

Welcome To FARMVILLE The Little City With Big Possibilities.

THE FARMVILLE ENTERPRISE

In Unity There Is STRENGTH, and FARMVILLE HAS BOTH

Published by The Rouse Printery FARMVILLE, PITT COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, NOV. 7th, 1924

E. C. COMMERCE BODIES MEET IN SNOW HILL

The district membership meeting of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce, Inc., at Snow Hill, Monday night, proved to be one of the best meetings held since the organization began operation two and a half years ago.

These meetings are called for the purpose of making the individual feel his responsibility to his community in no uncertain way.

LAST TUESDAY NIGHT AT THE ROTARY CLUB

In the absence of the president, Walter G. Sheppard, vice president, presided at the Rotary meeting on Tuesday evening.

The delicious chicken supper ranked next on the program for the evening.

SEVERAL INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Misses Allie Clark, nurse living in Greenville, and Guilla Askew were painfully injured when the Ford coupe in which they were riding on Sunday morning collided at the corner of Wilson and George streets with another car driven by a carnival man and his wife.

Miss Clark's car turned over and besides bruises the occupants suffered considerable shock.

President Coolidge Elected By Large Majority

Indications Now Are That President Coolidge Will Have a Clear Majority in Electoral College of 100 Votes.

New York, Nov. 5.—The fall measure of the republican victory at the polls could not yet be taken tonight, but returns continued to show that President Coolidge would have at least 100 votes margin in the electoral college, and the largest popular plurality in history.

The showing made by John W. Davis remained unchanged throughout today, and although Senator LaFollette began to pick up a little in one or two western states, there was no certainty tonight that he would receive the electoral votes of any state except that of Wisconsin.

On the face of the day's congressional returns the republicans were certain of a paper majority at least in both senate and house, but doubt remains whether the margin would be great enough to give the administration the whip hand over the combined opposition of the democrats and the LaFollette bloc.

As the presidential figures stood tonight with only a hand full of electoral votes still in doubt the indicated strength of the three candidates in the electoral college was as follows: Calvin Coolidge, 367; John W. Davis, 136; Robert M. LaFollette, 15.

WEEK OF PRAYER OBSERVED BY METHODIST ORGANIZATION

This week, set aside as Week of Prayer by Southern Methodists, was observed by local Methodist organizations with appropriate exercises on Monday and Tuesday.

On Monday afternoon at 8:30 o'clock the Women's Missionary Society met in the church. Mrs. J. H. Horton led the devotional exercises.

Mrs. J. H. Darden was hostess to the Magazine club at the regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Miss DeVisconti acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. C. S. Rountree.

A splendid program including biographical sketches, essays and writings of two North Carolina prose writers, Isaac Erwin Avery and Christian Reid (Frances Christine Sherman), were given by Mesdames B. E. Jones and G. A. Jones, and an outline of the literary activities of George Washington was read by Mrs. J. W. Joyner.

COMPLICATIONS CAUSE WORRY

Mrs. Harding is Some Better, According to Report of Physicians, But Complications Have Set In.

Marion, O., Nov. 5.—New complications yet undefined are causing considerable apprehension today to physicians attending Mrs. F. Florence Kling Harding, widow of the late president, who was taken ill yesterday at the Sawyer sanatorium here where Mrs. Harding makes her home.

Dr. Carl W. Sawyer, who is in charge of Mrs. Harding's case, announced today that the disease is a recurrence of the same sickness, kidney trouble, which almost caused her death early in the spring of 1922 while she was mistress of the white house.

METHODIST MEN'S CLUB CELEBRATE HALLOWEEN AS LADIES' NIGHT

The banquet celebrating the first ladies' night of the Methodist Men's club was held in the Rotary club rooms on Halloween's Eve at 9 o'clock and proved a most brilliant and delightful affair to the sixty or sixty-five people who attended.

