Local Methodist women are pleased over the large attendance and enthusiasm displayed at the annual meeting of the Pitt County Federation of Methodist Women held in the church here on Tuesday of this week.

A rising vote of thanks was given the secretary for efficient services. The roll call was responded to by delegates from four churches of the county, Ayden, Farmville, Greenville and Simpson. The treasurer's report followed.

As president of the Greenville auxiliary Mrs. W. C. Vincent reported that a live missionary society had been organized by her group at Simpson and that she was very proud to say this society had reported more money given per capita to missions than any other in the Washington district.

Mrs. O. C. Stroud, of Ayden, extended an invitation from the Ayden Auxiliary for the next annual meeting and upon motion of Mrs. W. C. Vincent this was unanimously accepted.

SNOW HILL IS WILD OVER MULE SHIRLEY

Greenlee County fans have been wild with the Washington Senators' team in World Series.

Kinston, Oct. 8.—"Mule" Shirley has brought joy to the hearts of thousands of local fans by his performance with the bat in the first and third games of the "world" series. Shirley, substitute first baseman for the Senators, is a native of Greene county, near here, and Snow Hill, his home town, has gone wild over his deeds at Washington and New York. He is the most popular resident of the town. As a college player he was a mainstay of the University of North Carolina team. As a semi-professional he played at New Bern, Martinsburg, W. Va., and elsewhere.

AUXILIARY "RALLY DAY" OBSERVED BY PRESBYTERIANS

Monday was Auxiliary "Rally Day" with the Presbyterian ladies and nineteen of them assembled at the home of Mrs. J. B. Newton for observance of this occasion that afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The singing of a hymn marked the opening of the meeting and the devotional services were conducted by Mrs. N. N. Fleming, Jr., who made an impressive talk on the subject of "How God Can Use Individuals to Broadcast His Message Over the World." A circle of prayers was offered for home mission work.

A splendid talk on "Our Mexican Missions" was made by Mrs. I. M. Holgood, followed by a discussion of Texas as a Land of Opportunities, led by Mrs. T. C. Turnage.

COM. TO BE STOW PRIZE

Washington won the World Series today from New York by a score of 4 to 3. Twelve million dollars necessary before the business season had previously closed and today's earnings in Washington were $100,000.

Such interest now centers here by local fans, who received the final game by each and every play.

So far as the actual time of filling is concerned, both chairman had done their work in advance and were ready at the appointed time to make the report. The rumor that was affixed on the streets that Lenoir had been awarded the official prize, was of course, not official, and thereby is not taken as final. The executive committee will meet at an early date and award the prizes on the evidence in hand. A little spread was given at the Fall last night to Chairman John T. Cox and his Lenoir committee for having gone over the top for Lenoir and not to officially declare them the winners of the coveted prize, as that will be announced later. An account of car trouble and an abundance of water, I was delayed in getting back and could not attend the banquet, which I regretted very much.

Roland—Something's the matter with him, daddy; I dropped him as hard as I could on the floor, but he wouldn't bounce.

SAYS COTTON CROP 47 PER CENT YIELD

United States Government Figures Based on Conditions of October 1st

The state's history of cotton production on the cotton report based on conditions as of October 1st, which was made public yesterday by Frank Parker, agricultural statistician.

The report estimates the yield for this year at 47 per cent of a normal crop and sharply defends the accuracy of government reports, declaring that for the last ten years estimates on October 1 have been too low instead of too high.

The report follows:

"With a condition of 47 per cent of a full crop prospect and a production of 723,000 bales outlook, based on recent conditions, the North Carolina cotton crop has only 70 per cent of last year's production in spite of the large increase in acreage. The United States average is 52.5 per cent condition, indicating 12,499,000 bales. This is about 1 per cent less than was indicated the middle of September and almost 3 per cent less than was indicated September 1. With 1,525,520 bales ginned to October 1, there is about 65 per cent of the crop yet to be ginned. Only about 5 per cent of North Carolina crop was ginned to the first of the month.

"On June 25 the prospects of the crop were good in spite of the bad weather conditions experienced through a wet late spring. On July 18 the condition fell 21 per cent. During the next month it rose 9 per cent. Since that time it has fallen 11 per cent, the condition now standing at 47 per cent of a normal or full crop prospect. According to the numerous comments received from reporters from all parts of North Carolina, the crop had a distressingly poor prospect.

"It should be known, however, that the last report was made by reporters just at the close of a 17 to 20 day rainy period, when everything looked as if it were ruined. The seed were sometimes sprouting in the hanging opened bolls. Unopened bolls were beginning to rot. Even the stems were so soft that the bolls easily pulled off. Disclosure of lint was taking place. Soon with the sunshine which has so favorably come out since October 1, there is much complaint of the difficulty of picking the lint. As one county agent said, 'It is necessary to use tweezers to pull the lint out of the bolls.'

"In spite of all the criticisms made of the government estimates, it is a fact that every year for the last ten years the estimates for North Carolina have been too low at this time of year. In other words, the prospects for October 1 have consistently been poorer than the final results of the crop indicated. The condition in this state declined 4 per cent during the latter half of September.

On Wednesday Oct. 15th, Ordination Service Will Be Performed at Emmanuel Episcopal Church.

Wednesday, October 15, will be an epoch marking day in the history of the local Episcopal church when for the second time of its sacred existence the inspiring ordination service will be performed.

"RALLY DAY" OBSERVED AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"Rally Day" with an attendance of 190 persons, and an offering of $100.00, was observed at the Presbyterian church here.

This occasion is an annual event in the Sunday school and is looked forward to as one of the most important of the year.

Sunday school extension is four-fold in its purpose, it starts schools, assists the weaker schools, furnishes free literature to schools unable to purchase same, and sends out Sunday school missionaries.

A special program with the theme, "Jesus Christ for the Healing of the Nation" was presented by the several departments as follows:

Song: "The Light of the World Is Jesus."

Prayer and announcement of theme using the "Rally Day" poster, by Attorney W. G. Sheppard.

Cradle Roll superintendent Mrs. W. G. Sheppard presented certificates of membership to eleven babies.

Little Misses Sarvane Turnage and Mary Rosa Fleming, of the Primary department, sang two selections very sweetly.

Misses Frances Joyner and Luna Nozeman, of the Intermediate department, related true stories of what extension work has done in mission districts.

Attorney John Hill Paylor explained Sunday school extension work. A beautiful solo, "Behold Thy King, O Jerusalem," was rendered by Mrs. Mary Jerome.

An inspiring address by Rev. N. N. Fleming, Jr., on "The Man Who Was Too Busy to Stop."

A well sung anthem, "How Holy Is This Place," by the choir.

The offering was followed by a hymn and the benediction pronounced by the pastor.

Thus one of the best "Rally Day" services ever held in the local Presbyterian church came to an end.

Regular Meeting O. E. S. Tuesday

A regular meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star was held on Tuesday evening in the Masonic Hall.

After the ceremony of opening the chapter, several business matters of interest to the assembled body were discussed and decided upon.

The outstanding feature of this meeting was the installation services conducted by D. E. C. M. Allen, P. M., when Mrs. Nonie Barrett was installed as marshal and Mrs. J. L. Shackleford as organist.

The meeting closed in due form.

Everything comes to those who wait except the time they lose.
