WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY
OF BAPTIST CHURCH.

An unusually interesting meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church was held in the church on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. D. E. Hill led the singing and the circle of prayers and Mrs. C. L.
Beaman read the Scripture lesson.
The topic of study for the afternoon was "African Womanhood" and a splendid talk on "African Belles, marriage, Homes and Black Babies" was made by Mrs. J. W. Holmes. A talk on "The Missionary Trial in Africa" by Mrs. Hill proved most interesting and a selection—"Woman's Work in Nigeria" read by Mrs. J. M. Wheelers was timely and instructive.

A short business session was held, in which a weekly meeting of this group was planned, different phases of the work of the society to be taken up at each meeting.

Miss Davis and Mrs. Sterling Gates were made members of this organization at a former meeting.

Some wives sew; others sue.

He was only a garage man,
but he had the jack.

The easiest garden to raise is weeds, and life is like that.

I'm wild about you, said the hen-pecked husband, to his wife, as he went crazy.

A girl without a naturally beautiful complexion usually makes up for it.

General Pershing has been writing a history of the World war. Now maybe we'll find out who won it.

What has become of the old boy that he was in the hands of his friends.

Poem
Uncle John

My niece has bought a "bathin' suit"—I think she calls it that—which is jest about as hefty as the band around my hat. . . .
She sez it's plenty big enough—but really—'t'other day, I didn't know she had it on, and—looked the other way!

Most anything can ketch my eye, that's innocent and cute—and, Teeny's shore a stunner in her little bathin' suit. . . . While affordin' some protection, I would call it ruther slight, but the little darlin' likes it, so—I reckon she is right!

But, Teeny's Ma—Lord bless her—now, I hope she don't aspire to abbreviated bath-suits that the fashion might require.
. . . . If I was her, I wouldn't try to imitate my daughter—but if I did, I'd fool the crowd—by stayin' under water!
