

— FOR —
FUNERAL FLOWERS
 — SEE —
MISS EMMA DALE,
 Phone: Office 15; Res. 6 — Farmville, N. Carolina
 REPRESENTING
CAROLINA FLORAL COMPANY,
 WILSON, N. C.

LOCALS AND PERSONALS
 OF INTEREST TO
 Farmville and Surrounding Sections

Judge J. Loyd Horton, of Raleigh, spent Wednesday in the city.

Miss Veleria Taylor is visiting her sister Mrs. C. L. Beaman.

Attorney John Hill Taylor paid Tarboro a professional visit Thursday.

Sheriff E. A. Rasberry and P. B. Holden, of Snow Hill, were Farmville visitors Wednesday.

Mr. A. W. Whitaker, of Portsmouth, Va., spent Sunday in Farmville with his family.

Miss Beat Dail, of Snow Hill, spent Sunday night and Monday in Farmville with relatives.

Mrs. T. B. Keith, of Tarboro, has returned home after a visit to Mrs. B. B. Slaughter.

Messrs. W. R. Willis and W. H. Lang, of Greenville, were visitors in the city Wednesday.

Misses Ray Dawson and Rachel Jordan spent last week end at the home of Miss Dawson in Grifton.

Mrs. C. S. Rountree has returned home from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Frank Capps, in Raleigh.

Messrs. Charles Whedbee and T. J. Nixon, Jr., of Hartford, were business visitors in Farmville last Friday.

The Magazine club met with Miss Annie Perkins at the home of Mrs. Annie Lang Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Eva Gary, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Harris, has returned to her home in Murfreesboro.

Mrs. Jan. T. Thorne was called to Magnolia Monday of this week to be at the bedside of her mother who is very sick.

Rev. N. N. Fleming returned Thursday afternoon from Elizabeth City, where he attended the meeting of the Albemarle Presbytery.

Friends will regret to learn that Mrs. R. A. Fields has been on the sick list this week and wish for her early return to health.

The Merry Matrons club held its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. W. Parker, on Church street.

Mrs. J. Loyd Horton left today for Raleigh to be with her husband for the week end and to pay a visit to relatives.

The Young Peoples' Missionary Society of the Methodist church held its regular meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Lyman Jones.

The Senior play presented at Fernin's Hall in the High School building Tuesday evening was greatly enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience.

A large number of our townspeople have been attending the Eastern Carolina Exposition which is being held in Smithfield this week. They report a good exhibition with large crowds in attendance.

Friends will regret to learn that Mrs. Nan Smith is critically ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Farnage. Due to Mrs. Smith's nature and little hope is entertained for a much longer stay among us.

Mrs. J. T. Dixon who has been receiving treatment at the State Sanatorium for tuberculosis for the past several months, has returned home wonderfully improved in health. In fact, pronounced entirely cured of tubercular infection.

Miss Sallie DeVincenti, accompanied by Miss Ethel Pittman, Farmville's guests at the Eastern Carolina Exposition, and Misses Abbie Bryan and Rachel Jordan, returned to Smithfield Monday afternoon to attend the opening meeting of the exposition.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Orphanage Singing Chass Here Tuesday

The spacious auditorium of Farmville high school was well filled with an appreciative audience who thoroughly enjoyed one of the best entertainments of the season which was given last Tuesday evening by the singing class of the Oxford Orphanage. These motherless boys and girls never fail to awaken kindest sympathy wherever they appear and their entertainment this year is even better than past efforts. They are always welcome visitors to Farmville and it was a pleasure for local people to give them the hearty cooperation their efforts deserve.

IT'S ANOTHER BOY

Born to Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Oglesby, Wednesday night, April 16, another son.

Prohibition may prohibit, but it plays thunders with the quality.

There is objection to the new two dollar bill, but it WILL buy a dollar's worth.

Los Angeles is thinking of requiring lights on baby carriages; they are equipped with sirens already.

20th, with the best to be had in first class pictures.

Mrs. Sallie Southall Cotten, accompanied by Mrs. Palmer Jermon, of Raleigh, passed through the city Thursday en route to Cottendale, the country home of Mrs. Cotten, near Farmville. Mrs. Jermon coming down to deliver an address at the district meeting of the N. C. F. W. C. to be held in Farmville today, Friday.

The death angel overlooked and claimed the life of Mr. L. B. Oakley, a prosperous farmer who resided near Farmville when on Tuesday eve of the day passed into night this life, which for the past few weeks has been hanging on weakened and tender cords gave way to a complication of diseases.

Mr. Oakley, about fifty years of age, and during the past few years had accumulated quite a nice little holding in real estate.