As the guests arrived they were greeted in the dimly lighted hall by the Queen of Halloween, a ghost, with icy fingers, who ushered them into the reception room where decorative hats in Halloween shades were distributed by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Christian.

After all had arrived a march led by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Joyner carried the gay party into the banquet hall. The hall was a scene of beauty with marigolds, orange and black lanterns, jack o' lanterns and autumn leaves.

The musical program consisting of numbers interspersed among the speeches, added much to the enjoyment and happiness of the evening.

Appropriate tributes were paid to his memory by the ministers, all of whom joined in praising the gift of friendship, which was the striking thing about Sam Underwood.

One of the most delightful social affairs of the fall season took place on Tuesday evening when Mrs. Wilcox Jones charmingly entertained the members of the Sunday afternoon club and a few additional friends at a bridge party.

The delightful affair came to a close with the singing of "Good Night, Ladies."

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR

Fourteen members were present at the meeting of the local Order of the Eastern Star held on Tuesday evening of this week in the Masonic hall.

The meeting was duly opened by the Worthy Matron, Sister Sally Horton, and the minutes read and approved.

Dr. Carl W. Sawyer, who is in charge of Mrs. Harding's case, announced today that the disease is a recurrence of the same sickness, kidney trouble, which almost caused her death early in the spring of 1922 while she was mistress of the white house.

S. B. UNDERWOOD BURIED

Greenville, Nov. 5.—Funeral services for Sam B. Underwood, beloved educator, who died yesterday in the hospital at Wilson, were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from Jarvis Memorial church in the presence of a large congregation of friends and acquaintances.

EDUCATOR ATTENDED BY LARGE CONGREGATION

Appropriate tributes were paid to his memory by the ministers, all of whom joined in praising the gift of friendship, which was the striking thing about Sam Underwood.

Following the members of the family and the pallbearers in the funeral procession came the Rotary club and the faculty and officers of East Carolina Teachers' College, with which institution the deceased was connected for the greater part of his life.

Before the game a delicious turkey dinner, consisting of roast turkey, dressing, cranberry sauce, celery pickles, hot buttered rolls and coffee, was served.

The delightful affair came to a close with the singing of "Good Night, Ladies."

It is a true saying that the successful man is he who laughs often, lives well and leaves the world better than he found it.

PRES. COOLIDGE THANKS VOTERS

Issues Statement Pledging His Best Efforts in Behalf of People. Davis Sends His Congratulations.

Washington, Nov. 6.—President Coolidge, having received a vote of confidence from the American voters, today expressed his "simple thanks" as one of his first acts after his election was assured.

"It does not seem possible to me," Mr. Coolidge said in a statement which he read to the newspaper men, "to make an adequate expression concerning the president of the United States. No other honor equals it, no other responsibility approaches it. When it is conferred by an overwhelming choice of the American people and vote of the electoral college, these are made all the greater."

Washington, Nov. 6.—John W. Davis today congratulated President Coolidge on his election to the presidency.

MRS. PARKER HOSTESS TO LOCAL U. D. C.

Mrs. J. W. Parker entertained the members of the U. D. C., at one of the most delightful and interesting meetings ever enjoyed by the local chapter, on Thursday afternoon at her palatial home on Church street.

The following program was enjoyed: "History of the Stars and Bars," read by Mrs. B. O. Turnage.

The entire lower floor of the Parker home was beautiful with decorations of red and white roses, United States flags, U. D. C. flags and red candles.

The delightful affair came to a close with the singing of "Good Night, Ladies."

It is a true saying that the successful man is he who laughs often, lives well and leaves the world better than he found it.

TERMINAL MEASURE DEFEATED

John and Mrs. Fields to read a paper on the life of Jesus. An instructive article, "The Blue Coal Fields of West Virginia," was read by Mrs. B. O. Turnage, and a prayer for the evangelization of these fields was offered by Mrs. B. O. Slaughter.

