MINISTERS OF WASHINGTON ENDORSE WARREN.

The undersigned ministers of Washington take no part in politics, but as citizens we are vitally interested in the men who are elected to office.

On account of the vicious eleventh hour campaign that has just been unloosed against Lindsay C. Warren, we feel that knowing Mr. Warren as we do, we should let the public know our sentiments.

We are loyally supporting him and do hereby strongly endorse him, and believe that he is eminently qualified in every respect to represent this district in Congress.

PROMINENT PITT COUNTIAN ENDORSES LINDSEY C. WARREN

To the Voters of the First Congressional District:

I am writing this letter without the knowledge or procurement of my friend, Lindsey C. Warren.

I was intimately associated with him during two sessions of the General Assembly of North Carolina. In all of his acts as a legislator, he was strong, able, clean and clear-cut.

I consider him an able leader of character and integrity and I commend to the Democratic voters of the First Congressional District.

F. C. HARDING.

CHATAUQUA TO BE A COMMUNITY AFFAIR

The Chatauqua which will be presented here in the school auditorium this month is strictly speaking a community affair. It includes every one in this city and those outside. This entertainment will be given under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association, the Rotary club, the Magazine club and the Merry Matrons and the proceeds will go toward the benefit of the school.

We need clean entertainment and this chatauqua will provide it in a large measure. The cast of characters for the three nights' program will be made up entirely of local talent of which Farmville has a great deal.

The first night will be the occasion of a three-act comedy, "Miller and Milton's Charm School," sparkling with wit and originality. Children's night will be a fairy dream, full of song and dance. On the last evening there will be music of a charming variety that will delight all music lovers. Everyone in the community will get something out of the chatauqua for it is for every age, every creed and every condition of social life. Buy your season tickets now.

The directors, Misses Annie Perkins, Mary Jerome, Vivian Case and Rev. J. W. Heyes are giving their time and talent to the affair and it is hoped that the actors will enter into the chatauqua spirit, appreciate their efforts and give the necessary aid and assistance to them.

The following prices have been agreed upon by the executive committee: Season tickets, adults $1.25, children $1.00; tickets for single entertainments will be 35 and 50 cents.

Committees who are serving in behalf of the chatauqua are: Executive, Superintendent G. R. Wheeler, J. M. Hobgood, J. I. Morgan, Miss Perkins; Advertising: Messrs. G. A. Rouse, J. H. Paylor, G. M. Holden and J. G. Smith; Publicity: Mrs. W. G. Sheppard, Rev. O. E. Fox; Finance: Miss Tabitha DeVisconti, Mesdames J. I. Morgan, R. A. Fields, J. Y. Monk; Stage Supervisor, Mrs. Nick Otto.

MRS. DIXON ENTERTAINS TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

The members of her card club and a number of other friends were delightfully entertained by Mrs. C. T. Dixon on Tuesday afternoon.

The spacious reception rooms were attractively decorated with yellow spring flowers and six tables were arranged for auction. Mrs. M. V. Horton won the prize for top score and was presented with a handsome score pad.

Delicious strawberry ice cream and angel food cake were served by the hostess.
