CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORS ENJOY INSPIRING MEETING
Twenty-eight members of the Christian Endeavor, Presbyterian, met at the home of Rev. N. N. Fleming, Jr., Wednesday evening, and an inspiring meeting was held. Rev. Fleming led the impressive devotional services, after which the program was turned over to Miss Sarah Pollard, leader for the evening. The topic of study was "What the Southern Presbyterian Church is Doing for Missions," and questions concerning home and foreign mission work were asked and discussed by different members. Miss Pollard read an interesting letter from an Endeavor missionary in Africa relating her experiences and telling of the work there. A feature of the meeting was delightful reports of the recent district convention held in Goldsboro given by delegates, Misses Lucy Moore and Mamie Bryan Parker. Chief among the notes were the addresses of Christian Endeavor Secretary Frank Wilson and entertainment by the Friends. A contest which created great interest and enthusiasm was a story read by Rev. Fleming of a delegate sent to Europe. The story had a number of missing words and these were supplied from memory by the contestants. This closed one of the most interesting and enjoyable meetings of the local Endeavor. If the weather will permit the meeting of next Wednesday evening will be held at the country home of Miss Ellen Lewis.

Y. P. S. L.
A meeting full of inspiration and enthusiasm was held by the Y. P. S. L. in the Episcopal church on Monday evening with every member present. This was the first meeting since the conference in Greenville and a renewed interest was perceptible. Echoes of the meeting were given by Rev. J. W. Heyes, Misses Marie Gibbs, Mary Alice Deaman, Edna Foust Harris, Evelyn Horton and John Harris, Jr. Canon Gordon Reese of Texas, who has charge of the meetings, made a lasting impression on these young people and the councillors feel that the conference was decidedly worth-while. An interesting paper: "The Stages Through Which a Candidate for Holy Orders Passes," was read by Mr. John Warren, after which Rev. Heyes in an impressive manner prepared the members of the League for the Holy Communion which will be administered on Sunday morning next. Several copies of the handbook of programs recommended by Mr. Reese have been ordered and this organization expects to begin these programs at the next meeting, Monday evening. The Y. P. S. L. meetings are better attended and are proving more satisfactory in every way since changing from Sunday to Monday evening. The League has recently had installed on the church tower a beautiful electric cross, 4x5 feet, of which it is very proud.

GRANDFATHER'S ORCHARD
Grandfather's orchard in summer was dense. With wide-spreading trees and sweet incense: Apples, peaches, pears and plums; Mocking bird trills and mama thrums; Tinkling grainheads kissed by the sun, Smiling and nodding to everyone. Grandfather's orchard to me was a charm, Each morning saw a basket on my arm; Tripping gaily away to market of bird, The sweetest music that ever I heard, I soon was dandling to sweetest tune, Filling my basket with some of June: Those big mother apples, Grandma can't bear. To bite one now would be a treat, Such peaches and pears as lay on the ground, On the choicest branches now seldom are found; Plums all bursting with nectar sweet, Greeted my eyes and lay at my feet. Those fruit laden vines I see this morn'g, I'm under one now, on top is a limit, Saying little bare feet look out for the bee, But, oh, such clusters of nectar I see! My hand goes up, by June I'm led, Grandfather and orchard—all are dead. —Mrs. Florence Thorne.

IN HONOR OF MISS JEROME
One of the most delightful affairs of the week was a party given by the Choral Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sheppard, on Thursday evening in compliment to Miss Mary Jerome, director of the club, who left Friday for her home in Atlanta, Ga. Upon their arrival the guests were served a delicious refreshing drink by Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard, on the lawn. The lovely home was most attractive with spring flowers and shaded lights. Various musical games and contests were enjoyed, Miss Hazel Williams winning the prize, a new song, in the song contest. A short business session was called by the president and program and entertainment committees appointed to serve during July and August. The president also presented the honoree with a farewell gift from the club, expressive of their love and admiration. Miss Jerome, who is quite a musician, has brought to this community a vision of music, the need of which had been felt for a long while. The musical atmosphere of Farmville has changed perceptibly and a wide interest in the study of this exquisite art has been the result of her awakening. A delicious ice course was served at the end of the pleasant evening. Special guests of the club were: Mrs. R. T. Martin, Misses Respess, Daisy Holmes, Messrs. Lewis Cox and Elbert Holmes.