Mrs. J. W. Lovelace, Mrs. T. W. Lang, president of this group, then outlined the needs of the school in Mexico, pointing out that work can best be accomplished through prayer, love and self-denial.

Miss Bettle Joyner, as leader of the Young people, then took charge of the service.

Mrs. J. H. Darden was hostess to the Magazine club at the regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

A splendid program including biographical sketches, essays and writings of two North Carolina prose writers, Isaac Erwin Avery and Christian Reid (Frances Christine Sherman), were given by Mesdames B. E. Jones and G. A. Jones, and an outline of the literary activities of George Washington was read by Mrs. J. W. Joyner.

MAGAZINE CLUB

Mrs. J. H. Darden was hostess to the Magazine club at the regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Miss DeVisconti acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. C. S. Rountree.

A splendid program including biographical sketches, essays and writings of two North Carolina prose writers, Isaac Erwin Avery and Christian Reid (Frances Christine Sherman), were given by Mesdames B. E. Jones and G. A. Jones, and an outline of the literary activities of George Washington was read by Mrs. J. W. Joyner.

The meeting adjourned to meet on November 19 with Mrs. P. E. Jones.

I am a rebel, I am not so much afraid of the enemy as you are, I am not so much afraid of the enemy as you are, I am not so much afraid of the enemy as you are.

SMITH'S VICTORY

New York, Nov. 5.—While giving its 46 electoral votes to Coolidge and Dawes by a plurality approaching that attained by Harding and Coolidge in the republican landslide of 1920, and placing the republicans in control of its legislature, New York state re-elected Alfred E. Smith, its democratic governor, by a margin over Colonel Theodore Roosevelt that stood tonight at 115,702.

Governor Smith's ability to withstand the republican tide in the state was attributed to his popularity in New York city, which complete returns show that he carried by a plurality of 514,548 over Colonel Roosevelt, despite the fact that the head of the national ticket lost in the metropolis as well as the state.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Miss Evelyn Horton entertained at a delightful Halloween party at Hallows' Eve.

After the guests dressed in gorgeous Halloween costumes, had gathered at her home, partners were found, and the hostess invited them to accompany her to a lonely house where she promised them ghosts and witches galore.

The unoccupied house owned by Miss DeVisconti on Main street was the goal and proved to be a scene of wild hilarity.

JOYNTLY FOR COOLIDGE

New York, Nov. 5.—While giving its 46 electoral votes to Coolidge and Dawes by a plurality approaching that attained by Harding and Coolidge in the republican landslide of 1920, and placing the republicans in control of its legislature, New York state re-elected Alfred E. Smith, its democratic governor, by a margin over Colonel Theodore Roosevelt that stood tonight at 115,702.

Governor Smith's ability to withstand the republican tide in the state was attributed to his popularity in New York city, which complete returns show that he carried by a plurality of 514,548 over Colonel Roosevelt, despite the fact that the head of the national ticket lost in the metropolis as well as the state.

Miss Evelyn Horton entertained at a delightful Halloween party at Hallows' Eve.

After the guests dressed in gorgeous Halloween costumes, had gathered at her home, partners were found, and the hostess invited them to accompany her to a lonely house where she promised them ghosts and witches galore.

The unoccupied house owned by Miss DeVisconti on Main street was the goal and proved to be a scene of wild hilarity.

THE SECOND PIEDMONT LYCEUM ATTRACTION

It is a true saying that the successful man is he who laughs often, lives well and leaves the world better than he found it.

Before the game a delicious turkey dinner, consisting of roast turkey, dressing, cranberry sauce, celery pickles, hot buttered rolls and coffee, was served.

The delightful affair came to a close with the singing of "Good Night, Ladies."

It is a true saying that the successful man is he who laughs often, lives well and leaves the world better than he found it.

I am a rebel, I am not so much afraid of the enemy as you are, I am not so much afraid of the enemy as you are, I am not so much afraid of the enemy as you are.