

Welcome to FARMVILLE The Little City With Big Possibilities.

THE FARMVILLE ENTERPRISE

Subscription $1.50 a Year in Advance

Published by The House Printing FARMVILLE, PITT COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, MAY 14, 1925 VOL. 15 No. 51

Withdraws Big Donation to Stone Mountain Association

Major Lester P. Barlow Asks Return of $100,000 Gift to the Stone Mountain Memorial

Raleigh, April 28.—Major Lester P. Barlow, consulting engineer of Cleveland, Ohio, who is here visiting...

Dorothy Holland, 13, of Red Lion, Pa., has bobbed hair and is too young to have a haircut. It came in her father's church.

The gift was made some time ago in the form of a deed of trust to the association, which is one-third of a war claim against the government for $300,000.

USE CONVICTS STATE ROADS

Highway Commission and Governor Confer on Working State Prisoners

Raleigh, April 30.—Plans for the working of convicts on the state highways were discussed Wednesday at a conference between the governor and the state highway commission.

On Lexington Ground at 150 Years

With Gen. Pershing and Vice-President Dawkins on the Lexington battlefield, the modern Massachusetts minute-men re-enacted the battle of Concord in the 150th anniversary of the battle.

HALF MILLION BUILDING FUND

Funds Being Raised For The Growth of Lenoir College

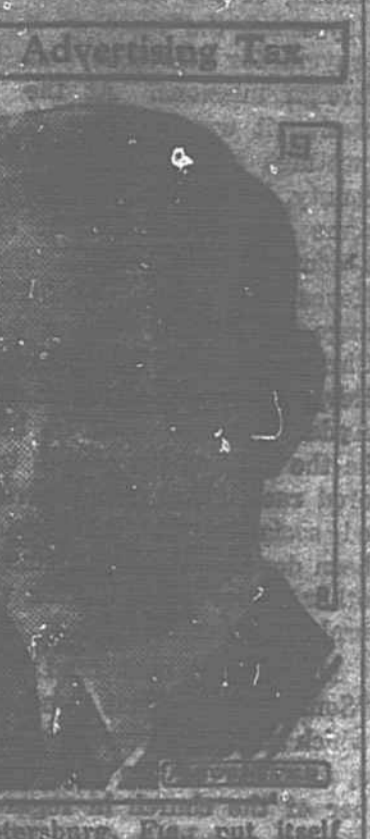

Lenoir, April 30.—With practically all of the churches and churches in the Washington District of the North Carolina Methodist Conference represented, pastors and lay representatives met in the First Methodist church, at Bethel, Wednesday evening...

WAR HELLS TO RETURN HOME

Plans for 'Homecoming and Reunion Week' Next Fall Take Definite Shape

Raleigh, April 30.—An executive committee was appointed yesterday by Governor McLean to make plans for the North Carolina Homecoming and Reunion Week of October 12-17, 1925.

Von Hindenburg New President of German Republic

Successful in Election and Will Be Inducted As the First Popularly Elected President of the Fatherland

Berlin, April 27.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg's "front porch" campaign, conducted from his home in Hanover, has been successful and the week he will be inducted into office as the first popularly elected president of Germany.

STATE'S NEW NUCLEUS

Additional $6,000,000 Borrowed on Short-Term Notes by Council of State

Raleigh, April 30.—Action by the state department of finance from January 1 to April 30, 1925, was approximately $12,000,000, which was approximately 150% of the 1924 appropriation for the same period.

THE NEW SPEED LAW ON MAY 1

A Low Thirty-Five Miles Per Hour on Highways of State

Greensboro, April 29.—Friday, May 1, the new automobile speed law permitting 35 miles per hour on the highways of North Carolina will become effective.

LAUGHINGHOUSE CHOSEN DIRECTOR OF HEALTH

State Board of Health Offers Important Post of Rankin to Prominent Greenville Physician

Fibers, April 29.—Dr. Charles Laughinghouse, of Greenville, was the choice of the state board of health as the successor of retiring Secretary Watson S. Rankin.

DEF. DEMUR IN SUIT $200,000

Hearing to Be Before Judge Daniels, Calvert or Midyette

Raleigh, April 30.—George A. Norwood, of Goldsboro, has filed demurrers in the case brought against himself and others for $200,000, alleging conspiracy, libel and slander.

W. STEWART IS RAILED

Granted on His Own Motion by McLean Who Wants to Right Thing by Stewart

Raleigh, April 29.—Governor McLean, on his own motion, today granted Willie Stewart, son of C. W. Stewart and brother of Elmer Stewart, who were electrocuted at state prison last week for the murder of Sam Hill and Leon George, in Blount county.

Orange & Black to Be Color Scheme for New Auto License

Plans for New License Plates to Be Made of Metal

Raleigh, April 30.—Orange and black will be the color scheme of North Carolina automobile license plates from June 30, 1925, to the corresponding date a year hence.

AGED WOMAN THEFT VICTIM

Daughter Found Guilty in This Session of Court of Stealing $500 From Mother

Greenville, April 25.—Mrs. Mollie Fields, her husband, Alex Fields, and their daughter, Sallie Fields, were during the week given a hearing in superior court on a charge of larceny of $500 from Mrs. Nancy Purdy, the 90-year-old mother of Mrs. Fields.

Attacked by Bull Severely Injured

Winston, April 29.—Frank M. Daniel, superintendent of the city of Winston, was severely injured when he was attacked by a young bull at his dairy in the eastern section of the city.

SNOW HILL MEN SEEK AUCTION WAREHOUSE

Efforts are now being made by business men of the town to secure an open warehouse for the coming season.

HAIR STONES OVER POUND

Falls in Robinson and Campbell and Bigger Than Man's Fist

Fayetteville, April 29.—Hair stones weighing more than a pound fell in a hailstorm that swept through Robinson and the lower part of Cumberland county yesterday afternoon.

W. STEWART IS RAILED

Granted on His Own Motion by McLean Who Wants to Right Thing by Stewart

Raleigh, April 29.—Governor McLean, on his own motion, today granted Willie Stewart, son of C. W. Stewart and brother of Elmer Stewart, who were electrocuted at state prison last week for the murder of Sam Hill and Leon George, in Blount county.

AGED WOMAN THEFT VICTIM

Daughter Found Guilty in This Session of Court of Stealing $500 From Mother

Greenville, April 25.—Mrs. Mollie Fields, her husband, Alex Fields, and their daughter, Sallie Fields, were during the week given a hearing in superior court on a charge of larceny of $500 from Mrs. Nancy Purdy, the 90-year-old mother of Mrs. Fields.

DEFEATED FOR MAYOR

Charlotte, April 29.—John M. McQueen, who is running over the White House campaign for Mayor of Charlotte, was defeated for the office.