

LOCALS AND PERSONALS OF INTEREST TO Farmville and Surrounding Sections

Mr. Moses Mays is visiting friends in Kenbridge, Va.

Mrs. A. S. Bynum is visiting friends in Tarboro this week.

Mr. J. J. Sellers, of Richmond, Va., visited Farmville this week.

Mrs. W. C. Askey and party motored to Washington Monday.

Mrs. Nannie Mays Humphrey is visiting relatives in Goldsboro.

Mr. R. R. Carr suffered severe injury to his ribs in a fall this week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Norman on Tuesday, July 16th, a daughter.

Miss Orlie Dance, of Washington, D. C., is visiting Miss Nelle Mays.

Mrs. D. E. Oglesby and children are visiting relatives at Columbia.

Mrs. Leslie Smith is visiting friends at Bethel and Rocky Mount this week.

Messrs. L. M. Cox and J. L. Shackelford spent Thursday and Friday at Seven Springs.

Master James Wheelless is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pearee in Spring Hope this week.

Mrs. Mary Patterson and children have just returned from a ten days' visit in Liberty.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barrett, of Wilson, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Pollard this week.

Messrs. Patrick Baker and Willie Pollard are spending their vacation at Morehead City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Moore, of Greenville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wheelless Sunday.

Little Misses Ruth and Ann Buchanan of Henderson are visiting their aunt, Mrs. E. O. Turnage.

Mrs. V. W. DeFarley, of Richmond, Va., spent several days this week with Mrs. J. M. Wheelless.

Supt. and Mrs. G. E. Wheeler are leaving Saturday for a visit to relatives at Sparta, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Conner, of Greenville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mowbray Sunday.

Miss Odessa Tanner has returned to her home at Dacelor, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. D. R. Morgan.

Mrs. Frank Capps spent Sunday night in Farmville enroute to Raleigh after a visit to Morehead City.

Miss Olivia Rabberry returned Wednesday from Oriental where she attended the Seaside Summer School.

Mrs. L. Cobb will return to her home at Pinetops Sunday after visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. A. Bynum.

Misses Ellen Lewis and Nannie Bryan Parker have returned after a visit to Miss Irene Taylor of Snow Hill.

Misses Jean Bishop, of Petersburg, Va., and Dell Pollard, of Washington, were recent guests of Miss Gullia Askey.

Miss Kate Davenport, of Creswell, and Miss Ruth Faulkner, of Kinross, spent the week-end last with Miss Nelle Mays.

Dr. and Mrs. Bert Taylor returned to High Point Thursday after a visit to Dr. Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor.

Messrs. L. W. Lancaster, of Raleigh, and Chas. Garrett, of Roxboro, were house guests of Mrs. D. R. Morgan this week.

Miss Nannie Ruth Pollard, who is attending summer school at E. C. T. C., Greenville, spent the week-end at her home here.

Mr. John E. Davis and nieces Misses Elizabeth and Jamie Davis will leave Sunday for a motor trip through Western Carolina.

Messrs. W. C. Askey and W. M. Willis were recent guests at a dinner party and bridge party given by Miss Lillian Fells at Snow Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hill have as guests this week Mrs. Hill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Middleton, and Miss Elizabeth, of Magnolia.

Misses Phyllis Cary of Lenoir, and Mrs. G. S. Graham of Chatham, and Misses Baker and Misses ... returned Monday and are spending the week-end at Mrs. G. M. ...

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hill have as guests this week Mrs. Hill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Middleton, and Miss Elizabeth, of Magnolia.

MRS. BRYAN ENTERTAINS.

An interesting social event of the week was a bridge party given by Mrs. W. D. Bryan to members of her club and a number of other friends on Tuesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. G. M. Atwater, who has recently made Farmville her home.

Gay garden flowers added a colorful note to the attractive home and five tables were arranged for cards.

Delicious refreshments consisted of grape trappé decorated with a single petunia of the same tint and violet and white frosted cakes. Mrs. Bryan was assisted in serving by Mrs. G. M. Holden and Miss Mary Barrett.

Y. P. S. L.

The Young Peoples' Service League met Monday evening in the vestibule of the Episcopal church.

Rufus Gibbs, as leader, read the Scripture lesson after the singing of "Softly Now the Light of Day", and a circle of prayers was offered.

Three interesting papers were given as follows: "What Influence has Christianity on the Community?", by John Harris, Jr.; "What Influence of Evil are There in the Community?", by Miss Evelyn Horton, and "What Difference has our Church Made in the Betterment of the Community?", by Jonas Warren.

The topic for the evening was, "What Sort of a Community Would This Be If There Were No Churches?", and an interesting round table discussion was led by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Hayes.

CIRCLE I, PRESBYTERIAN.

Circle, No. 1, of the Presbyterian Auxiliary, met with Mrs. W. H. Moore on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. W. G. Sheppard led the devotional and literary program, having as subject of the latter, "The American Indian." Interesting papers on the habits, customs, conditions of the Indian and missionary endeavors of the Presbyterian church were read by Messames Sarah Hassel and N. N. Fleming, Jr.

A delicious iced drink and cakes were served after the meeting.

FOR BETTER PRINTING

The Rouse Printery, Farmville, N. C.

ENTERTAINED AT CARDS.

Mrs. D. R. Morgan entertained at one of the most attractive card parties of the season at her home on Wilson street Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, the occasion being in honor of her house guests, Messames L. W. Lancaster, of Raleigh, and Chas. Garrett, of Roxboro.

The home was artistically decorated throughout with quantities of Japanese sunflowers and nasturtiums.

