Pretty Marriage at Hookerton

Contracting Parties Being Mr. Will E. Joyner, of Farmville and Miss Virginia Harper of Hookerton.

On Thursday morning at 11 o'clock Miss Virginia Harper, of Hookerton, and Mr. Will E. Joyner, of Farmville, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Vause, Hookerton.

The parlor, beautiful in its simple decorations of white roses, phlox and lighted candles, was the scene of the wedding. An improvised altar was banked with ferns and the arch covered with ivy and shasta daisies.

The Rev. R. R. Grant, of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony. Just prior to the ceremony Miss Nina May Sugg of Hookerton, dressed in "poudre blue" georgette with picture hat, carrying corsage of sweet peas, sweetly sang "O, Promise Me," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. William Kilpatrick, Jr., dressed in brown canton crepe with picture hat and wearing sweet peas.

To the strains of Wagner's Wedding March Mrs. J. K. Malone, of Kinston, sister of the bride, entered as dame of honor, dressed in tan beaded crepe Romaine, with Miss Mary Francis Albritton of Hookerton, maid of honor, dressed in peach georgette, lace trimmed, both wearing picture hats and carrying corsages of sweet peas.

The bride, lovely in a going-away suit of grey, with accessories to match and carrying bouquet of white roses and sweet peas, entered with her uncle, Mr. W. H. Kilpatrick, Sr., who gave her in marriage. They were met at the altar by the groom and the best man, Mr. J. W. Joyner, of Farmville.

The beautiful and impressive ring ceremony was used. Mrs. Kilpatrick softly playing "As a Wild Rose," by MacDowell, throughout the service. The bride and groom left amid showers of rice and good wishes for a motor trip to Asheville and other points west. They will be at home in Farmville, after July 1.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. Luby Harper of Greene county, and is prominently connected with some of the oldest families of that county. She is a graduate of the Teachers' Training College, Greenville, and is loved by all who know her.

Mr. W. E. Joyner is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Joyner of Farmville, a young man of sterling qualities and splendid character. He is a representative of the Hopkins Tailoring Co.

ENTERTAINS MISSION STUDY CLASS

Mrs. G. M. Holden delightfully entertained the members of the Methodist Mission Study Class on Monday afternoon.

Yellow formed the keynote of the decorations which were fragrant spring flowers. Refreshing punch was served guests upon their arrival by the hostess assisted by her sister, Ms. G. A. Rouse.

Rev. B. B. Slaughter was leader for the afternoon and a most interesting discussion of the lesson chapter in "Save America" was engaged in.

During the social hour delicious frozen salad, saltines and iced tea were served.

At the Rotary Meeting

An inspiring talk on the "Objects of Rotary" by John T. Thorne, was the principal event at the Rotary meeting Tuesday evening. The new food committee, Rotarians J. Y. Monk and J. O. Pollard, received expressions of delight and enjoyment of the fried chicken supper and new "roasting ears," which formed the chief items of the menu.

AT THE ROTARY MEETING

Members of the Baptist Missionary Society held a most interesting meeting in the church on Monday evening last.

A short prayer service was led by Mesdames J. M. Wheelless and Manly Liles, after which the program was given over to Mrs. Bill Hill who acted as leader. The subject for the evening was "Europe," and articles relating to this were read by Mesdames J. W. Holmes, C. L. Beaman and Miss Davis. A beautiful sacred duet by Mesdames Daisy Holmes and Virginia Bergeron featured the program.

During a social period held in the Sunday school rooms refreshing lemonade and cakes were served by Mrs. Bill Hill.
