"Kid" McCoy

Norman McCoy, known to his friends as "Kid" McCoy, former Farmville champion, has come to his rescue. He is the man who makes things move when he comes committed reliable.

arose and gave a lusty yell for "Fox Sheppard." But while ignorance is bliss tis folly to be wise—so why should they need sympathy. The credit is due Mr. Slaughter for discovering the fact that the address was really meant for the Farmville Scouts. For him died out during the midst of the address while every one was as still as a mouse," he said Farmville, North Carolina."

This splendid stunt was arranged by the Scoutmaster, Irving Morgan and John Harris Jr., and was made possible through the courtesy of T. L. W. J. Tarnage Co. and T. H. Ross by loaning special equipment for it. This was greatly appreciated.

Another side-splitter was the senior boy put on by Elliott Holmes, entitled "Gathering in the Woods." The beauties performed in this were such as: Mr. Wheeler, Mr. T. H. Ross, Mr. Hayes, Donald Justice, Sammy Bynum, Alton Burritt, etc.

Another stunt was the "Goldsboro contest" put on by the members of the group. They sang two very musical numbers. "It's a short, short life we live here" and "Let me call you Sweetheart," the latter being quite sweetly touching.

During the evening a number of badges were awarded as a result of the new interest in Scouting caused by the contest. Nick Otto was awarded the first merit badge certificate ever given in Farmville. He and James Bynum have won several merit badges, but all of them too late to have the badges by the banquet night, except the one awarded to Nick.

Mr. Hayes presented in a few appropriate words the Second Class badge to the following: John D. Dixon, John Tyler, James Hardy, Pete Bynum, John T. Harris, Jr., William P. Smith and Roscoe Field.

Mr. Slaughter presented the Tenderfoot badge to the following: Carl Joyner, Shepard Smith, James G. Smith, Jr., John Tyler and Bennett McBurk.

All the above have passed the test since the contest started.

Roland Parker, Arthur Jones, Sammy Bynum and Alton Burritt, former members of the local troupe. Following this the happy crowd was led in singing "Pan the East About," and after the invocation by Mr. Hayes they were graciously passed along by Jim and Jim Brooks who proved most efficient waiters.

A very interesting feature of the program was the New Year Resolutions which every one was asked to write. The fine thing about writing these was that they were written for the other fellow and not the writer. Every one was asked to write a New Year's resolution for the fellow to his right. The reading of these all out in the evening proved to be most amusing and interesting.

After supper was served and everyone had finished, the pie eating contest was put on between the partners. Two men were chosen from each patrol and given a slice of pie between them. The pie eater had to eat with his mouth behind his back while his fellow patrolman fed the pie to him. This was a success. William Humphrey was declared by Capt. Wheeler, the judge of this contest, to be the biggest pie-eater in the troupe, his having finished first, and John Keel won the laurels for the runners-up.

Along with the group was favored with a short visit in the afternoon. Mr. Joseph E. Stoddard, Chief Scout Master of the Boy Scouts City, over the radio, this was most interesting and instructive to the boys and adults. Mr. Stoddard has had a good deal to say about scouts. So real was the anxiety and interest of the boys in the talk that when the "College of the Air" was called on, not every boy could be heard.

FEW OF FIREMEN DISCOURAGED BY RECENT VENTURE.

Failure of Circus to Patronize Circus Causes Some Criticism.

Some few of the local firemen are much disconcerted over their recent venture and the failure of citizens to support them in causing some comment and criticism.

It is the opinion of this publication that is the first place the attractions assured for the circus were punk to start with, and second, the time selected was unfortunate. Christmas week is always so full of things and events that have been planned way in advance; your best friends and relatives come for a visit and instead of circus going they prefer to sit by the cheerful fire and chat, or else they eat too much and do not feel able to get out. And the weather! My, how the weatherman did punish us for those beautiful days the week before Rain, rain and more rain.

We firmly believe that the citizens of this town are for the firemen, first, last and always, and that it was indifference on their part that made the venture a failure, but rather an unfortunate selection of date and kind of attraction. And we further maintain that should another plan of profit suggest itself to our fire-fighters in the early spring or summer, it will go over, and they will be enabled to attend the Convention in Asheville next summer after all.

WILL HARD-SURFACE ROAD BEFORE APRIL.

Mr. Hart, highway commissioner of the first district, has announced that he intended to hard surface the road from Rocky Mount to the Wilson county line by April.

This should certainly cause the people of Wilson county to get busy and see if they cannot effect a paying off of the balance of the road and meet the one from Rocky Mount.

Yesterday a delegation of citizens consisting of the highway commission of Wayne county went to Raleigh to confer with the state highway commission relative to the Goldsboro road connecting the Wilson road and to secure some details of the matter. Wayne county will spend at least one million dollars on the road which is to be completed in about six months.

The Wayne county people expect to raise this amount in building the road from the medium to Goldsboro and also a road from Goldsboro to Snow Hill. The activity of the people all around us should cause our folks to wake up to the necessity for action.—Wilson Times.

Some of the things we hear about dry law enforcement are staggering.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT.

Pageant Presented by Methodist Presbyterian and Christian Congregations.

LITTLE Daughter of J. E. Oakley and Several Hogs and Cows Bitten.

The local Presbyterian church was the scene of a very artistic Christmas entertainment presented by members of the congregation under the direction of the pastor, Rev. W. H. Fleming, Jr., on Sunday afternoon before Christmas at 5 o'clock. The pageant had as its title, "And Shall Come," and a reverent atmosphere was maintained throughout the appropriate audience. A number of finely muted musical voices, by the choir, concealed in a screen of forest green and the rendering of appropriate passages by the participants, interpreted in an impressive way each character presented. The solo parts in the anthem were beautifully rendered by Mrs. Fleming. The singing was for Christian Education and Memorial Relief.

At 7:30 o'clock the same evening another beautiful pageant "The King's Birthday" was presented to an audience by members of the Christian church congregation. The church was profusely decorated with green and white lather work, carrying out a white and green color scheme. The setting was most artistic and the costumes and music rendered a definite first to an Orpheus club. The King's Birthday was presented by means of the church choir and the coming of the King of the East bearing the electric star and cross were especially beautiful. The offering taken this time will be sent to the organization maintained by the church.

Altogether a combination of different organizations of the church community of the Presbyterian, Methodist, and the Christian church, presented a most attractive and artistic entertainment.
