INCOME AND OUTGO.

Last year North Carolina's crops brought $260,000,000. Dr. Kilgore told the Farmers' State Convention that North Carolina sent out $226,000,000 for food-stuffs.

In spite of better diversification, larger yield and more intelligent cultivation of the soil, these figures constitute a powerful indictment against a well-balanced development in North Carolina. To be sure, North Carolina will buy much of its flour, all its sugar and coffee, and much of the products of farmers in other states and countries. There must be exchange and barter in many lines. But the goal of wise agriculture will not be reached so long as North Carolina buys much of its foodstuff and pays high freight to bring it into this State. Most of the beef and pork and feed-stuff brought in should be home grown.

If we could keep $200,000,000 of the $226,000,000 sent out to feed men and animals, North Carolina would blossom as the rose. It would not have to borrow money from commercial centers. It would be a creditor State and be lending money to Wall Street.

VISIT TO PARENTS.

Rocky Mount, July 23.—Sergeant Paul Moyle, youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. S. T. Moyle, arrived in the city to spend some time with his parents after having been given his discharge from the Marine corps where he served four years and made a most enviable record.

Sergeant Moyle was one of the guard of honor at President Harding's funeral and a pall-bearer representing his branch of the service at President Wilson's funeral. He attained many other high honors during his period of enlistment. He has for some time been manager of the department of salesmanship of the Marine corps, being stationed in Washington.

Sergeant Moyle will not re-enlist, but expects to spend some time here with his parents before going into anything definite. He is at his parents' home in South Rocky Mount, his father being pastor of the South Rocky Mount Methodist church.

—News & Observer.

Rev. S. T. Moyle was at one time pastor of the local Methodist church and we feel that friends here will be glad to hear something of his family.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

The Christian Endeavor, Presbyterian, held its regular meeting in the church Wednesday evening with William Smith as leader.

The formidable subject of "War" was studied at this time and a splendid talk, "Is War Justifiable?" was made by Atty. W. C. Shappard. A review on previous subjects taken up by this organization tested the memory of the members and proved most enjoyable. An interesting talk on "Sovereignty" by Rev. N. N. Fleming, Jr., made his hearers feel most keenly the responsibility of such individuals.

After the singing of several Endeavor songs the meeting came to an end.

FOR OVER 20 YEARS

AT THE COMMUNITY VESPER SERVICE SUNDAY EVENING.

Another rainy threatening evening greeted the Vesper Service on Sunday afternoon last, but in spite of this a goodly number was present to join in the inspiring song service and hear Rev. J. W. Hayes, Episcopal minister, deliver a strong and powerful message. Mr. Hayes based his sermon on the Beatitudes and contrasted the progress of the Church with that of the State. In closing, the minister said: "To refuse the Beatitudes as a basis for life is to refuse the standard which our Lord left, and therefore to court ultimate disaster." For He says that "the meek shall inherit the earth."

A sacred duet, "I waited For The Lord," rendered by Mesdames N. N. Fleming, Jr. and M. V. Jones featured the musical program.

A large congregation is expected next Sunday.

Remember, these are your services and their success depends on YOU.

MR. S. W. NEWELL BURIED WEDNESDAY.

Prominent Greene County Farmer Dies Suddenly at Age of Fifty.

The funeral of Samuel W. Newell, who died suddenly from a heart attack on Tuesday night at 11 o'clock, was held at his country home ten miles from this city Wednesday afternoon with Rev. N. N. Fleming, Jr., of this city, and Rev. Russell, of Snow Hill, conducting the services. Burial was in the family plot near the house.

Mr. Newell was a prominent and successful farmer of Greene county and his death was a great shock to his relatives and to a wide circle of friends in his neighborhood. He was a man of genial disposition and will be greatly missed.

Surviving are a wife and three children; Henry, aged 20; James, 18 years, and Annie Rose, 11 years; five sisters, Mrs. S. H. Tyson, of Stantonburg; Mrs. D. W. Taylor, of Snow Hill; Mrs. J. H. Calloway, of Washington; Mrs. C. C. Joyner and Mrs. E. A. Fields, of this city, and a brother, Mr. Ed. Newell, of Wilson.

AT THE ROTARY CLUB.

A splendid talk on "What Rotary Demands of Me in My Business Relations" by Irvin Morgan, featured the Rotary meeting on Tuesday evening last.

Mr. J. J. Sellers, of Richmond, Va., was the guest of Rotarian A. C. Monk at this time.

A VARIETY.

This can be appreciated by those living in apartments:

The Joneses have a saxophone, The Jenkinses a radio own, A phonograph beguiles the Flymms, Revenge is sweet—We now have twins.

Mother—We must get a nurse for the baby.

Father—A nurse? What we need is a night watchman.

THEY GOTTA EAT, TOO.

If we all could keep well, It would be nice; but say, How then, I'd like to ask, Could doctors earn their pay?
