenty-five cents, and found in it two bills, one for $100, the other for $2. A wonderful bargain, newspapers call it. But there are better things than $102 to be found in any Bible. There is salvation, most important, and if you are more interested in money than salvation, as some are, you can even make money by reading the Bible.

Isaiah, Job, the Psalms stimulate the mind, make the brain work. A stimulated mind succeeds, whether in making money, or avoiding sin.

To lend dignity to their bobbed heads, English women wear fillets of green and gold, or little spikes, in Goddess of Liberty fashion. The real dignity of a bobbed head, is a well shaped skull. Nothing is more dignified than the symmetrical head of an intelligent woman, bobbed or not. Eventually all women will cut their hair in such fashion as to show the whole forehead, the ears and the shape of the back head. But it will take time to get used to it.
