Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Joyner were Wilson visitors Wednesday.

Miss Edna Robinson spent the past week end at her home in Ivanhoe.

Mr. Edgar Edwards, of Snow Hill, was a Farmville visitor Tuesday.

Miss Helene Higgs, of Greenville, was a Farmville visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Ben May, of Sanford, is spending some time here visiting relatives.

Mrs. H. P. Moseley was hostess to the Magazine club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter J. Newton was at home to her bridge club Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Suggs, of Greene county, were Farmville visitors Monday.

James Lang, a student of State College, Raleigh, is spending a few days at home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Morgan spent Sunday in Bailey visiting Mrs. Morgan's mother.

Miss Tabitha DeVisconti has returned home from a visit to her sister in Raleigh.

Her many friends are glad to see Miss Winnie Carr out from a recent attack of illness.

Misses Rachel Jordan, Raye Dawson and Boatright were Greenville visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Jack Smith left last Sunday for Dixon, S. C., to spend several days with her sister.

Misses Thelma Jones and Rosalind Tyson were the week end guests of Miss Delphis Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parker spent Sunday in Green county at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Suggs.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Barrow, of Greene county, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Beaman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Capps, of Raleigh, were guests of friends and relatives in Farmville for the week end.

Miss Best Dail and Mrs. George McGee, of Snow Hill, spent a few hours in the city Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. R. Waters, of Snow Hill, spent a few days in the city this week, visiting her sister, Mrs. Ed Beaman.

Mrs. P. S. Boyd, of Mooresville, and Mrs. J. W. Dixon, of Raleigh, arrived in the city Wednesday afternoon to spend several days with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Rouse, accompanied by Messrs. G. M. Holden and Loyd Smith, motored to Raleigh Wednesday morning, returning in the afternoon.

Mrs. Nonie Barrett has returned to Durham to be with her son, who is improving from a recent serious illness, after spending a few days at her home here.

Mrs. H. W. Turnage went to Greenville Wednesday to spend a few days with her parents and to be present at the marriage of her sister on Saturday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bryan, Sr., and Capt. T. M. Wiggins, of Oxford, and Miss Sue Bryan, of E. C. T. C., Greenville, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bryan, Jr.

Friends will be glad to know that both Mrs. C. S. Rountree and Mrs. M. V. Barton, who are undergoing treatment in a hospital in Washington, are improving as rapidly as could be expected.

Mrs. E. S. Smith spent a few days the past week with her daughter, Miss Louise, who is attending school at Blackstone, Va. She returned home Sunday, accompanied by Miss Louise, who spent a few days at home.

There seems to be very little interest manifested so far in the rapidly approaching town primary to be held on Wednesday, April 15. So far not a single candidate has publicly declared himself (or herself) for either of the positions to be filled.

Friends here will be glad to learn that Mrs. Carlton Carr, of Wailstonburg, is now recovering from a recent serious illness.

"The Flapper Grandmother," a local talent musical comedy triumph, presented by the Parent-Teacher Association in the high school auditorium Thursday evening, attracted quite a number of people from Greenville, Snow Hill and other nearby cities.

MISS FLANAGAN ENTERTAINS

On last Friday evening at 8 o'clock Miss Seba Flanagan delightfully entertained a number of her friends. The occasion was her eighteenth birthday and that day is one long to be remembered by both she and her guests.

The guests were met at the door by the hostess, then shown to the cloak room at the rear of the hall by Miss Ethel Smith. Nannie Smith and Lucy Johnston presided over the punch bowl, and Miss Mildred Barrett showed the guests into the parlor. There Mrs. Sam Flanagan had charge of the registration in the birthday book, which was hand painted in wild rose designs.

Mrs. Walter Sheppard directed a series of contests which then followed. Two captains were chosen from the twenty young people present for team work, Sarah Mewborn being captain of team No. 1, and Irvin Morgan captain of team No. 2. The contests were as follows:

"The Yard Dash," a "backward spelling match," "The High Step" and "A Candle Walk." Team No. 2 won only by a score of one. The prize was a delicious assortment of home made candy.

Early in the evening bottle fortunes were told, but some of them did not seem to "fill the bill" for the young folks. Lucky for them they had another chance to learn their fate when the hidden fortunes were found in the birthday cake.

The cake was a large oval shaped one, prettily iced and trimmed with a pink rose design. The candles on the cake, also four large ones, arranged on the table, lighted up a scene of loveliness as one approached the dining room. The cake was banked around with ivy and peach blossoms forming an attractive centerpiece for the table. Small crystal baskets held pink and white mints. Each plate a dainty pink frilled sauced peanut container, and each place was marked by hand painted cards. Baskets and vases of peach blossoms formed the background.

After the excitement of cutting for fortunes, delicious ice cream, cake, mints and salted peanuts were served.

Then came the hour of departure, and with that came more good wishes for many happy birthdays to come. An evening of real youthful merriment had closed, but for Seba the echoes will go down through the years. Each year will be a happy reminder and each of the pretty and useful gifts a token of friendship.

She: What makes you like Bessie so well?
 He: Bobbed hair, flapper manners, vacant brains and too much make up.

She: Why, I'm surprised! That certainly describes most of the girls, but not Bessie.
 He: I know it; that's why I like her so well.

Mr. Jasper L. Shackelford, who has been on the sick list this week is able to be out again.

He was a credit to his college. He owed everybody.

SAVINGS
RARE COINS

Some men spend all their time hunting rare coins. A few spend all their time in making rare coins.

The wiser class spend all their time in accumulating common coins and in saving some of them against the day of adversity.

Owing money is dangerous—it makes you lose your memory.

"The World's Greatest Buy"
Everyone Says It—Sales Prove It

Hudson is not called "the World's Greatest Buy" for today alone. That is acknowledgment of ten years' constant refinement of a great car around the famous patented Super-Six principle. The largest production of 6-cylinder closed cars in the world give it unequalled value advantages.

All now know that higher price can buy no smoother performance than Hudson's. It cannot buy more brilliant results in pick-up, power or speed. It cannot buy greater reliability or endurance. At today's prices need you own a lesser car? Can a costlier car satisfy you more?
