MCCULLOM-ASKEW.

Announcements as follows, have been received by friends here: "Mr. and Mrs. William C. Askew announce the marriage of their daughter, Gullie Kathleen, to Mr. Bert McCullom on Tuesday, December the thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-four, Richmond, Va." Mr. McCullom and Miss Askew were quietly married in the church of the Holy Comforter by Rev. Wm. E. Cox, only members of the immediate family being present. The bride wore a stylish going-away costume of penny brown tulle with hat, gloves and shoes to match. Mrs. McCullom is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Askew of this city and is a young woman of pleasing personality, jovial disposition, and much charm. She has a host of friends who extend good wishes and congratulations. Mr. McCullom is a native of Winchester, Ky. He was on the local tobacco market for several seasons but is now a member of a real estate company with headquarters in San Antonio, Texas, where they will be at home after January 6th.

MISS CARR HOSTESS.

Miss Martha Carr was hostess to members of the Ladies' Bible class of the Presbyterian Sunday school Tuesday evening at her home on Church street. Among the future plans discussed was that of starting a church nursery. This was decided upon and the movement will be inaugurated next Sunday, when all the mothers having small children may leave them at the Manse during church hours and enjoy the service to the fullest, having the assurance that their little ones are receiving the best of care and attention from some member of the class. Delicious refreshments and cake were served later in the evening.

MRS. BYNUM ENTERTAINS.

The home of Mrs. A. S. Bynum was the scene of a lovely bridge party when she entertained the members of the Progressive Bridge Club and the Tuesday Afternoon Club together with a number of other friends on Saturday evening last. The rooms were attractively decorated with holly ferns, poinsettias and candles, carrying out a color scheme of red and green. Auction was played at six tables and the highest score was made by Miss Addie Bynum, to whom was presented a lovely string of beads. Delicious tipsy cake was followed by after dinner mints and black coffee. An unique feature of entertainment which caused much merriment was the paging of guests by the hostess who was kept busy answering the telephone calls of their "sweeties" at the drug store. Out of town guests were Mesdames Frank Capps, of Raleigh, C. C. Satterfield, of Richmond, Va., Andrews, of Wilmington, and E. T. Ammon, of Dillon, S. C.

TAYLOR-SMITH.

A marriage that came as a complete surprise to many friends here occurred at Richmond, Va., at 6:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Jessie Smith of this city became the wife of Mr. James Berry Taylor, of Goldsboro. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. A. Lawrence, a former pastor of the local Presbyterian church, who now resides in Richmond. Mrs. Taylor has for several years had charge of the local telephone office and holds the position of chief operator. She commands the respect and regard of the entire community, and the regret of her friends in her marriage is that it may take her away from Farmville after another year. Mr. Taylor is well known in Goldsboro where he has been in the construction business for fifteen years. The Enterprise extends congratulations and best wishes.

NEW YEAR PARTY.

Among the festal affairs of the past week was a most enjoyable party given by Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Atwater on New Year's Eve from 9 to 12. Attractive cards suggestive of the New Year season were used to direct the guests to their places at the four tables attractively arranged in the reception room. The house was effectively decorated with the reds and greens of the Christmas season. In the game of auction the top score was made by J. Y. Monk who received an angel food cake and the consolation prize was presented to Will Joyner. This was truly consoling to the winner for it was an angel food cake too and twice as large as the other. At 12 o'clock the chimes, the pealing of the Liberty Bell and some splendid music was enjoyed. The new year wish was uttered and the new year wishes were exchanged and the new year wishes were served later in the evening.

A NEW YEAR. Mortal man is annually inspired with the advent of a New Year. It is human nature—and it is good. For many it has marked a turning point for better times. A little keen study of such lives soon discloses the secret of success. It is energy, plus will-to-achieve, plus moderation in daily living, plus a saving of part of that acquired. In this civilization, money is our method of exchange. The man with a bank account is a better workman because his mind is free to achieve and enjoy better things.

You know the truth of these statements. Why don't you resolve now to make 1925 a more successful year? This institution is willing and anxious to assist and serve you.
