T. L. & W. J. Turnage Company is one of the oldest merchants having been in business here since 1900 and have never had but one sale. We find it necessary to reduce our stock of Dry Goods, Notions, Clothing, Shoes and everything in this department; to do this we are using the means of a Special Sale.

We wish to impress upon the general public that We are using no fake methods but have positively reduced the price on everything in order to move this stock before inventory.