He leaves a wife and four children. His body was taken to its last earthly resting place Wednesday afternoon and tenderly placed there in the family burial ground. Rev. B. B. Slaughter, of the Farmville Methodist church, conducted the last sad rites.

Mrs. Annie Lang wonders if radio announcements go right to bed when they say good night.

Messrs. Charles Whedbee and T. J. Nixon, Jr., of Hartford, were business visitors in Farmville last Friday.

The Magazine club met with Miss Annie Perkins at the home of Mrs. Annie Lang Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Eva Gary, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Harris, has returned to her home in Murfreesboro.

Mrs. Jan. T. Thorne was called to Magnolia Monday of this week to be at the bedside of her mother who is very sick.

Rev. N. N. Fleming returned Thursday afternoon from Elizabeth City, where he attended the meeting of the Albemarle Presbytery.

Friends will regret to learn that Mrs. R. A. Fields has been on the sick list this week and wish for her early return to health.

The Merry Matrons club held its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. W. Parker, on Church street.

Mrs. J. Loyd Horton left today for Raleigh to be with her husband for the week end and to pay a visit to relatives.

The Young Peoples' Missionary Society of the Methodist church held its regular meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Lyman Jones.

The Senior play presented at Fernin's Hall in the High School building Tuesday evening was greatly enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience.

A large number of our townspeople have been attending the Eastern Carolina Exposition which is being held in Smithfield this week. They report a good exhibition with large crowds in attendance.

Friends will regret to learn that Mrs. Nan Smith is critically ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Farnage. Due to Mrs. Smith's nature and little hope is entertained for a much longer stay among us.

Mrs. J. T. Dixon who has been receiving treatment at the State Sanatorium for tuberculosis for the past several months, has returned home wonderfully improved in health. In fact, pronounced entirely cured of tubercular infection.

Miss Sallie DeVincenti, accompanied by Miss Ethel Pittman, Farmville's guests at the Eastern Carolina Exposition, and Misses Abbie Bryan and Rachel Jordan, returned to Smithfield Monday afternoon to attend the opening meeting of the exposition.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

Remember the Trio Theatre here will open Monday night, April 20th, under entirely new management, and will be the best of pleasure will be on the part of the entertainment. See the big advertisement in this issue.

CHURCH DIRECTORY

METHODIST CHURCH
 B. B. Slaughter, Pastor.
 Worship and sermon at 11 a. m. and 8:00 p. m.
 Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., J. M. T. Thorne, Superintendent.
 Epworth League 7 p. m.
 Prayer meetings Wednesday evening at 8:00 p. m.
 You are cordially invited.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
 N. N. Fleming, Jr., Pastor.
 Sabbath school at 9:45 a. m., Walter G. Shoppard, Supt.
 Morning service at 11 a. m., with sermon by the pastor.
 Senior Christian Endeavor 7 p. m.
 Preaching service at 8 p. m.
 Mid-week Prayer services Wednesday at 8 p. m., a study in the Gospel according to John, 7th chapter.
 You are invited to attend all these services.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH
 J. W. Hayes, Rector.
 First Sunday after Easter, 9:45 a. m. Church school. Superintendent, J. L. Shackelford. Adult class leader, Alex. Bynum. Beginning the study of the New Testament Epistles. "The Pastoral Epistles."
 11 a. m. Morning prayer and sermon. Subject: Celebration of the sixteen hundredth anniversary of the Nicene Creed.
 2:30. Church school at Ballard's, Superintendent, Mrs. Tyson.
 7 p. m. Young Peoples' Service League.
 8 p. m. Evening prayer and sermon.
 Week Day Meetings
 Wednesday, 10:30. Holy Communion.
 Thursday 8 p. m. Service at Ballard's.
 Friday, 3:30 p. m. Confirmation talks in the rector's study.

MANTELL, A LONE FIGURE
 "The Merchant of Venice" Will Be Presented at White's Theatre Monday, April 20th.

Robert Bruce Mantell is a lone figure on the world stage today, the last of what the late William Winter termed "the royal line" of tragedians. It started with Richard Burbage in Shakespeare's own Elizabethan company and continued through the generations of Restoration, Garrick, Kemble, Kean, the Booths and Irving. Shakespeare, according to the legends, traditions, was his own stage manager, and from his garage received instructions as to how Lear and Macbeth and Othello should be played. With the triumph of the Puritans under Cromwell, the English theatre was all but suppressed, but fortunately the Restoration came before the Elizabethan actors had all of them passed away. From these veterans the new generation received instruction, and thus the Shakespearean ideas were reestablished. From that day to this, two and a half centuries, there has been no break in the succession, and the traditions are preserved practically intact.

