It was reported also that the unior Division (formally known as the Bright Jewel Band), had made a most excellent record; and had attained is, perhaps, no better record of the Woman's Work in the North Carelina Conference than has been made by these societies.

From 10 to 11 p. m. was a social hour for all present. The audience was divided into two equal groups and an intelligence contest was entered into, covering the day, date and days in the church, Sunday school, and national calendar year. Followout New Year's resolutions, and after the ladies of the missionary societies served hot coffee, sandwiches and pickles, the resolutions were read aloud. Some of them were amusing, but the majority of them indicated high and nobler purposes and were of such a nature as to be very encouraging to the pastor in spite of Andy
