GOV. OFFERS PRIZE CONTEST

Shows in Practical Way Interest in Promoting the Use of Cotton Goods Which are Manufactured Largely in North Carolina and the South

Charlotte, July 28.—Governor A. W. McLean, in adding financial assistance to the promotion of the use of cotton goods...

Referring to our recent conversation in regard to the Made-in-Carolina Exposition, I am much interested in promoting the use of cotton goods in the making of wearing apparel.

I have in mind offering a prize of $100.00 to be awarded at your exposition this fall for the best display of ladies' dresses made of products from North Carolina cotton mills.

I am tremendously interested in the success of the movement to increase the use of North Carolina cotton-made goods.
