

Conscience talks to all—but few have the courage to obey. The man who has strength of will to regulate his affairs to conditions as they exist and saves regularly soon finds that conditions change, and always for the better.

Conscience says SAVE!—So why don't you start this week? This institution pays 4 per cent on saving accounts and stands ready to assist its depositors in many ways.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS

The Woman's Missionary Society met in the Methodist church for a regular business meeting on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, with 32 members present.

Mrs. C. L. Steidley had charge of the devotional moment and spoke enthusiastically on the subject of "Building," using as a Biblical illustration the Rock and Sand as foundations for building.

After the regular routine of business the following officers made their reports: Mrs. J. Loyd Horton, superintendent of the Bright Jewels, called a meeting of that organization on Sunday morning next and urged the mothers to send their children; Mrs. T. E. Joyner, superintendent of Young People, reported a 99 per cent attendance at the meeting on Friday evening and a box of clothing sent by this group to the orphanage valued at $38.00; Mrs. A. H. Joyner, superintendent of supplies, reported a box sent to the orphanage valued at $34.57; Mrs. J. L. Morgan, superintendent of mission study, reported a new book on China begun in the class and invited all who were not members to join this division; Mrs. R. A. Fields, superintendent social service, reported a campaign for new members to be started this month, and Mesdames A. H. Joyner and G. E. Fields were appointed to serve on the church committee for the month. The treasurer reported $110.67 sent away during the quarter, and $58.35 used locally.

Mrs. J. W. Lovelace, president of the Pitt County Federation of Methodist Women, discussed the meeting to be held next day and announced that invitations to the luncheon had been extended to local ministers, their wives, a number of teachers, and to the presidents of the different women's societies of the various churches.

MISS WILLIAMS HOSTESS TO CHORAL CLUB

Fifteen members of the Choral Club enjoyed a delightful evening on Monday of this week when Miss Hazel Williams entertained them at her home, two and a half miles from here.

The beauty of the moonlit landscape acted as an intoxicant to the musical temperament of the motorists and inspiration and unusual enthusiasm marked the program and other features of the meeting.

Dahlias, red and white, decked the reception room into which the guests were invited by the charming hostess and shaded lights added much to its attractiveness.

The program had been arranged—the famous tenor, John McCyrmack and an interesting talk on his early life and career was made by Miss Jerome. Some reminiscences of one of his concerts were given by Mrs. J. M. Hobgood and one of his favorite songs, "I Hear You Calling Me," was rendered by Mr. John D. Holmes. W. G. Sheppard sang a beautiful bass solo, "Duna," and Miss Daley, teacher of instrumental music, gave a brilliant piano number.

A contest which involved the pronunciation and definition of various German, Italian and French musical terms proved amusing as well as helpful.

The election of officers for this, the new year, resulted as follows: W. G. Sheppard, re-elected as president; Miss Vivian Case, vice president; Mrs. J. W. Joyner, secretary; Miss Emma Dail, treasurer, and Miss Jerome director.

A Sunday concert to be given by this organization some time in November was discussed and anthems selected.

After delicious refreshments consisting of a pear salad, saltines and an iced beverage the club adjourned to meet on Monday evening, October 30, with Miss Vivian Case.

MENTAL STRAIN

Doctor: Don't worry yourself unduly! Your wife is simply suffering from paralysis of the tongue. Hammett: But I can't help worrying. I don't know when she is likely to recover.