There has been, it is true, some revolutionary movements. Shylock, for example, was originally a comic character. The young Jewish tragedian, Macklin, a rival of Garrick on the London stage introduced the tragic Shylock, weathering successfully a tornado of hisses and boos, winning finally complete favor and forcing even the mighty Garrick to recognize the new order of things. Then, too, there was the Garrick revolution itself, but Garrick did no more than humanize the great heroes of the drama, making them flesh and blood personages instead of mere magnificent spouters of eloquent speeches. In spite of revolutions, and with the sole exception of Shylock the mighty men of Shakespeare are visualized by Mantell much as they were by Burbage, and in accordance, therefore, with Shakespeare's ideas. The present generation has witnessed the same violent upheaval in the world of the theatre as in all other arts and industries, an upheaval commensurate with cabinet paintings, with the displacements of candlelight by the incandescent globe and horse or ox carts by the locomotive and the automobile. Traditions no longer are sacred, merely because they are traditions. Mr. Mantell alone among present day actors has clung tenaciously to the old and refused to experiment with the more or less bizarre and fantastic theories of the so-called progressives. Almost he might be termed a survival. Whether or no he has done wisely will be determined when the relative places of Corot and Manet are fixed beyond cavil.

Meanwhile the Greenville lovers of Shakespeare will have a week of the sort of festival spread in this generation only by Robert Bruce Mantell. "The Merchant of Venice" at White's Theatre, Greenville, N. C., Monday, April 20.

SOME CHECK ARREST
 There seems to be no limit to which the worthless check class will go. A fellow who recently married in one of our good Carolina cities gave a merchant a worthless check for his wedding suit, and was the county recorder of death a worthless check for his wedding house. Can you beat it?

CHECKING ACCOUNT
PAY BY CHECK

If you lose your check book we'll give you another one, but if you should lose your money—well, that's different.

—and the difference is in favor of the check book, every time.

When you are drifting you are at least floating.

Bank of Farmville
 "There Is No Substitute For Safety"

GET THAT REPAIR JOB DONE NOW

WHILE WE ARE NOT RUSHED

Remember we are prepared to do all kinds of work on both light and heavy machinery. In case of broken parts, we are also equipped to make new parts to fit, or weld the old parts. Acetylene Welding one of our specialties.

FARMVILLE MACHINE WORKS
 Wilson St. Farmville, N. C.

THEY ARE HERE!

'Lloyd Loom Carriages'

Handsome new styles and the latest color effects

Priced from $15 to $50

STROLLERS AND CARRIAGES

Moderately priced.

Come in, see our line and buy the baby a new buggy

Farmville Furniture Co.
 T. E. JOYNER, Manager — FARMVILLE, N. C.

SPRING IS HERE

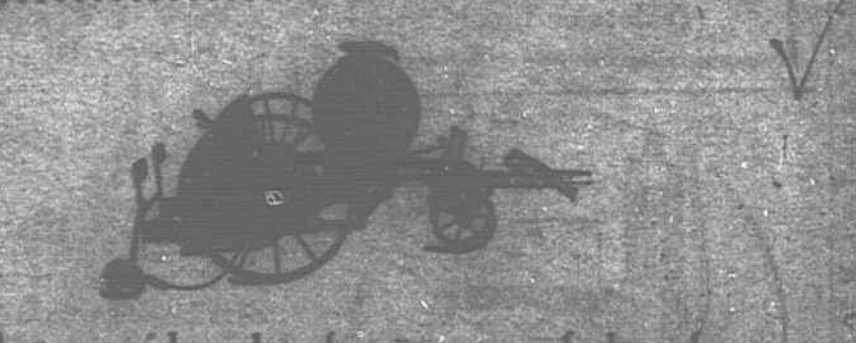

Underwear

Athletic and knee length union suits, cut full and roomy and every garment perfect. Made of the finest quality pincheck nainsooks, large bar nainsooks, madras and fancy materials. Wonderfully made garments & well finished. All sizes up to 46. This is the opportunity to supply your full summer needs. $1.95 to $2.50 per suit.

Shirts.

White Oxford Shirts are big favorites. This fine showing includes both collar attached and detached. There is a choice of button down or plain styles. They are all made and proportioned. At this same price we are also showing a large selection of new colored striped madras in neck-band styles. Costless days—mean good shirt days. $2.00 to $3.50.

JOYNER-COX COMPANY
 Main Street The Quality Store Farmville, N. C.

We have on hand a few more of the famous Bemis Transplanters

If you need one you had better come at once, and let us show you before placing your order. Our prices are reasonable. Cash or terms.

Bemis Hardware Co.
 Main Street Farmville, N. C.