After the guests had arrived places were found at the tables arranged for bridge and Boston rook, and iced drinks were enjoyed.

Table prizes consisting of gift candles in various shades and these were won by Messames C. T. Dixon, C. S. Rountree, W. M. Willis, F. M. Edger-ton, Misses Nelle Keel and Gullia Askey. Exquisite turquoises and amber beads were given the guests of honor.

After the games yellow tapers in pink tulips, supported by silver holders, were placed on each table and delicious orange ice in pink rose cups and blocks of cake with tray yellow candles gleaming thereon were served in dainty plate baskets carrying out a pink and yellow color most successfully.

PROGRESSIVE BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. Paul E. Jones was hostess to the Progressive Bridge club Saturday afternoon at her home on North Main street.

Fragrant summer flowers filled baskets and vases in the living room where three tables were arranged for the games.

Mrs. Jones was assisted by Mrs. R. O. Lang and Miss Tabitha DeVicenti in serving a tempting ice course.

GRADUATES OF FARMVILLE HIGH SCHOOL CHOOSE A VARIETY OF COLLEGES.

Graduates of the Farmville High School show a marked love of variety in their choice of colleges in which to complete their education.

Next year Farmville High School Alumni will be enrolled in the student bodies of University of Virginia, Davidson, Meredith, Salem, Trinity, Carolina, Florida McDonald, Queens, State, Wake Forest, N. C. C. W., A. C. C., E. C. T. C., and Louisburg.

FOR BETTER PRINTING

The Rouse Printery, Farmville, N. C.

CIRCLE II, PRESBYTERIAN.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of Circle II, composed of the young girls and presided over by Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, was held at the home of Miss Nannie Bryan Parker on Monday afternoon of this week.

Miss Ellen Lewis, as leader, opened the meeting with a circle of prayer and a missionary hymn. An interesting article, "Needs of the North American Indian," was read by Mrs. G. E. Beckman, followed by a selection, "What the Presbyterian Mission Board is Doing for Oklahoma Indians," by Miss Shasta Smith.

Plans were made for taking up White Cross work soon and each member was requested to bring a completed garment for the bazaar to the next meeting. An earnest appeal was made by the chairman, Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, for loyalty, enthusiasm and punctuality on the part of members and a renewal and revival of interest was promised her.

A refreshing glass of grape juice with cake was served her guests by the hostess.

Messames G. E. Beckman, Frank Dupree, Jr., Misses Lou Ellen and Norma Dupree and Hilda Smith were given a cordial welcome as new members.

NOTICE—BOY SCOUTS.

Owing to the absolute inactivity in Scouting this year, it has been determined that we take no Boy Scout Camping trip this summer.

There will be no further meetings during the summer until a revival of interest is shown and the boys attend the meetings.

WALTER G. SHEPPARD, Scout Master.

BUSINESS LOCALS

POTATOES—POTATOES—Only 25c peck, $2.00 barrel, at Smith Grocery Co.'s Store, Farmville, N. C.

LOST—Auto License, Place Number 159-445 and tire track. Finder will please return to J. E. Warren, Farmville, N. C.

PROLIFIC HILL FARM has only a few thoroughbred Big Bone Poland China pigs bred especially for breeding purposes on hand, which are ready to sell. See or write McD. Horton or Roy Bowling, Farmville, N. C.

MAKE YOUR HENS LAY—We have recently installed a Bone Grinders and will grind bones for Chickens every Tuesday and Thursday. Place your orders ahead—Smith Grocery Co.

"The Rouse Way The Right Way" FOR BETTER PRINTING The Rouse Printery, Farmville, N. C.

SPECIALS

Table listing various goods at special prices: Tobacco Twine, per lb. 50c; Dairlea Evaporated Milk, tall. 11c; Dairlea Evaporated Milk, small. 6c; Pocohantas Self-Rising Flour, 24 lbs. 97c; Pocohantas Self-Rising Flour, 48 lbs. 1.90; Campbells Pork and Beans, can. 11c; Good Grade Con Corn, can. 15c; Morris & Co's Supreme Hams, lb. 28c; Good Grade Canned Peaches, can. 30c; Pure Creamery Butter in Blocks, lb. 55c.

Table listing market goods: Pure Pork Sausage in Links, lb. 25c; Smoked Sausage, in Links, lb. 25c; Frankfurts, lb. 25c; Spare Ribs, lb. 20c; Boiled Ham, sliced, lb. 60c; Chipped Beef, lb. 80c; Minced Ham, lb. 30c.

WE DELIVER THE GOODS AT YOUR DOOR AT CASH AND CARRY PRICES, QUALITY CONSIDERED. "THE OLDEST SERVICE GROCERY IN FARMVILLE."

Smith Grocery Co. Main Street, Next to Postoffice.

TO THE PUBLIC

I am taking this method of informing the Public that I have opened up an up-to-date

General Repair Shop and am in position to do any kind of repair work, both Wood and Iron. Also make door and window frames. Will appreciate your patronage.

J. O. BAKER Wilson Street Farmville, N. C.

Advertisement for The Bank of Farmville, featuring a cartoon character and the text 'Opportunity walks in on the fellow who has money, without waiting to knock. CARELESSNESS MAKES COWARDS'. It also includes a section for 'BUSINESS LOCALS' with information about potatoes, lost auto license, and pig farming.

Advertisement for Farmville Furniture Co. featuring the headline 'Traveling Comfort Depends on the Luggage' and images of various luggage items. The text describes different sizes of bags, trunks, and suitcases, emphasizing comfort and variety.