

— SUBTLE ALLURING ODOURS —

Exquisite is the only word which describes these wonderful perfumes adequately—so delicate and fascinating are the odors—so dainty and graceful the crystal bottles—so lovely the silk-lined Christmas boxes in which they are packed.

And if you wish a complete set, you may have your powder, rouge, lipstick of the same delightful scent as your perfume.

MRS. JOYNER HOSTESS TO MAGAZINE CLUB

Mrs. J. W. Joyner entertained the members of the Magazine club and several special guests at the regular meetings of the club on Wednesday afternoon. The lower floor was thrown en suite and attractively decorated with holly and red candles.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Perkins, who asked for reports of the social service chairman and the Christmas seal chairman. These were given and the circulation of books recorded. Christmas gifts for a number of shut-ins were discussed and decided upon. Upon motion of Mrs. C. S. Rountree, Mrs. J. W. Joyner was elected to the newly created office of Historian.

An intensely interesting literary program followed the business session. Mrs. J. I. Morgan giving the biographical facts in the early life of Poe, his editorial work, marriage and home life and personality, while Mrs. R. A. Fields gave an outline of Poe's poetry. Two vocal solos, "The Daily Question," Helmut, and "Mammy Song," Ware, rendered by Miss Mary Jerome, accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Joyner, were received with delight. Delicious cherry gelatine and angel food cake were afterwards served by Mesdames W. C. Askew, C. T. Dixon and Will Joyner.

Mrs. Joyner had as special guests at this meeting: Mesdames J. H. Harris, J. M. Hobgood, J. O. Pollard, J. W. Hayes, C. T. Dixon, Will Joyner and Miss Mary Jerome.

Pain In Back & Sides

"FOR A LONG TIME," says Mrs. Dora Payne, of Huntington, Tenn., "I felt listless, tired and worn-out. I did not feel like doing my work, visiting or anything. I suffered much pain in my back and sides. My limbs hurt, my knees would tremble without apparent cause and I would have to sit down. I was very nervous. I would have a tired, dull headache. I had read so much about Cardui I asked my husband to get it for me. The very first bottle seemed to help me. After the second, I was better than I had been in months. I certainly can praise Cardui. I have taken three bottles. Now I hardly wait when the sun shines to garden. I am feeling fine. Similar results to those described above have been reported by thousands of other women. Cardui's 40 years of success should encourage you to give it a thorough trial for the relief of any common female ailment. For sale everywhere."
