Evolution of An Idea.
I—stands for Interest
D—stands for Desire
E—stands for Enthusiasm
A—stands for Action.

A lot things that are progressive are not staple.

Now days people can afford any thing they can't afford.

Love may mellow with age, but in the case of the average old widower it just gets mushy.

A great many men have thought they could open the fountain of youth with a corkscrew.

An interesting talker is one who talks about something the other fellow is interested in.

Your son must be the idol of the family. Yes, he has been idle for twenty-one years.

Weigh some men and you'll find them wanting in everything—except weight.

Come in and listen to my loud speaker for a while. Sorry, old man, but I have a date to meet mine at seven o'clock sharp.

The bald man is said to be most susceptible to "water on the brain," he has no locks to keep the water out.

One half of the taxes paid today goes for things the average citizen doesn't want, and a great portion of the balance for things he doesn't need.

The late Elbert Hubbard used to say: "If you want anything done, ask a busy man to do it. By a hike taken the store that is the busiest is always striving for more whilst the dull store marks time.

A little girl was taught to close her evening prayer during the absence of her papa with: "Please watch over my papa! Her papa returned and her mama blushed when the child added:
'And you'd better keep an eye on mama, too!'"

No man is prepared for Heaven immediately after he puts the wrong end of a cigar in his mouth.

EPISCOPAL AUXILIARY

The regular business meeting of the Women's Auxiliary, Episcopal, was held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Julian Gibbs with eighteen members present.

After an impressive devotional service led by the rector, Rev. J. W.
Heyes, the usual routine of business was engaged in. The Field Day Exercises held at Hill Crest Thursday were discussed and a committee composed of Mrs. W. C. Askew and Mrs.
Alex S. Bynum, was appointed by the president, Mrs. G. A. Jones, to outline plans and find means of conveyance for all who wished to attend.
The carpet fund is still growing, and the sum of $331.00 has been collected for this purpose. A short talk on "The Neighborly Spirit" was given by Mr. Heyes and the Auxiliary voted to have him give a series of talks on timely subjects during the fall and
